Maj. John Hughes, John S. Long. Eeq., Mr. E. K. Bishop and Rev. V. W. Shields, delegates of Christ Church, left for Edenton yesterday morning to attend the diocesan convention of East Carolina.

Mrs. Judge Bussell and Miss Mary Saunders, of Wilmington, left yesterday morning on their return home, having attended the funeral in Onslow county of the late Mrs. Alice Saunders. the grand mother of Judge Bussell.

Mr. D. S. Aman, one of the progressive farmers of Onslow county, called to see us pertergay.

The Celebration.

Some of our Middle street merchants ard right in for a fourth of July celebration and want a meeting of citizens called at once to take the matter into consideration. We are ready and willing to advertise the call free of charge. but would it not be better to see what amount of money can be raised for the purpose? If some one will head the list with a ten or twenty dollar sub. scription a sufficient amount could be easily raised. Three or four hundred dollars ought to give us a first class celebration.
