tised to take place today is postponed until Tuesday the 21st inst.

A pony penning on the 20th inst. is one of the diversions for the benefit of the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead.

Dust was severely felt yesterday on Craven below South Front street. Can't the pipes be laid and water furnished in that locality?

We see by a special to the News and Observer from Washington, N. C., that Mrs. Linck has been committed to jail at that place for complicity in the murder of her late husband, Paul Linck.

Buncombe county has a sensation over a double headed child born of colored parents in that county. It is a great curiosity, and worst of all, President Cleveland cannot go to see it—his invitation to visit that county having been withdrawn. Poor man!

The M. E. Church Working Society, accompanied by the New Berne Board of Trade, will take an excursion to Morehead on the 22d inst. See advertisement—a pleasant time may be expected. Miss Corinne Harrison will address the Teachers' Assembly on that day.

The Salvation Army Festival.

The Salvation Army held a festival at Lowthrop Hall last night. The N. B. S.
F. E. Band aided with some of their best music. A large number of persons were present, and the receipts were, we hope, quite satisfactory.

The Schoolteacher.

We have received the June number of The Schoolteacher, edited and published by Profs. J. L. Tomlinson and W. A. Blair, Winston, N. C. Teachers and friends of education generally are to be congratulated on the existence of so excellent a publication, commanding as it does so much eminent talent, and displaying in its columns so much superior ability. We cannot undertake to enumerate the long list of contributors for 1887, but it includes the names of many of the very foremost educated men of the country, North and South.

An Old Colored Citizen Gone.

Oliver Tripp, colored, died on the 14th and was buried yesterday. All the old members of the New Berne Light Infantry of 1855 to '59 will remember him as the fiercest of that gallant and brave command. Oliver was one of the old-time colored people, and went to Philadelphia since the emancipation of slaves, but thinking he could do better among the old folks at home, returned to this city and died among the friends of his youth. He was an industrious man, good worker, and always enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his employers. May his rest be peaceful.

Steamer Movements.

The Carolina arrived yesterday from Jolly Old Field, where it connected with a line from Snow Hill.

The New Berne, Capt. Pritchett, of the O. D. Line, sailed yesterday afternoon on schedule time, with a good cargo of truck, and list of passengers for Norfolk, Va.

The Vesper, of the E. C. D. Line, arrived yesterday with good cargo of merchandise and sailed yesterday afternoon with good load of truck, among which were several boxes of tomatoes, the first of the season from this vicinity.
The Eagle, of this line, will arrive today and sail tomorrow afternoon at five o'clock.

District Conference.

The District Conference of the M. E.
Church will be held at La Grange on the 23d inst. Bishop W. W. Duncan will be present.

A Great and Good Man Gone.

The death of Bishop Stevens of Pennsylvania, vacates a seat in the House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church which has long been filled by one of the most learned and devout Christians of the age. The name of Wm. Bacon Stevens, D. D., LL. D., is known throughout the civilized world as a man of superior attainments, rich endowments and of enlarged intelligence. His health has been for a number of years precarious and while death was not unexpected it will cast a gloom of sadness around the hearth of thousands in this and other countries.

"They Took Coffee in There."

Among the failures in the coffee speculation is New York is the firm of B.
G. Arnold & Co. Mr. B. G. Arnold was the originator of the Coffee Exchange and its president. The failures connected with this establishment will cause little regret, as it was brought about by entirely speculative movements, which was designed to increase the cost of a necessary article of consumption, in order that a few speculators might amass large fortunes.

May failure in all such undertakings attend them should be the devout petition of consumers all over the country. A reasonable advance in prices from legitimate causes may be borne by the consumers, but these advances brought about by the devices of speculators to make large profits out of the consumer, should be deprecated by all fair dealers and a failure regarded as a positive good to the world at large.

Personal.

Mrs. J. R. B. Carraway returned yesterday from a visit to her parents at Bell's Ferry.

Dr. E. S. Broadway, of Lenoir, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. John C. Green, who has been down to Morehead for his health, was here yesterday, much improved. He will take his family down for the season.

Mr. J. F. Hendren, of Winston, a student at Bingham School, is visiting relatives in the city.

John C. Wooten, Esq., and Geo. Dees, Esq., members of the finance committee of the A. & N. C. R. R. Company were in the city yesterday. The other members of the committee were not present.

Miss Aurora Mace returned by the steamer Newberne yesterday from New York, where she has been attending the Cooper Union Art League in lessons in painting and drawing. She is now preparing to paint life-size portraits for any who may wish them.

Capt. Fielding and Cadet Kaiser of the Salvation Army, arrived last night from Durham.

Mr. O. H. Guion and lady returned from Washington by steamer Newberne.

The Death of Mr. John C. Washington.

It is not our purpose to write over an obituary of this gentleman. His name has been almost analogous to that of Kinston, and his life devoted to its growth and prosperity, and his memory demands a more complete biography than can be made in a daily newspaper or written without proper research. No man has ever enjoyed the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens to a greater degree than did John C. Washington of Kinston. The very soul of honor, of a liberal mind, generous heart and kind disposition, his acts of benevolence were innumerable.

Mr. Washington was born at Kinston.
His father, one of the earliest and most prosperous merchants of that town, left to him an ample fortune, which he always used with discreet judgment and a commendable interest in the advancement of the growth and improvement of his native town and county.

The deceased was not only known, as we have described him, by his immediate neighbors, but throughout the State, and beyond its borders the news of his death will be heard with regret.
We earnestly trust that some one better qualified than we are will at an early date write such a history of his life and services as is richly deserved. None who have ever visited Washington Hill in pursuit of recreation and pleasure but will remember the cordial welcome and unbounded hospitality of the host who will no more meet them there.

He was a member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and died at a ripe old age, full of good works.

Black Friday in the Coffee Exchange—Fortunes Swept Away.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The excitement in the coffee market which has attended the decline in coffee reached its highest point today, and the brokers acting for the bull operators became panic-stricken and rushed to sell without regard to price. The bulls blame the Gruner-Croesman syndicate for starting the decline which culminated in today's panic, but the bear syndicate strained every nerve to check the fall, without success. Outsiders claim that the firm of Arnold & Co., which failed today, has been carrying 500,000 bags of coffee for the Rio Janeiro operators, known as the Brazilian party, and it is estimated that the liabilities will amount to over $1,000,000. The Brazilian party started to buy coffee after the Gruner-Croesman syndicate advanced the price from 8 to 18 cents a pound, and since then the Gruner syndicate have been bears on the market, and are said to have unloaded all their long stuff on the Brazilians. There was some talk of trouble in banking circles as a result of the panic, but as the banks only loaned 50 per cent. of the market value on coffee, it is hard to see how any of them could have been involved. Mackey & Small, one of the suspended firms, are supposed to have liabilities of $200,000.
The liabilities of the other firm are small. The liabilities of W. J. Norton & Co., coffee brokers, at No. 100 Water street, who also failed, are not more than $20,000, and their business is chiefly done with Baltimore parties.
Norton, Weyl & Bevan state that their suspension was due to the existing depression in prices, augmented by the failure of other firms in the trade.
Mackey & Small say that their stoppage is in no wise due to the fact of their being "long" on the market. As commission men their transactions run both ways, and they may be regarded as being both "long" and "short" at the same time, and losing both ways. The inability of their clients to put up marginal funds quick enough rendered it impossible for them to meet the demands of the market, and in consequence they were compelled to suspend. The fall in coffee represents a drop of about 80 cents on the dollar. Nothing but vast capital was able to withstand the call created by such a difference with large orders out. It is feared that other houses will go under. The market rallied sharply after the last failure was announced, and was closed comparatively strong.
The day will always be remembered in the coffee circles. Mackey and Small formed the present firm in August, 1884, claiming a capital of $50,000. It consists of John D. Mackey and Cyrus K. Small. They did an active business in spot coffee and futures. The firm of Norton, Weyl & Bevan was formed in the 1st inst., and is composed of Frank G. Norton, G. E. Weyl and G. F.
Bevan, succeeding in the business of W. J. Norton & Co. Mr. Norton came to this city about three years ago from Baltimore, where the firm of W. J.
Norton & Co. had failed in 1883.

Greensboro News: Some few of the ninety pigeons which left here Thursday morning reached Philadelphia before night, but the vast majority were behind. They passed through a heavy storm, which always retard their flight. Some of the best birds were among those not heard from. So the experiment was not a satisfactory one.

Charlotte Chronicle: Mr. Thos.
McCord, one of the sturdy farmers of Paw creek, owns a pig that is something of a wonder in its way.
At the age of two months the pig weighed 36 pounds, at four months 68 pounds and at five months 145 pounds the last weighing showing a gain of 50 pounds in thirty days.
Mr. McCord expects to have a 600 pound hog this winter, and if the weight of the pig continues to increase at the present rate Mr. Mc-Cord's expectations will be realized.

Wilmington Star: The Salvation Army, under command of Adjutant General Beall, opened the campaign last night. The army, consisting of about a dozen females and three or four males, took pos-sion on Princess street at the intersection of Front, and soon had a crowd around them. Several hymns were sung in a lively rattling style, one of the men playing an accompaniment on a tambourine. After singing, the army knelt down in the street and prayer was offered by the leader.
During the meeting several converts—male and female made brief addresses.

Goldsboro Argus: We were shown yesterday a very crooked and knotty walking stick by our old friend Mr. Needham Smith, of this county, a veteran of the Mexican war. The stick was cut in Craven county in 1800 and given to Mr. Smith in 1842 by the family of the gentleman who cut it. The stick has been in constant use ever since it was cut and it has two small cavities near the top on opposite sides, worn there by the index finger and thumb of Mr. Smith and his predecessor in possession.
Mr. Smith told us that he has a very fine ebony stick at home that he brought with him from Mexico when returning from the war; so that he is in possession of probably the oldest walking sticks in the State.

Pleasant Vision.

The organ of sight, which is the source of so much pleasure as well as benefit to man, is very delicate. A great many persons, not appreciating this, are using cheap spectacles. These glasses, by their imperfect construction and blemishes, seriously injure and sometimes almost destroy the sight.
Hawkes' Crystalized Lenses are the most perfect glasses in the world, being especially adapted for the preservation and sometimes restoration of the sight.

One American Kills Four Mexicans.

Chicago, June 13.—James Taylor, a sheep man, of Scurry county, Texas, had two Mexican sheep herders working for him. Friday they had some misunderstanding about the work, and in a fight that followed Taylor worsted them both. Next day, as Taylor came to the camp, he found two more Mexicans, and before he was aware of their intentions the four made an attack on him. Three had knives and one had a six-shooter, while Taylor was unarmed.
Taylor is an athletic young man. In the scuffle that followed he got possession of the six-shooter and immediately turned the tables. He killed three of his would-be murderers, and as the fourth started to run he sprang to his wagon, secured his Winchester, and shot the last of his assailants at a distance of 150 yards, inflicting a fatal wound. Taylor gave himself up.

Greatly Excited.

Not a few of the citizens of New Berne, N. C., have recently become greatly excited over the astounding facts, that several of their friends who had been pronounced by their physicians as incurable and beyond all hope —suffering from that dreadful monster Consumption—have been completely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the only remedy that does positively cure all throat and lung diseases, Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Bronchitis.

"Summer Silk in stripes and plaids is worth 50c. per yard, and it takes 20 yds. to make a dress. I have nine dollars in my pocket and my salary is three must I wait before I have enough to buy Before any one had the time to work a little girl's hand went up.

"Why, Grace, said the teacher, you cannot have the answer so soon."

"Oh yes! I have teacher. You don't have to wait at all because A. M. Baker is selling summer silk at 45c. Mama bought a dress of it yesterday and also one of that lovely camel's hair black suitings. She says it is the best bargain
