THE JOURNAL.
E. M. HUBB, Editor.
W. H. HARPER, Business Manager.
NEW BERNE, N. C., JUNE 1, 1887.
Entered at the Post Office at New Berne, N. C. as second-class matter.

THE President's first day's fishing in Saranac Lake proved fruitless. But he was not discouraged. A change of wind will probably induce the fluky tribe to nibble at the President's hook on the second round.

General B. F. BUTLER has written a letter positively denying that he is receiving favors from the executive department of CLEVELAND'S administration. Why such a letter was necessary is one of the mysteries of the times.

NEW YORK is becoming alarmed at the rapid influx of paupers and criminals from Europe. The great increase in the number of insane in the State is attributed to this cause. The United States has become an asylum not only for the oppressed of all nations but for the criminals and paupers as well. The wise men that inaugurated the Know Nothing party previous to the war believed the States foresaw this and to prevent such a state of things at is now producing alarm was a part of their programme.

There is again talk of an extra session of Congress. The President, it is said, is inclined to call an extra session if he had a satisfactory guarantee that such action would hasten the adjournment next spring. He ought to put it upon different grounds. The only guarantee the President needs for calling an extra session is that Congress will promptly reduce taxation, cut off all unnecessary expenses of the government and dispose of the surplus in a manner that will be just and equitable to all the States.

ONE of the most absurd stories started in political circles is the one that the President in consolidating the internal revenue districts "sat down" on Senator VANCE. In this work the President is simply carrying out the policy of retrenchment and reform which the Democratic party has been clamoring for since the TILDEN campaign was inaugurated. No one pleads for this reform stronger than did Senator VANCE, and how the carrying out of this policy can be a "set down" on one of its chief advocates is hard to understand. True, it is difficult to abolish in office held by any Democrat in North Carolina without throwing out one of VANCE'S friends, because they are all his friends, and all true Democrats will rejoice with him in carrying out the policy of retrenchment and reform which he has so eloquently spoken for these many years.

A Dog Story.
The St. Paul Pioneer Press tells this story: "A St. Paul man has a pet dog of which he is very proud. One evening recently, when the gentleman was returning home, he saw the dog emerge from the shadow of a neighbor's fence with a hen in his mouth. The dog deposited the fowl in a secluded spot and then went after the house cat, which he seized by the neck and dragged to the feast. Without going through the formality of asking grace, the dog tore the chicken to pieces and helped the cat to some of the choicest pieces."

Famlico Items.
Crops are in fair order and growing beautifully.
Some of our farmers are up with the times while others are a little behind.
Mrs. C. E. Chapman is quite sick. Dr. George Attmore, of Stonewall, is in attendance.
Who shall "consolidate" with the pleasant young milliner? How about the young merchant on the opposite side of the creek?
If any of our Famlico friends have an over-supply of cats we would be pleased to hear from them, as we are in need of about fifty heads.

Our village is looming up a little, with the new saw mill and the millinery establishment both in operation. But the saw mill man of S. has not discontinued his visits here, just the same, nor do we suppose he will until summer drives the bird to cooler climes.
We see that your Stonewall dinner advises us to do as our friend Lane has done—"consolidate" with the other young lady farmer. No doubt we would be acting very wisely in taking such a step, if we could, but perhaps the other party concerned would not think it very wise in her to agree to it.

In recording the marriage of Mr. W. H. Lane and Miss Pauline Whitehead in our last items we unintentionally made it appear that Mrs. C. E. McClesse, the mother of the bride, was a widow, but we hope, however, that no one's feelings were hurt by the error. We beg pardon and will promise to be more careful in the future.

Jones County Items.
Corn is selling for cash at Trenton at 10c per bushel.
Gardens are very fine, and vegetable tables of every kind plentiful.
Fish scarce at Trenton. Fishermen too busy to try their luck, we suppose.
The little spring chicken, just feathered, is brought over to Trenton now and sells quickly at 10c.

We learn that Windsor Paul, Esq., of Chippewa section of our county, has collared in his garden that measure over four feet across.
We learn that the exercises of Prof. W. E. Wood's school at Pollockville will take place on the 23d of June. Professor G. W. Manly, of Wake Forest College, will deliver the address.
Corn is looking very promising. Cotton is looking well, where it is not too grassy. The showers for the past week have put some of our farmers in the grass, but with a few days of clear weather all will be well.

The magistrates of Jones county will meet at Trenton on the first Monday in June to select a county commissioner, a board of education and to assess and levy the taxes. As they have very important business to transact, it is the duty of every magistrate, who can, to give his county his most earnest help on that day.
Thos. J. Whitaker is certainly the champion improver of Trenton. We see that he has slipped back his old dwelling and has workmen putting up a large, commodious dwelling on the old site. The citizens of Trenton ought really to thank him for the interest he takes in building up their town. If other citizens were possessed with his spirit of improvement, Trenton would, in a short time, have but few vacant lots within its limits.

Huckleberries are getting ripe, and pies and dumplings will soon be added to our many other little country delicacies. We hope our friend Abner Dawson will repeat his last year's experiment of putting five gallons of honey and huckleberries in a three-gallon jug and turn out a little more of that delicious huckleberry wine. Try it, Abner, and call in your many friends and have us to sample it.

The Master Builders and their Men.
The stringent resolutions adopted by the master and builders at Chicago have been considerably modified during the past week. The opposition to the resolutions developed within the organization and noted by Bradstreet's last week has been powerful enough to induce radical changes in the proposed platform. As at present constituted the resolutions are not so binding either upon the employers or employees and are less likely to be productive of trouble. On the other hand, the good effects of the action taken is doubted by many. The attitude taken by the master builders has been such as to induce the workmen to declare that the employers have receded from their former position, and, in the words of prominent labor agitators, the employers have "backed down." The final action to be taken by the builders has not yet been decided upon.

Dr. McGlynn on Shaman Religion.
NEW YORK, May 29.—The Academy of Music was crowded to the doors tonight, the occasion being the regular weekly meeting of the Anti-Poverty Society. The chief speakers were Dr. McGlynn and Henry George. "We want the earth," said Dr. McGlynn. "We want the land because we want the Kingdom of Heaven, because He has given it to us. We want it, not so much as a right, but as a duty, because He has laid it before us, as a duty, never to surrender it." Speaking of labor and its blessedness, he spoke of Christ as a humble laborer, and His birthplace was not a marble palace. The object of the new crusade was to really preserve the sacred rights of property, to enforce the commandment, "Thou shalt not steal." He the men clad in purple and fine linen, who sit in high places in the synagogue, and presume even to look the gate of Heaven, go on as they are going, the day is not far distant when you'll have to come to theatres to get your religion. If the Son of Man were to appear to day He would not be permitted to preach in any Christian pulpit. His manner, His attire, His doctrines, would seem too strange to those who assume to represent Him.

To a reporter today Dr. McGlynn denied the statement of Maggie Malloy, telegraphed last night from Meriden, Conn., that he intended to go to Rome in nineteen days.

From Goose Creek.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—The young ladies of Goose creek gave an entertainment at the M. E. Church, near the Barrington mill, on Wednesday night, May 25, 1887, for the benefit of the M. E. Church at that place. The managers were Misses Lizzie and Annie Barrington, Miss Victoria Dixon and others. The admission was only 25 cents, and all seemed to be well paid for their 25 cents. The choruses were splendid, and a song, "Home," was highly enjoyed by all.

Thrifty Indians.
Three Omaha Indians, one of whom is a returned student, have clubbed together and bought a sewing machine. One of these men was able by its use to put in 40 acres of wheat in one day. The three Indians have planted on their farms over 160 acres of wheat. They are now renting out the machine to the white farmers in their neighborhood at 10 cents per acre planted. Work and thrift bring good fellowship everywhere.—Carleton's Indian School Star.
