Robbery and Forgery

Yesterday some thief entered the Clyde steamship office and stole Mr. Isaac Patterson's coat. In the pocket was a check for $88.50 payable to order, A negro boy presented it at the National Bank for payment but being informed that it was not properly endorsed left and afterwards returned with it made payable to bearer. The Cashier inquired who made the change and the negro replied, Mr. Ralph Gray, whereupon the check was cashed

The officers of the law are on the track of the thief and will doubtless soon have him in hand.

Excitement in Teras.

Great excitement has been caused in the vicinity of Paris, Texas, by the remarkable recovery of Mr. J. E. Corley, who was so helpless he could not turn in he was dying of Consumption. A trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery was sent him. Finding relief, he bought a large bottle and a box of Dr. King's New Life Pills; by the time he had taken two boxes of pills and two bottles of the Discovery, he was well and had gained in flesh thirty-six pounds.

Danberry Reporter-Fost Five grandchildren of Mr. John Daiton, who lives in the vicinity of Five Forks, Patrick county, were buried the same day last The cause of their death not distinctly diagnosed, for though the symptons of flux were present, they were complicated with some affection of the head. There were three physicians in attendance, as we are in formed.

Bladen Halleton Capt Trying Robinson, of the steamer Hurt, inferms us that on last Thursday, when about six teen miles from Wilmington, that Jno. Bennom, a passenger on that boat, who was under the influence of whiskey fell overboard, was carried under the boat, and after passing over him he was seen to rise once and immediately dis appear. Lifforts were made to recover bed, or raise his head; everybody said his body, but at last accounts all attempts had proved futile.

Beaufort Kennel On Thursday, the 16th instant, a large New Foundland dog came ashere on Bogue Banks. The dog refused to have anything to do with any of the residents. It was supposed that he had swam ashore from wrooked vessel. We learned later that the dog belonged to Mr. Lockhart Gibbs who resides about three miles from town. Mr. Gibbs had left home for Beaufort, and the dog, wishing to be with him, attempted to swim across the creek. A heavy wind and rain storm was prevailing at the time and the banks.

Concord Times Some of our State exchanges use their local news columns as a medium for advertising, and regularly interlard their short local happen ings with such refreshing things as. Go to Pecksniff's bakery for nice fresh biscuits," "Don't forget that Grimes, the barber, keeps on hand at all times a full supply of hair cuts, shampoons, shaves, etc. or words to that effect. These things are read by people when they are found in their proper place in the advertising columns, but when they are mixed with reading matter they worry the reader. It isn't treating your readers right, gentlemen. If they don't kick, they ought to.
