The afflicted family have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad bereavement. The remains were taken: to Lenoir Institute yesterday for interment.

There are complaints that the sprink ling of the streets with the hose from the pipes are doing damage to the streets by washing boles in them. This is the result of the nozzle used and the frequency and continuance of the use; The matter was before the heard of councilmen at their regular meeting, but no produce on offered, the board thinking no doubt that the novelty would soon wear off and only necessary sprinkling would be done. We mention this is order that there who use the waters may give the subject the attention needed.
