A Fencing Contest in New York.

A Fencing Contest in New York. NEW YORK, March 28.—Nearly one thousand people witnessed tonight the fencing contest between Roger Senac, champion of America, and Louis Trou-chet, of Paris, for $1,000 and the championship of America. Senac was attended by R. Thomas and W. T. Lawson, Engene Van Schnick and Maurice Bernhardt, son of the actreas, acted as accondator Trouchet. Trouchet Maurice Bernhardt, son of the actress, acted as seconds for Trouchet. Trouchet is young Bernhardt's fencing master. It is said that Senac fills the some po-sition with Mrs. Langtry. Mons. A. J. Corbesier, professor of fencing at the Naval Academy as Annapolis, was referee. The combatants were armed with No. 5 foils, open guard, buttoned, and the one setting most points in the The Trent of the N. & T. R. S. A Dramatic Incident in Court.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 28,sensational episode occurred in the Superior Court today. About a year since John A. Lyons was killed by Samuel Marley. Lyons was supposed to be unmarried. He left an estate worth about $20,000, to which his relatives laid claim, which claim was dis-puted by a woman who asserted that she had been married to Lyons, the re-Reichstag were re-elected by acclama sult of the union being a daughter who is now about 18 years of age. Record evidences showing that the marriage was selemnized in St. Louis were ruled out, and the case of Mrs. Lyons seemed hopeless, but today, to the great surprise of the defense the priest, who performed the beremony appeared in court, his testimony com-pletely established the claim made by the dead man's wife, and the probabili ty is that the entire estate will be awarded to her and her daughter.
