Good rain yesterday evening.
The Onslow and Jones county delegations to the railroad meeting returned on the steamer Trent yesterday.

Master Ed. Roberts brings us a full grown pea pod with five peas in it nearly ready for shipping. It was grown in Castilian Henry's (colored) garden.

There is an interesting article on our second page about Washington and Beaufort county written by Mr. Jonathan Havens. Mr. Havens is a good writer and has considerable material for writing a history of Beaufort county this would be very interesting. It ought to be written.

Horse and Cart Stolen.
Mr. B. O. Neal, of Ervins in this county, advertises a stolen horse and cart, a description of the same and of the supposed thief is given in the advertisement. We hope our readers will look out for him and aid in restoring the property and capturing the thief.

Steamer Movements.
The steamer Eagle of the E. C. D. line sailed yesterday afternoon with a full cargo of lumber and truck.

The steamer Vesper of the same line arrived with a cargo of merchandise yesterday afternoon.

The steamer of the Clyde line sailed for Baltimore with a full cargo of lumber, naval stores and cotton.

The Newbern of the O. D. line arrived from Norfolk with a cargo of merchandise, and left on schedule time for return trip.

Officers Elected.
At a meeting of the directors of the East Carolina Land and Railway Company held at the Board of Trade rooms on Thursday night immediately after the adjournment of the stockholders' meeting, the following officers were elected: President, C. E. Foy; Vice-President, Dr. E. W. Ward, of Onslow; Treasurer, Dr. J. F. Long; Secretary, James Hodgman.

These gentlemen are in every particular well fitted for the positions to which they have been elected. Mr. Foy is one of the most energetic, prudent and enterprising business men of this city.
Dr. E. W. Ward is one of the substantial farmers of Onslow county; he lives near the mouth of New river, where the famous fishery exists is cultivated, and he owns an oyster garden.
He is a man of intelligence and makes a splendid presiding officer. Dr. Long is a man of great propriety in financial matters and is always ready to aid in any scheme calculated to benefit the interest of his town and people. Mr. Hodgman's business qualifications are unquestioned. He will make a good secretary.

Notice.
At the request of many of my fellow citizens of the Second Ward, I announce myself as a candidate for the office of ward clerk, and I trust that I shall be able to discharge the duties of the office to the satisfaction of all.

Lock Out For Them.
Any information will be gratefully received leading to the discovery and arrest of parties representing themselves as my agents in order to sell cheap glasses on my reputation. All of my spectacles are stamped "H. W. W." on the bow, and no others are genuine.
All my eyes are examined and fitted with the drug store of T. R. Luff, New Bern, N. C.

Personal.
Mr. J. V. Williams, notwithstanding that he is a candidate for councilman from his ward in this city, and has a large business to attend to, besides, found time to run up to Goldsboro yesterday to hear Rev. Dr. Roeser preach there last night.

We are pleased to see Mr. R. N. Duffy up again. He was out riding yesterday.

The Raven.

REV. MR. DIXON'S LECTURE LAST MONDAY EVENING.

(From Goldsboro Messenger)

One of the largest audiences that we have ever seen at a "pay lecture," in our city, assembled at the Opera House last Monday evening to hear Rev. Thomas Dixon, jr., the young, able popular pastor of the Baptist Church, upon "The Raven, and its Master." Mr.
Dixon gave a history of the poet in a pleasant and earnest manner and in eloquent words, evidencing throughout great familiarity with his subject. His conception of the character of Poe accords with those of Ingram, Willis, and Graham, who have done so much to rescue the name of the brilliant genius from the infamy to which it had been covertly assigned by the man whom Poe, unfortunately, deputed to act as his literary executor—Dr. Rufus Griswold. Commenting upon a paragraph from Griswold's memoir, Graham says:
"Now, this is dastardly, and what is worse, it is false. It is very adroitly done, with phrases very well turned, and with gleams of truth shining out from a setting so dusky as to look devilish." Griswold's malignity was born of prejudice, rocked in the cradle of envy, and nurtured by a burning desire for revenge. He dared not confront the sharp, piercing pen of Poe, but, as Ingram says, waited for "the poet's death, when every ass could have its kick at the lion's carcass."

Mr. Dixon concluded his lecture by rendering the most famous poetic productions of the melancholy poet: "The Raven." This was done in such an admirable manner as to win for the lecturer fresh laurels in the field of elocution.

This way followed by the recitation of a humorous selection from Dr.
Bagby, being a farmer's account of a visit to one of Rubenstein's concerts in New York city. This was rich and served to show Mr. Dixon's versatility as well as to turn into streams of laughter any sad reflection that may have lingered in the minds of his hearers because of the sadness connected with the reign and fall of the brilliant literary star about whom he had just been speaking.

The entertainment was a very enjoyable one and will be pleasantly remembered by those whose good fortune it was to be present. It deserved and has received words of high commendation and many will indulge the hope that Mr. Dixon may be persuaded to give another lecture at no distant day.

Rev. Mr. Dixon will deliver the above lecture in the New Bern Theatre on Wednesday night, April 20th, for the Baptist Church Aid Society. A large audience has greeted him wherever he has been, and we are sure a large one will greet him here.

They Cussed.

A party of commercial tourists (that is to say drummers) were in town Wednesday with their eyes set in the direction of New Bern, with anticipations of a pleasant steamboat trip through our lower Sounds; to the venerable old town of New Bern. They seemed to have heard that the Shenandoah was off the line, but they supposed as a matter of course that her place had been supplied with a passenger boat to New Bern. After casting about with a dazed look, they began to enquire how to get to New Bern, and the more they enquired the madder they appeared to get, until they took to cussing wild, without causing anybody in particular.
But cussing was not satisfying and then they began in a practical way to ask one another and others what was best to be done. It was suggested to them to go back to Norfolk, take the seaboard train to Weldon, thence to Goldsboro, and thence by the Atlantic N. C. road to New Bern. But they scouted the idea of going backward, then forward, around their elbows to their thumbs or forefingers. Then the Southern route was suggested; by Edenton to Plymouth, by steamboat to Williamston, thence to Tarborough, to Rocky Mount, to Raleigh, and thence to New Bern by the mule road, so called. They scouted the more and the madder. Then it was suggested to try the "cross the country" route, by Edenton, Jamesville, Washington, to New Bern, and that did not suit them worse, and the last we heard of them they were executing "our soldiers in Flanders" who "swore terribly." Now we are contemplating a trip to New Bern, when strawberries and cream time comes, or when the new Albert House is opened by our friends the Pattersons. We are then cussing men, but emotional, and when emotional we are sorry to say Cain crop out, and if we should have to thread our way through Norfolk and Weldon and Goldsboro, or through Plymouth and Williamston and Rocky Mount, or through the country to New Bern, we should be greatly tempted, and should have no use for the application that lead us into temptation.— church was read.

Presbytery heard reports of Rev. A.
Sprunt, Presbyterial agent for home missions; also reports of evangelistic work from Revs. W. F. Thom, E. W.
Smith and R. P. Pell.

Rev. Mr. Sprunt, chairman of the committee on home missions, submitted a report with recommendations, which was considered seriatim, amended and adopted. Mr. Sprunt made an earnest appeal for the resolution in favor of home missions, and made some good practical suggestions in regard to raising the amount called for.

The recommendation in regard to electing an evangelist was read and pending its consideration Presbytery took a recess until 3:30 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
Presbytery called to order at 3:30 o'clock by the moderator.

Rev. Dr. Atkinson submitted a report on "Observance of the Sabbath" which was received and adopted.

Elder Carr submitted a report in regard to settling with the Evangelists which was received and adopted.

Rev. Mr. Darnall submitted a report in regard to how the Treasurer shall pay out moneys. After considerable discussion a motion of Rev. Mr. Vass as a substitute was adopted.

The consideration of the resolution in the report of the committee on Home Mission in regard to appointing a general Evangelist, was resumed.

Rev. Mr. Sprunt advocated the adoption of the resolution with much force and earnestness.

Dr. Watkins and Rev. S. C. Smith favored the resolution.

Rev. Mr. Carr favored employing an additional local Evangelist, but not a general Evangelist.

Rev. Mr. Vass made a strong argument in favor of the resolution.

Rev. Mr. Laler favored the resolution.
Having had some experience as a local Evangelist, he had felt the need of the general Evangelist.

Dr. Atkinson also favored the election of a general Evangelist.

Rev. S. C. Smith moved that the Presbytery declare it expedient to elect a general Evangelist. Carried.

Rev. S. C. Smith moved that the election be made forthwith. Carried.

Dr. F. M. Johnson was unanimously elected.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Sprunt a committee was appointed to sign a plan of supporting the general Evangelist and report to this meeting of Presbytery.

The Moderator appointed Rev. Mr.
Sprunt, Rev. Mr. Vass, Rev. Mr. Craig, and Elders Brown and McIVER.

Rev. Mr. Sprunt offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the churches of Thompsonville, Bethesda, Grace and Olney Creek be grouped into one pastoral charge, and Little River, Eno, Fairfield and New Hope into another pastoral charge, and that the Rev. J. C. Currie and the churches concerned be cited to appear at an adjourned meeting of the Presbytery to be held in Hillsboro in June, 1887 and show cause, if any, why the grouping be not made.

Rev. Mr. Miller, from committee on seasonal records submitted a report which was sustained.

On motion, Rev. Mr. Sprunt was elected agent of sustentation.

Rev. S. C. Smith moved that a committee be appointed on sustentation with the agent chairman ex officio.

After discussion, the motion was lost.
Rev. Mr. Miller submitted reports on seasonal records.

Dr. Watkins submitted a report on the correspondence between Rev. Dr.
Smith and Rev. Mr. Tidball. The report fully vindicated Dr. Smith and expressed the surprise and regret of the Presbytery that Rev. Mr. Tidball should have written such a letter to the Presbytery.

Rev. Mr. Miller, without endorsing in any particular the letter of Rev. Mr.
Tidball, asked the Presbytery to be charitable in its judgment. He thought the report mild and Christian-like, but he desired each individual member of the Presbytery to feel kindly towards Rev. Mr. Tidball.

After some discussion the report was unanimously adopted and a copy ordered to be sent to Rev. Mr. Tidball.

Presbytery took a recess to 5 p. m.
EVENING SESSION.

Presbytery convened at 8 o'clock, when the Presbyterial sermon was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Harding, from 1st chapter and 1st verse of the Gospel by St. Mark. It was an able presentation of the subject, "Christianity as related to Christ and humanity."

Moderator called Presbytery to order.
Rev. Carr Moore and Rev. S. H. Isler submitted reports on Seasonal Records.

Rev. Mr. Sumner submitted report of committee on Seasonal Duties which was received and adopted.

The following were elected commissioners to the General Assembly: Revs.
J. N. H. Sumner and Alex. Sprunt; alternates, Rev. T. W. Faucette and Rev. Dr. F. H. Johnson. Ruling Elders, J. N. Rogers and A. M. McPeters; alternates, J. A. Womack and Geo. Allen.

Presbytery took a recess to 9 1/2 o'clock this morning.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FOREIGNERS COMING TO AMERICA.
QUEENSTOWN, April 13.—The arrivals here of emigrants on their way to the United States are at present enormous.
The railways are running special trains to accommodate this class of travel.
The number of emigrants now awaiting steamers to carry them to their destinations is already greater than can be housed in the hotels and lodging-houses, and many are camping in the streets. Fifteen hundred embarked yesterday. Three thousand more are expected to arrive on Saturday next and take steamers here.

PREDICTING SUCCESS FOR THE EXHIBITION.
LONDON, April 13.—Sir Francis Cun-liffe-Owen, who was sent as British commissioner to the Centennial exhibition soon to be opened here will be the greatest and most successful ever held in London. The American legation Gibbons's report.

DR. PARKER AND MR. BEECHER.
LONDON, April 13.—Rev. Dr. Joseph Parker, pastor of the City Temple, states that he would gladly accept the the ceremonies were arranged for June 24, Mr. Beecher's birthday, it being impossible for Dr. Parker to reach America before the middle of that month.

Was It Cancer?
I have been using B. B. F. for six or seven weeks for something like cancer on my neck, and I would not take one thousand dollars for the benefit received. I had previously tried various so-called blood remedies, but B. B. F. is the best, the quickest and the cheapest blood purifier I ever used. I refer

Atlanta Months Open.
Six months ago we had no demand for B. B. F., but now our retail demand is such that we are forced to buy in gross lots. We attribute the rapid and enormous demand to the comparative size and price of B. B. F. (being large bottles for $1) and its positive merit.
It sells well and gives our customers entire satisfaction. Our sales have increased 500 per cent within a few months.
