In our "steamer movements" yesterday morning we unintentially omitted to announce the arrival and departure of the steamer Newberne of the O. D. Line. We will thank the agents of the different lines to keep us posted on the "movements" as it is a matter of some importance to our readers.

We commend to be lovers of the brautiful the dummy figure of an elegant woman in full street costume now in the window of the store of A. M. Baker. The figure reminds us of one of our most beautiful married laties. We will not say who, for fear of being considered inviduous in our judgment and taste.

New Berne is on a boom. Stewart wasout yesterday with a double spanfour horses, fine ones too, to one buggy. We are informed that the gentleman who sat with him in the buggy is not a speculator in real estate, so there need be no excitement in that business. Szewart has recently had an order for a buggy at Henderson. He has certainly made a boom in the stock business, and his neighbor Randolph will certainly work up a boom in the baggy business if good work, fancy work and reasonable prices will do it. Some of our justices have been surpried by the sheriff who has recently arrested them upon captures issued by the plerk of the Superior court.
