BUSINESS LOCALS.

JOHN Q. SMITH, of Waterbury, Conn., has opened a new store on South Front street, next door to W. M. Powers, the tinmer, and has on hand a fine lot of groceries. If you wish to save money, call in and see his goods before purchasing elsewhere. General satisfaction will be given.

No. 1 TIMOTHY HAY at 241 W. S. W. & E. W. SMALLWOOD'S.

"The best in the cheapest," is an old and true axiom. The Diamond Lens Spectacles and Eye-glasses are the best for those who need artificial aid for the eyes. They are made to the trade mark, a small diamond.

"HATS OFF"—another fine Cigar. W. L. PALMER.

You can buy First-Class Piano and Organs from us for less money than you can elsewhere. We sell Decker Bros., Stief & Guild Pianos; the Smith American Organs. Correspondence solicited. MEAKEN & HARTFIELD, feb15 dw8m Kinston, N. C.

WINE OF ORANGE—Known as Florida wine, can be found at the store of James Redmond. It is pure and undiluted and remarkable for its delicate flavor and exquisite bouquet. Why buy a foreign article when a better and purer wine can be had at a less price. Also, Holland Gin and pure French Brandy received by schooner Melvin. mar1 m

A full line of Plows, Harrows and Cultivators, at prices to suit the times. Geo. Allen & Co.

Fertilizers, Lime, Plaster, Cement, Glass, Paints, Varnish and Oil at low prices. Geo. Allen & Co.

The strong northwest winds yesterday made low tide.

The cold wave struck New Berne on Monday night with some force but we trust there is no damage done.

The New and Overhauled pits the loss by fire of the Raleigh Oil and Fertilizer Company on Sunday morning at $100,000.

The Adventists administered the ordinance of baptism to five candidates, at the foot of Broad street, on Sunday evening last.

Ten prisoners in Craven county jail. The number a few weeks ago was down to three. It seems to be a hard matter to empty the old hotel.

Shepard Bryan, son of H. R. Bryan, Esq., has lost a favorite Wyandott rooster—dark speckled and steps high—which, perhaps, has gone to some neighbor's. Return him and be rewarded.

Two cases before the Mayor yesterday. One for disorderly conduct, dismissed. The other driving beef cattle through the streets improperly attended. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.

The truckers are much concerned about the Irish potato crop. The warm weather a few days ago brought many through the ground, but the present cold snap has nipped them in the bud and put them back again.

The board of Aldermen of Wilmington, failing to elect a Mayor, or the Democrats failing to agree upon a man for the position, have elected Alderman King, Mayor pro tem. We had hoped to see our friend Col. Hall re-elected.

Greenboro has voted, almost unanimously, to issue bonds to the amount of $100,000 for public improvements. New Berne has been completely satisfied with bonded debts in trying to pay that of the county. We doubt if our people would vote a bonded debt of $1,000 for improvements of any kind.

Judge George Bodman says he is "rights neutral" in the contest for city councilmen this year. He is in the 3d ward, where he knows everything will go all right. Moses Bryan refuses to be interviewed on the condition of affairs in the city, but he is always on the strong side.

Steamer Movement.
The steamer Vesper of the C. D. Line, will sail this afternoon from her pier foot of Craven street at 4 o'clock.

Geo. Allen & Co., Baltimore.

The supreme court of the United States has granted the writ of Ad Corpus applied for by George M. Bain, Jr., cashier of the late Exchange Bank of Norfolk, who had been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for making a false report on a statement as to the condition of the bank. This decision will cause his release from custody.

NEWS NOTES.

The Wisconsin Legislature has passed a bill prohibiting railway companies from granting passes on the request of members of the Legislature or friends of the latter.

The strike of sixteen hundred silk dyers of Patterson, N. J., which has lasted over six weeks, ended Saturday, and the result is a victory for the manufacturers.

Elisha Snow, of Tolland, Conn., a farmer, 65 years old, killed his wife with an axe on Sunday and then hanged himself in his barn. Snow had been partially insane.

Frank Keiner, the religious monomaniac, of Reading, Pa., who brutally murdered his wife, has been found guilty of murder in the second degree by agreement of counsel.

Hon. Samuel H. Treat, Judge of the United States District Court for the southern district of Illinois, died in Springfield Sunday. He was appointed to the United States bench by President Pierce in 1854, and was 75 years of age.

At the meeting in New York Saturday of the Intercollegiate Base-Ball Association a general opinion was expressed that some means should be adopted to stop the extreme roughness of the game as played on some fields.

The Daily Republican, of Wilmington, Del., has been sued for $20,000 by Robert S. Woodward, of Newark, for publishing an article charging him (though not by name) with driving his daughter out of the house and refusing to support her.

John L. Sullivan gave an exhibition of his hitting powers to a number of sporting gentlemen in New York Saturday night, and proved satisfactorily that he was able to box again, and next week intends to start out with his combination.

A live-stock train on the New York Division Pennsylvania Railroad ran into a switching engine at North Pennsylvania Junction Saturday night and 18 horses were either crushed to death or injured so badly that it was necessary to kill them.

On Orange Items.

The fishing business up here is very poor this season.

Rev. Mr. Hires preached here last Sunday, his regular appointment. It is now said that a fair crop of peaches will be raised if no disaster from this.

W. A. Hadley, who has been confined to his bed for two or three weeks, was able to be on the streets Monday. We hope his improvement will continue and be permanent.

A few days of moderately warm weather has given gardens and other truck a more healthy appearance. Trees do not look as much like spring now as they did three weeks ago. Surely we have had a long cold spell for March.

The article on farming in Saturday's JOURNAL is good reading. The trouble will be to get farmers to see and practice it. The people up here, where Mr. Sanderlin is well known, would be delighted to see him at the head of the Agricultural Department of the State. The JOURNAL is not alone in this.

Constant fault-finding is very disagreeable. There are few persons clear from faults, and fewer still clear from mistakes, and it is no evidence of smartness to be constantly alluding to faults or pointing out mistakes. One's smartness will be judged by what he does and not by what he sees in others. We learn that the store house of B. F. Fields, at Falling Creek, this county, was broken open last Sunday, and the iron safe (left unlocked), robbed of two hundred and fifty dollars. This is a severe loss on Mr. Fields, who is one of our most industrious citizens. The particulars of the robbery we have not learned.

How Judge Gaston, of North Carolina, Died.

Secretary Dobbin, of North Carolina, used to narrate with great feeling the death-bed scene of Judge Gaston, of North Carolina. Surrounded by a few of his chosen friends, who were at his bedside on the first intimation of a danger to which he was inescapable, he was relating with great playfulness the particulars of a convivial party at Washington City, many years before, and spoke of one who on that occasion, "threw himself," as he said, "into the religion." "From that day," said Judge Gaston, "I always looked on that man with distrust. I do not say that a free-thinker may not be an honorable man; that he may not from high motives scorn to do a mean act; but I dare not trust him; a belief in an over-ruling Divinity, who shapes our ends, whose eye is upon us, and who will reward us according to our deeds, is necessary. We must believe and feel that there is a God; all-wise and all-just, and that he is coming to settle with the thought, 'Almighty!'" There was a sudden rush of blood to the brain. He sank in the arms of his friends, and in five minutes his spirit was gone! Not a groan, pained the ear of his agonized friends.—Sunny South.

"My son, when you go to the city, get you a bicycle, some tight pants, some tooth-pick shoes, and a slender cane, but with all your gettings don't fail to get a bottle of Salvation Oil, for 'pride (you know) goeth before a fall.'"

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, March 26.—In the division last night in the House of Commons, on Mr. Morley's amendment to Government's motion to grant urgency for the coercion bill, three Unionists voted against the government. Seven Unionist members were absent.

Cambridge won the University boat race.

Eighty-five persons lost their lives by the explosion in Bulli Colliery, at Sidney, Thursday. The bodies have all been recovered.

ROME, March 26.—Magr. Galemberte, special Papal Delegate to Berlin, has telegraphed to the Pope that he has obtained from Prince Bismarck all of the religious concessions asked by the Vatican, but has not obtained any political concession. The leaders of the Centre (Catholic) party maintain great reserve towards Magr. Galemberte.

St. Petersburg, March 26.—Eighty-seven torpedo vessels belonging to the Baltic fleet of the Russian Navy have been ordered placed in a constant readiness for service. Crews have been ordered forthwith for forty-five of these vessels.

Millions In It.

CHICAGO, March 26.—A special from Detroit says: Judge Thomas M. Cooley appeared in Wayne Circuit Court yesterday as counsel for Mrs. Clotilde Palms, daughter and joint heir with her brother, Francis E. Palms, of the late Francis Palms. The latter left property valued at about $7,000,000 to his two children. The will provides for this trust to be held until maturity is attained by the children for either heir.

This is as near as the testator came to entailing his vast possessions, and the lawyers say that this will not stand the test of our laws. A provision in the will disinherited either heir who should contest the will on its face, therefore the case is merely a friendly discussion on the part of counsel to settle what the provisions of the will mean. Under this disguise lurks what is expected will prove the greatest snarl in the history of the State, and is likely to give Miss Palms more notoriety, she being now known to the public as the lady with whom Senator Jones of Florida was smitten. As Miss Palms has no children, the estate, in case she dies unmarried and childless, would revert to her brother or his children. Besides Judge Cooley, there is an eminent array of legal talent in the case.

Ex-Governor Hubbard Says.

AUSTIN, TEXAS, March 8, 1882. Mr. A. K. Hawkes, Dear Sir—I am much pleased with the panisopie glasses you so perfectly adapted to my eyes, with them I am enabled to read, as in my youth, the finest print with the greatest ease. I cheerfully recommend them to the public. Respectfully, R. B. HUBBARD, (Ex-Gov. of Texas) Minister to Japan.

New Rates of Freight on Cotton Piece Goods.

NEW YORK, March 26.—The arbitration committee of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association completed their labors at an early hour this morning and announce as they result that after April first, cotton piece goods will be taken by every line in the Association in consignments of less than a car load at third-class rates, whether bound north or south; and consignments by the car load will be taken at fourth-class rates. This decision removes what has been considered as a discrimination heretofore existing in charging third-class rates for south-bound consignments in any quantity as against sixth-class rates on north-bound consignments in any quantities.

Another Railroad Disaster.

ST. LOUIS, March 28.—The Post Dispatch says: The passenger train on the Iron Mountain Road today struck a broken rail at Hilliard mound, when the ladies' coach and Pullman Sleeper left the track and turned over, badly damaging both cars. Mrs. Hickey, who held her child in her arms when the jolt occurred, and being thrown forward, the child was killed and she was badly injured, as were several other passengers. The train was moving rapidly when the coaches were turned over and burned.

In Memory of Katharine DeWitt.

Infant daughter of General Robert and Katharine DeWitt Ransom; died in Newbern, N. C., March 23, A. D. 1887.

Another little dew-drop of humanity has been shaken from its home. The vine bleeds, the mother weeps, angels rejoice that another spirit has entered Heaven.

She has passed her brief life to secure a birth-right to that blissful immortality which sparkles in everlasting glory around the throne of God.

What a comfort to the bereaved parents is the assurance that—

"The bells of Heaven are such as these, For such as these I came."

"Sweet was the thought that came, When mothers round him pressed, Their infants in his arms he took, And on his bosom blessed."

Newbern, N. C., March 28, 1887.
