Talk schools to the people

Ward politics continue to wax warm.

Truck crops are growing finely with prospects of some crop notwithstanding the cold snap.

The Wilmington Star reports Col. D. K. McRae, who has been quite sick, as decidedly better.

The largest sturgeon of the season was on the fish wharf at the market dock yesterday. He measured eight feet four inches in length.

A committee should be appointed at once for every ward in the city to purge the registration books and urge the people to vote "For Schools."

There will be a meeting this Wednesday evening at half-past eight o'clock, at the residence of Maj. John Hughes, to rehearse the music for memorial day. It is especially requested that all members of the choir shall be present.

The O. D. steamers have changed the hour of sailing, giving the truckers an hour more time at this end of the line. The E. D. line has also moved up the schedule one hour, leaving here at five p. m. The Vesper of this line will sail this evening in accordance with this schedule.

Our colored friends should consider well before they vote against schools, simply because there is no colored man on the board of trustees. The white people are better able to educate their own children than the colored people are theirs, but they feel it their duty to aid their colored friends. If they reject this opportunity to benefit their children it will not be offered again soon.

They Ate.

A brother and sister in this city dined together yesterday. The age of the brother was eighty and the sister seventy-eight, which added together made one hundred and fifty-eight. And it is reasonable to suppose that the dinner set before them was—but ate.

Personal.

Mr. J. W. Fountain and daughter, Miss Ida of Richlands, are in the city.

Mr. F. P. Steiff, of Chas. M. Steiff & Co., piano makers, Baltimore, who has been in the city on business, leaves this morning for home. He was well pleased with the city, but thinks that some persons with whom he had transactions rather remiss in keeping accounts and carry entirely too much in their heads—in other words, they do business too much on the Jake Sharpe order.

J. C. Kennedy, Esq., Sheriff Sutton, J. P. Mann, Wm. Stroud, Jonas Stroud, Richard Stroud, W. O. Lewis, M. J. Phillips, Thomas Cauley, and several others, of Lenoir county, are in the city attending court as witnesses.

Vote For Schools.

Pending the contest in Durham before the recent election held there on the question of sustaining public schools, an address was published to the citizens of that growing town from which we clip the following paragraph:

"The education of the children of the town is a matter of the first consideration; the public welfare and the public safety imperatively demand it. Many are too poor to attend private schools; in many cases parents will and sweat from their backs to feed and clothe their children—their only female they cannot educate them. To parents in that situation, what a blessing this act offers. It will fit their children better to discharge the duties and responsibilities of manhood and womanhood. Parents, is it not worthy of your votes?"

Every word of this is applicable to the people of New Berne. Durham carried the election for schools by a good majority. What will New Berne do?

U. S. District Court.
Court convened Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Attorney F. H. Busbee and Assistant R. B. Peebles, and Marshall V. V. Richardson with his assistants were at their posts.

The list of jurors was called and the following drawn as the grand jury: Geo. Rose, W. D. Sugg, H. C. Bailey, E. C. Dunson, Henry Bialock, Nathan Hill, W. A. B. Branch, J. A. Pridgen, Chalcedony Lewis, L. H. French, Luke Murrill, col. E. H. Vick, Silas Webb, James C. Moore, Josephus Willis, E. W. Scott, W. G. Fordham, Geo. C. Battle.

W. A. B. Branch was sworn as foreman. Judge Seymour's charge was brief and to the point.

The docket was called and some civil cases went off.

U. S. vs. David C. Davis, illicit distilling, was taken up. Defendant pleaded guilty and begged the mercy of the court.

Court took a recess till 3 o'clock.

Court reassembled at 3 o'clock, when another case of U. S. vs. David C. Davis, illicit distilling was called; jury empaneled; verdict, guilty.

The district attorney, in asking judgment, stated that he had been informed, without the defendant's knowledge, that he—the defendant—had for some time past behaved in a manner to induce the belief that he had fully repented of his past violations of the law and would do better in the future. He was sentenced to ninety days imprisonment in the county jail at Kinston, Lenoir county.

U. S. vs. Grady Smith, counterfeiting, was taken up. Simmons & Manly appeared for the defendant; Attorney Busbee and Assistant Peebles for the government. Pending the examination of witnesses court took a recess until this morning at 10 o'clock.

A Very Good Thing.
The Raleigh correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch says:

"Mention was recently made of the fact that cotton mills are shortly to be erected at Raleigh. In this connection it is interesting to know that the mills at Wilson are so pressed with orders that an extension is necessary; so they are to be enlarged at once. One of the best openings in the State for a cotton factory is at New Berne. The old factory, with its machinery, was sold a few days ago. Any man with means and experience can drop into a good thing here."

Yes, a man with means can drop into a good thing here. The buildings and site are first class for a small factory of any kind. It only requires a man who understands whatever he undertakes and has energy and business tact to push it. We think the plant without the machinery, which has been sold, can be bought very low, and there is no better opening for a cotton mill, soap factory, spoke and handle factory or any small manufacturing industry.

Nothing Wrong But the Metal.
"Was it counterfeit money?" asked Mr. Busbee of a witness who was testifying yesterday in the case of U. S. vs. Grady Smith for counterfeiting. "Well," said the witness, with some hesitation, "the letters and the figures were all right. There was nothing wrong about it but the metal."

Proceedings of Ladies Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Rooms Held Tuesday Evening April 26th.

The ladies met at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. for the purpose of making arrangements for some public entertainment for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. library. The object of the meeting was stated by Mr. G. L. Wadsworth, chairman of committee on receptions, and on motion, Miss Leah Jones was called to the Chair and Miss Mary Allen was made Secretary.

The Chair was given power to appoint a committee consisting of the following ladies, two from each church, to consider the question of entertainment:

Mrs. E. K. Bryan, Mrs. Judge Seymour, Mrs. L. H. Cutler, Mrs. E. M. Duguid, Mrs. Mary McK. Nash, Mrs. John Dunn, Mrs. W. G. Brinson, Mrs. Dr. Whitfield, Miss Maria Manly, Mrs. O. Marks.

The committee will report at a meeting to be held Friday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 5 o'clock, and all ladies interested in the work of the Y. M. C. A. are requested to meet them at that time and place. A full meeting is requested in order to make the final arrangements.

L. D. JONES, Ch'm.
M. L. ALLEN, Sec'y.

La Grange Items.

Fine weather for crops and to bring up grass.

Spring time is the season for picnic and enjoyment of the young folk.

Rev. Mr. Hires preached here last Sunday and Sunday night, his regular appointment.

There is considerable sickness in the surrounding country, though none of a very serious character.

Mrs. Sarah Bissell, who has been seriously sick for several days is improving we are glad to hear.

The first Monday in May, the time for election of town commissioners, is close by. The candidates are not yet in the field in our place.

In some sections cotton is coming up, and with the present growing weather, and other circumstances favorable, will soon be in condition for chopping.

Last Monday evening a heavy wind visited different sections about here. The wind was not very hard here, but in some sections fences and trees were blown down in quantities.

There is another mad dog scare, or really, going the rounds. If everybody would make it a rule to at once kill all suspicious run about dogs, the country would soon be quiet again on this point.

Richlands Items.

Our town was made quite lively yesterday. Mr. J. T. Eaton was here to organize a Grange, or rather to re-organize the old members and take in as many recruits as possible. The following ladies and gentlemen were elected officers for the year 1887: D. E. Sandlin, master; F. W. Hargett, overseer; S. B. Taylor, lecturer; F. D. Koonce, steward; J. G. Barber, assistant steward; J. W. Fountain, chaplain; E. L. Franck, jr., treasurer; J. W. Mills, secretary; B. Venters, gatekeeper; Mrs. Ferns Jarman, Ceres; Miss Ida Sandlin, Pomona; Miss Nettie Venters, Flora; Miss Ida Fountain, stewardess.

Mr. Frank Andrews, of the firm of Hall & Co., Tar landing, is erecting quite a creditable dwelling.

Cotton planting has commenced. Second Thursday in this month was examination day. Only three applicants for certificates—Misses Hewitt and Miss Fountain.

Miss Annie Mills and her brother Tobe had the misfortune of spraining their ankles last week. Both are entirely well now.

We have two happy men, W. M. Thompson and E. A. Erwin. They are both girls.

Mr. O'Brien's Trip Postponed.
DUBLIN, April 23.—Mr. Wm. O'Brien, editor of Limited Ireland, who, together with Mr. Kilbride, one of Lord Lansdowne's evicted tenants, was to leave on the steamship Aurora tomorrow, en route to Canada, with the avowed intention of fomenting an agitation against Lord Lansdowne, has decided to postpone his trip in consequence of an offer having been made by the latter to all his tenants on the Luggaunran estates. The offer is extended to all the tenants, including those who have been evicted.

He Got What He Wanted.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 23.—Samuel Ellington, convicted of robbing the mails, when asked by the judge this morning what he had to say before sentence was pronounced, replied that he wanted a long term, as he was a dangerous man, and if he got out soon, would kill all the witnesses. The Judge sentenced him to 12 years in the penitentiary.

Will Leave at Three O'clock.

I am delighted to announce to the many friends and well-wishers of the "Old Reliable" that success has attended our efforts to give them a safe and quick transportation for their truck and all other merchandise. The Company, exercising their usual caution and prudence, and desiring to make a certain connection with the Northern markets for truck, fixed their hour for departure at noon, so as to make sure connections. As the season advanced the Company found they could extend the hour for departure from New Berne to two p. m., and, as your readers are already aware, by frequent notices, that they still had time to spare. So the following copy of telegram will show how anxious the Old Dominion Steamship Company are to give our shippers every minute of time in which to make a safe, sure water connection between New Berne and Northern cities:

NORFOLK, Va., April 26, 1887.
E. B. ROBERTS.—Newberne arrived 2:30. Make sailing time three o'clock, commencing with Pamlico tomorrow.
CULPEPPER & TURNER.

In accordance with above orders, the steamers Newberne and Pamlico will sail from the Old Dominion Steamship Company's wharf at three p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, making close connection with the steamers for Northern ports.

E. B. ROBERTS, Agt.

Notice.

On account of the unjust prejudice exerted by some of my so-called friends during ward meeting, Monday the 18th, and of non-residents and minors voting thereat, and believing as I do that the will of the people of the fifth ward was not expressed in this action, there being not more than 20 or 30 legal voters. In accord with the desire and wishes of many, I announce myself as the Republican candidate for Constableman of the fifth ward. Knowing that the will of the people will be expressed at the polls on the 1st Monday in May, I shall be in the field, confident of an election, till that day.

Ney's Body.

TO BE EXHUMED IN THE INTEREST OF THE TRUTH OF HISTORY.

From Charlotte observer.

A recent number of the Salisbury Herald contains the following announcement: "Dr. J. G. Ramsay, Wood and others propose to take up, on May 3, the remains of Peter S. Ney, which lie buried in the Third Creek graveyard. They will be pleased to have the presence and assistance of physicians who think it proper to attend. This is done at the request of Mr. Lyman Draper, president of the Historical Society of Wisconsin, who wishes to ascertain whether the calvarium (skull) has been repositioned or not. We await the result of this investigation with a great deal of curiosity."

In the second decade of the present century a gentleman who called himself Peter S. Ney taught school in the western part of North Carolina, and while unusually intelligent and ordinarily facts dropped out that led to the belief that he was the veritable Michel Ney, who won distinguished honors in the French Army, and who commanded the "old guard" at Waterloo, when known how to "die" but did not know how to surrender.

History records the fact that Ney, the French marshal, was executed on the 19th of December 7, 1815.

Those who believe that Peter S. Ney was Marshal Michel Ney, assert that when the details of soldiers appointed to shoot their former commander executed their duty they threw, by blank cartridges.

Ney, who had been killed, fell off his horse as a dead man. His body was carried off, and in a short time his living body was on his way to America.

The examination of the remains of Peter S. Ney, as stated in the article from the Herald, is to determine any clue to the belief that there had been a Western North Carolina of sixty years ago, was the veritable Marshal Ney, of France.

The public will be much interested in any discovery that will throw light on the truth or falsity of the matter.

Hebrews in America.

AN INTERESTING SERMON WHICH IS WELL BE READ AND REMEMBERED.

The Rev. Dr. David Philipson said in his sermon on Saturday at Har Sinai Temple, in answer to a series of New York newspaper articles attributing great wealth to the "Hebrews in America," that "there are wealthy Jews, as there are wealthy people of all sects and denominations, but it has been often shown that proportionately the Jews are not wealthy, but poorer than other portions of the community. Such an injurious tendency, as they contribute to the prejudice which still exists against the Jews by bringing up the old thought again that the Jews are money dealers, that they only buy and sell, that they produce nothing, and live off the honest toil and labor of the remainder of the people. Continuous efforts have been made during the past years to impress upon the community the fact that we are Jews in religion only, and Americans in everything else. To speak, therefore, of Hebrew merchants and manufacturers, of Hebrew lawyers, doctors, professors, is but to undo everything which has been done to make the Jews an isolated community, separate from their neighbors not only in religion, but in everything else; to surround them again with that exclusiveness which they had hoped had disappeared or would disappear in this land, where they have branched out and become identified with all their surroundings in all directions, and have striven manfully to remove that hard and exacting exclusiveness. It is discouraging and disheartening to see how little thought has gained foot.

"The very fact that Jews have been on this soil over two centuries, that they have lived themselves thoroughly into American ideas and American institutions, should cause for all distrust and remove the nation question. Did they still harbor such thoughts, they did in the past that some time in the future they would regain their national independence, and reinhabit Palestine, under the rule of their own king, there was reason for this continual obstruction in all matters outside of the religious life in which they are concerned. Is there a rogue who steals, and happens to have been born of Jewish parents, we are informed immediately that N. N., a Hebrew, stole so and so much. Is there a prize fight, and Levi Jacob takes part in it, we are edified in the next day a paper with the notice that one of the pugilists was a Hebrew, and not only in this degrading manner is this—I will not call it prejudice, but rather ignorance—shown, which contrasts the Jew with the German, the Frenchman, the Englishman, and not with the Protestant or the Catholic, seeming to overlook the fact that the Jew can be at the same time German, French or English, but in every case the same fact appears that Judaism, its meaning, its scope and its aim, are not at all appreciated or known.—Bull. Sun
