

Scribner's Magazine,
PUBLISHED MONTHLY,
WITH ILLUSTRATIONS.
First Number Ready December 15th.
Scribner's Magazine will be in the widest sense a magazine of general literature, and each number will be fully illustrated.
Some of the most notable papers to appear during the first year are a series of Unpublished Letters of Thackeray of very great autobiographical value; ex-Minister E. B. Washburn's Reminiscences of the Siege and Commune of Paris; Glimpses at the Diaries of Gouverneur Morris, Minister to France at the close of the last century (giving descriptions of social life and characters at the time); a collection of contemporary letters describing Early New York and New England Society.
There is much excellent fiction, including a serial by Harold Frederic; stories extending through several numbers by H. C. Bunner, J. S. of Dale, and others; and short stories by R. L. Stevenson, Joel Chandler Harris, T. A. Janvier, Miss Jewett, Octave Thanet, H. H. Boyesen, Miss Crosby, and a host of others.
Notable special papers to be published very early are General F. A. Walker's on Socialism; Dr. William Hayes Ward's on Babylonian Cylinders; Mr. John C. Ropes' on the Portraits of Caesar; Captain Greene's on Coast Defence, etc., etc.
Scribner's Magazine will be published at $3.00 a year, or 25 cents a copy. Subscriptions may be sent to any newsdealer or bookseller, or to CHARLES SCRIBNER'S SONS, Publishers, 743 and 745 Broadway, New York.
Merchants, Bankers and Manufacturers should read

BRADSTREET'S,
A WEEKLY JOURNAL OF
Trade, Finance and Public Economy.
Sixteen Pages Every Saturday.
Sometimes Twenty Pages. Sometimes Twenty-four Pages.
FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.
The foremost purpose of BRADSTREET'S is to be of practical service to business men. Its special trade and industrial reports and its synopsis of recent legal decisions are especially valuable. As commercial transactions in the wider sense are coming to be more and more conducted on a statistical basis, the information contained in BRADSTREET'S is of the first importance to all.
The general business situation throughout the United States and Canada is reported by telegraph to Bradstreet's up to the hour of publication.

Make the Farm Home Pleasant.
Yes; make it so pleasant that the growing boys and girls will not be looking forward to the time when they will be old enough to leave the farm in search of a pleasanter place. We know a well to do farmer, having eight children, who, as soon as they are old enough to support themselves, leave their home. Of the five boys, not one remains on the farm. They have gone to clerkships and other positions, in preference to staying on the much despised farm. A glance in the home may account somewhat for this. There has never been any effort to make it attractive for the children. The parents' aim has been to work and save, with scarcely a thought that their children had any other needs than food and clothing. They are active, bright minded boys and girls. It is no wonder that the dullness and monotony becomes unendurable.
This farmer does not hesitate to spend money in farm improvements in fine stock, or in anything that will advance his financial interest but any outlay for the children's pleasure is regarded as unnecessary and extravagant.
Children cannot feel that sense of proprietorship in the farm and its profits that is a stimulant to the heads of the household, and something is needed to take its place. Some personal property, even if a chicken or a pig, is a strong incentive. Children are sportive by nature—all young animals are—and some diversion is essential for leisure hours; otherwise their minds will wander off and dwell on the attractions supposed to pertain to village and city life.
A few dollars each year invested in reading matter will not only supply pleasant employment for leisure hours, but the means of mental improvement as well. There are so many excellent, entertaining publications for the young, and at such low prices, that no family in which there are children should be without one or more. But parents should discriminate carefully between a good and bad class of reading matter, for there is a large amount of a flashy, sensational character, wholly unfit for the young to read.
There is no reason why a country home should not be a place of pleasure and contentment to every member. There is freshness and freedom in farm life that cannot be enjoyed when a person is surrounded by brick walls. With pleasant mental recreation for leisure hours there need be no unhappy memories of the farm to carry through life.—American Agriculturist.
