The Goldsboro Messenger is to be removed to Wilmington, where it will be issued daily and weekly. The removal of the Messenger will be a serious lose to Goldsboro. We wish brother Bonitz success in his new field, and we doubt M. E. Sunday-School Picha not be will achieve it.

Last August a boy about ten years old, son of Mr. John W. Forman, was drowned near Stimson's mill. Coroner Bates held an inquest and the verdict of the jury was accidental drowning. of having pushed or knocked the little boy Forman into the water. Another colored boy informed against Mackey. The case will be heard before Justice Brinson today.

We have received the catalogue for this institution for the year 1886-'87. The number of pupils in attendance is 137-67 males: 70 females. The catalogue also contains historical sketch of the college, a list of annual orators, and a list of mineral and other collections for the museum received since the issue of the last catalogue. The session of 1857-'88 begins September 5th.

Edward A. Oldham, Esq.

This gentleman, editor of the Western Sentinel, has reconsidered his determination to remain in North Carolina, and will take charge of a newspaper in Alabams. We are honest in thitherwards bound, expressing our regret at this conclusion. Mr. Oldham has made a good record as a journalist in this State. He has a large measure of energy, is a good paragraphist, and puts resolution and force into any enterprise with which he connects himself. For so young a man he has a wide experience in journalistic work. The people of New Berne had the pleasure of making his acquaintance in this field of intellectual effort a few years ago, and saw much in him to justify the promise of future influence and usefulness. He is a pleasant genman, all carnest citizen and an effective writer. If he shows the resolution, grit and intelligence in Alabama which have always marked his history at home, we predict for him a creditable nocess and an agreeable life in the new and to which he is going. We are stry to see young men like Oldham nitting North Carolins. Such a course my eventuate in their gain, but it is coldedly our loss.

A Good Officer and a Good Farmer

The Raleigh News and Observer announces that Mr. Wm. Dunn, general passenger and freight agent of the A. & N. C. Road has tendered his resignstion to take effect on the first of June. A report has been in circulation for several days that Mr. Dunn would resign on the first of June. He has been regarded since his connection with the A. A. N. C. Road as a very efficient officer in the management of the freight and passenger traffic, and it will be difficult to find one that will manage this department better than he.

Mr. Dunn resigns this position, so we are informed that he may devote his entire time to his farm, having, with Mesers. Willet and E. H. Hackburn, purchased the Hipes plantation near counties of Craven, Pamlico, Carteret their present farm. They have now one of the best conducted farms in the country, and we think have been learn they intend stock raising as the and we are satisfied they will, in time. make it pay. It is surprising to us that as many successful and go-ahead farmers as we have in this section they will not co-operate in getting up a first class fair. We have much tipe native stock in this and adjoining countries and we have many good farmers who would like to enter the field of competition in the production of crops as well as raising fine stock. This thing will come along after awhile.

The M. E. Sunday-school held their annual picnic at Riverdale yesterday The children and teachers met at the church at 7 30 o'clock, and after prayers a procession was formed, with the New Berhe Steam Fire Engine Co. Band Yesterday a colored boy named Marsh in the lead, and moved down to the foot Mackey was arrested upon the charge of Craven street, where the steamers Carolina and Kinston were puffing as if impatient to set out on the happy voyage with the merry crowd that was going.

All were safely embarked on the steamers, which moved under the immediate directions of Asst. Marshal Asst. Marshal W. K. Styron on the

The flotilla being in readiness the hawsers were hauled and the Carolina steamed out with her freight of joyful souls, quickly followed by the Kinston, amid cheers, waving of handkerchiefs, and many eyidences of a God-speed from those on shore.

"The haven where they would be' was reached and all landed in safety, and a happier throng of people seldom ever land upon any wharf than that upon the Clare-Fibre Company's ves-

Various amusements were entered into, the strolls through the grounds were delightful, while the elegant music of the band enlivened the occasion up to and including the hour for dinner. This indispensible part of a pionic was set out in the spacious fibre factory building and the three long tables fairly groaned under the borden of tempting viands which the obliging party cheerfully relieved them of in a most satisfactory manner.

The steamer Kinston ran up to the city about 1 o'clock and returned with a small party of belated travellers

The Neuse and Trent River Steamboat Company has become one of the permanent institutions of New Berne, and of Kinston where a large amount of the stock is held. It has gradually husbanded its resources until it is able to venture into new fields, giving accommodations to farmers and merchants in the way of transportation where they now have it not.
