"Ever since I was twenty-one years old," replied Mr. Russell. "That," said the attorney, "was about fifty years ago was it not?" Mr. Russell didn't think he was quite that old as he is still as young in appearance as the attorney.

Not Dead.
We learn from W. F. Bonstros, Esq., who is a director of the Eastern Insane Asylum, that Shaw, the negro whom everybody knew about New Berne as "Crazy Shaw," is not dead, but is still under the care of the asylum.

Change of Sailing Days.
Providence ships have changed sailing days to Mondays and Wednesdays from Norfolk. All truck from stations on the railroad should be shipped on Saturdays and Tuesdays for the Providence market.

The Glorious Fourth.
The celebration of the Fourth of July, 1887, by the citizens of New Berne and surrounding country is now an assured fact. The only question now is, how big a thing shall it be? Many of the children of the present generation know nothing of a Fourth of July celebration. Let every one "chip in" and let's give them a rouser.

Steamer Movements.
The steamer Vesper of the E. C. D. line arrived yesterday afternoon with a cargo of merchandise.
The Eaglet of the same line sailed yesterday afternoon with lumber and several hundred packages of truck, among which were cucumbers, beets, beans, and nearly two hundred barrels of potatoes.

The Pamlico sailed yesterday, carrying out a large quantity of truck, wood plates and general merchandise. A number of passengers took passage.

Fourth of July Meeting.
An adjourned meeting of citizens was held at the city hall last night to receive the report of the committee to solicit contributions. The committee reported about three hundred and fifty dollars pledged. The committee was continued and instructed to collect the amounts already pledged and continue to solicit funds and pay them over to the treasurer.

On motion, John Dunn was elected treasurer.
The following committee of arrangements was appointed and authorized to make a programme for the occasion: E. M. PAVIE, chairman; Matt Henry, J. A. Patterson and Wm. Ellis.

On motion, the chairman was added to the committee.

H. S. Nunn, Chairman.
W. R. Guion, Sec'y.

SUPERIOR COURT PROCEEDINGS.

At 9 o'clock sharp. Judge Shipp took his seat on the bench. Crier Quiddy made the proclamation and business begun.

The first before the court was the case of State against Cyrus Westbrook and Dempsey Bell for larceny of one ox or steer, the property of John Henry Jenkins, jr., which was alleged to have been stolen and taken to Kinston for sale. The witnesses were called and all answering. A jury was impanelled. After a long list of witnesses was examined, the case was argued by W. E. Clarke and L. J. Moore for Westbrook; Clement Manly for Bell, and the Solicitor for the State. His Honor charged the jury and the case was given them. After a short retirement the verdict of guilty was rendered.

The jury, in the case of State against Guilford Johnson and George Johnson, rendered a verdict of not guilty.

William Moore, who had pleaded guilty of larceny, was brought in and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary. The defendant was a school teacher and preacher, but in an unfortunate hour forgot his high and honorable calling and went to raising truck in a unlawful way—that of pulling up a lot of the fine cabbage of Mr. J. I. Ithem and taking them over the river to sell.

The case of State against C. E. Foy, one of the justices of the peace, indicted for failure to return cases tried, was taken up by request, Simmons & Manly attorneys for the defendant. A motion to quash was made, and was granted by the court.

The State appealed, and all the other cases against the justices were continued to wait the result of this.

Court adjourned to Monday morning, 9 o'clock.

Personal.

Among the passengers on the steamer Pamlico, yesterday, was Mr. W. H. Oliver, who goes to Old Point Comfort to attend an insurance convention.

Mr. R. A. Richardson, lady and baby left on the steamer Pamlico yesterday for a visit to relatives in Virginia.

Judge Shipp went to Morehead City last night and will be here Monday morning to hold court.

Col. George I. Nowitzky arrived yesterday on the steamer Pamlico from Norfolk. He is engaged in writing a book, the title of which is, "Norfolk, the Marine Metropolis of Virginia, the Sounds, rivers and cities of North Carolina."

He left on the west-bound freight train yesterday evening and will return in about three weeks to obtain data for writing up New Berne. His book will contain none of the "tom-fol puffery" usually given a few advertisers in such works, but will be a genuine write-up of the commercial interest and advantages of the location of the city.

O. H. Guion and lady returned yesterday from Washington, where they had been summoned by the extreme illness of Mrs. Guion's mother, who, we are sorry to learn, died in a few hours after their arrival there. The deceased was Mrs. Judge Rodman, well known and beloved throughout the State.

Delegates Appointed.

The General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian Church have appointed the following delegates to represent the Synod of North Carolina in the Pan Presbyterian Alliance which meets in London, in 1888: Principals—Rev. J. S. Watkins, D. D., of Raleigh, and Judge J. A. Gilmer, of Greensboro. Alternates—Rev. L. C. Vase, of New Berne, and Hon. E. R. Stamps, of Raleigh. Messrs. Gilmer and Stamps are Ruling Elders in the Presbyterian Church.

We are glad to note that our townsman, Rev. Mr. Vase, is of the number, and we would be highly gratified if he should attend.

Charming Commencement.

Miss Leah Jones's school was happy yesterday in its commencement exercises. Bright and trim, with smiling faces and cheerful hearts, the scholars gathered in their well arranged room, and the visitors were all comfortably seated. The methods of the school drill were exhibited. These are wisely chosen so as to combine instruction with exciting various and judicious merriment. Recitation of Bible texts, classic quotations from many authors, bright and stirring school songs, and popular church melodies and hymns, were all admirably rendered, and exhibited commendable proficiency.

Two pupils, Etta Nunn and Mary Gooding recited pieces of original poetry, in which they repeated all the counties in North Carolina in rhyme. These were both excellent compositions, and so nearly equal in merit, that each of the youthful authors was rewarded with a prize.

An exhibition was given of the proficiency of the school in arithmetic; and certainly it was surprising to witness the aptness and quickness of many in mental calculations. But the "Geography Bee" was specially arousing. All the school is divided into two sections, which are named "Earnest Workers" and "Trys." Considerable rivalry exists between these societies, and the ambition of each was to excel the other in answering correctly all kinds of questions upon North Carolina geography. But an end comes to all good things, and after long effort, the award fell to the "Earnest Workers," and among the survivors was Master Milton Hollowell who won the prize. (And Milton, how could you beat those girls? They will pay you for that!)

A number of prizes were given. First came a beautiful gold medal, for the scholar who ranked best in every department, scholarship, neatness and behavior. This was won by Miss Mary Gooding. Then a handsome book was given to the scholar standing first in each of the three grades in the school. These were Misses Sophie Jones, Etta Nunn and Etta Willis. Literature prizes were given to Misses Etta Willis and Mamie Wolfenden, and to Masters Willie Powell and Milton Hollowell. These premiums were delivered by Rev. Messrs. Crawford and Vase, with appropriate comments. Mr. Vase seemed to think he was a boy again, and, going back to his school days, gave some old-fashioned and sound advice about school work. And Mr. Crawford went back to those good old times when the teacher's wholesome exercise was in flogging the pupils, and the commencement day was celebrated by his bringing an extra supply of birches and giving a final "dressing" to the whole school. That was the style as practiced by one of our old New Berne pedagogues. Well, "times is better now, thank be," Miss Leah does not exercise in that way, and the scholars are glad of it. And this exhibition is a proof of what a good system of graded schools in New Berne can accomplish for us. Here is one of our own girls to the manner born, and trained in the New Berne graded school, who is giving her life to the noble work of teaching, and she is a "success." We congratulate her on her school methods, her energy and its handsome outcome.

Let our citizens build up our educational facilities. We must do it.

Zion Lodge No. 81, Trenton, N. C.

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Architect of the universe to summon from his labors upon earth, our beloved brother, Job L. Kinsey, calling him to His omnipotent will to that judgment which awaits all who are toiling in this earthly temple; and

Whereas, The Masonic ties which have so long bound us in mutual friendship and enjoyment to our departed friend, are severed, no more to be united, until the grave shall give up its dead; therefore

Resolved, That we sincerely mourn this disruption of covenanted friendship, bearing in tender remembrance his fidelity to Masonry and his devotion to the principles of fraternalism.

Resolved, That we earnestly sympathize with the relatives and friends of our deceased brother, and tender them that consolation which the world can neither give nor take away.

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble be forwarded to the family of our deceased brother, and inserted in the New Berne JOURNAL.

FOREIGN NEWS.

PARIS CALM AGAIN.

PARIS, June 1.—There has been no repetition today of the disturbance made last night in front of the Opera House in favor of Gen. Boulanger. The excitement has generally subsided. The radical press today again denounces the Bouvier cabinet while the conservative papers rejoice at the rupture between the radicals and the opportunist, as they hope that the right will result in profit for the conservatives.

BRUSSELS, June 1.—The city fell into the downfall of Gen. Boulanger's in its silent and expressed. There is very little confidence, however, in the stability of the new French ministry.

RUSSIAN RIFLE MEN ON STRIKE.

BRUSSELS, June 1.—The North German Zeitung announces the arrest of a business clerk and bricklayer superintendent of messengers both employed in the present strike in Strasbourg, on a charge of treason. The business clerk has been in communication with M. Vincent, of the intelligence department, who has just been arrested in a similar way. He confesses that he was hired to act as a liaison to give him secret information from the Strasbourg intelligence department.

RUSSIAN RIFLE MEN ON STRIKE.

BRUSSELS, June 1.—Two hundred coal miners at Barchin, Russia, who are out on a strike, attempted to rob a brewery owned by a firm of Englishmen. Fifty English workmen assisted the attack of the strikers. During the fight which occurred three of the workmen were killed. Many of the strikers, who are all Russians, have been arrested. The conflict was ended before military aid arrived.

ENGLAND—THE PLAN OF A FAIR.

LONDON, June 1.—Earl Spencer speaking at Rugby this evening, said he could not approve the plan of campaign but that it was somewhat excused by the course the government had adopted. The true way to meet it, he said, was to find some remedy against the exaction of tenants suffering from unjust rents. Unless that was done the government would have serious work in Ireland the coming winter.

CONFLICTS BETWEEN STRIKERS AND POLICE.

BRUSSELS, June 1.—Conflicts occurred here last night between parties of socialists who were parading the streets and the police. Numerous arrests were made. An order has been issued for bidding the assembling of over five persons in a body. The men dressed in quietest. Men are at work in all the pits in the Strain district and on both sides of the Meuse.

HYMENEA!

MARRIED.—In Beaufort, N. C., on Wednesday June 1, 1887, by the Rev. E. M. Forbes, Rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Mr. Charles H. Thomas, Jr., to Miss Laura Davis, a resident of Beaufort. The groom is a resident of Beaufort, and is engaged in his chosen profession, the law. Mr. Thomas is a young man of great promise, was honored by his fellow citizens with a seat in the last Legislature. He has brain and will reach the top round of the ladder. He is a son of Judge C. H. Thomas of New Berne. The bride is a daughter of Major James C. Davis and a grand daughter of Thos. J. Pastour of Florida. The bridal veil and orange blossom never was more worthily worn than when decorating the brow of one so lovely and so pure as the sweet bride who plighted her troth to our gallant young attorney on yesterday morning. The bright god of day arose in his majestic splendor. The marriage ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's father, at four o'clock a. m. The ceremony was performed at this hour, owing to the early departure of the train, which the happy couple took for Asheville, where they will spend their honeymoon. The residence of Major Davis, was illuminated and handsomely dressed with flowers. The wedding march was played by Prof. W. C. Manson. The house was crowded with friends and relatives, who wish them "bon voyage" and a safe return.

The Record wishes the happy pair, who have launched their barque out on life's sea, a pleasant journey. May no adverse winds retard them; may bright skies ever be above them; and may flood tides of love and devotion ever well up in their bosoms. May peace, prosperity and health be theirs all along through life's journey, and at last reach that brighter home on high. "Soft love looked love to eyes that spoke again, and all went merry as a marriage bell."—Beaufort Record.

An End to Bone Scraping.

Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. Have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped or leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven bottles Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well!" Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c. per box by R. N. Duffy.

The Reformed Presbyterian Synod of the United States and Canada met at Newburgh, N. Y., Wednesday.
