THE JOURNAL.

M. S. WURN, Editor.
W. H. HARPER, Business Manager.

NEW BERNE, N. C., JUNE 29, 1887.

Entered at the Post Office at New Berne, N. C. as second-class matter.

SECRETARY FAIRCHILD used his power and eased the money market of Wall street after the gamblers had disturbed it and were about to create a panic among themselves. This is one way in which the surplus can be used to quiet the Wall street gamblers.

The price of cotton after running up unexpectedly, took a turn backward and is not very encouraging to planters. But if it continues to go down will not there be danger of a panic among the farmers, and if a panic is threatened will not Secretary FAIRCHILD go in the market and buy a few hundred thousand bales for the government, forced the price up, turn loose some of the surplus and save the farmers from a panic? We would like to see this remedy tried once.

LET THE TRUTH BE TOLD.

The following cleverly written communication to the Baltimore Sun, exactly speaks the sentiments of the JOURNAL in regard to returning the old flags:

Messrs. A. S. Abell & Co.: The discussion in regard to the return of the captured Confederate flags has fully established the fact that the people of the North will not give them up. The ex-Confederate soldiers did not ask for them, nor do I think they want them. Let them remain in the hands of what the Union army accomplished; bring them forth from the hiding places to which they have been consigned, place them where they can be seen, and in order that their history may be fully known to the future generations, have an inscription placed on them to show that they were captured by an army of 2,500,000 Federal soldiers from 700,000 Confederates, after desperate fighting, continuing through a period of four years; state how many were captured in actual battle; when, where and by whom taken; give the number taken at the final surrender of the armies, when, "after four years of arduous service, marked by unsurpassed courage and fortitude," they "were compelled to yield to overwhelming numbers and resources." Then give the number found amongst the Confederate government archives at Richmond and other points. The ex-Confederate soldier, who has "the satisfaction that proceeds from the consciousness of duty faithfully performed," does not ask for the return of any trophies of war, but does ask that the truth be told.

EX-CONFEDERATE.

THE COFFEE TREE.—Coffee is not a bush, as is popularly supposed, but a tree, which, if permitted to grow, will shoot up thirty or forty feet. When properly cultivated it is tipped off about six feet from the ground, thus presenting a surface from which the berries are easily picked and allowing the main stalk to gain strength. The tall shrubs somewhat resemble the magnolias with their shining dark-green leaves—but the starry, snow-white flowers remind one of orange blossoms in all but fragrance. The phenomenon is constantly displayed of buds, blossoms, green and ripe fruit, all on the same stem; but though always flowering and developing fruit, the true harvest season is from April to November. When fully matured the berries are dark red, looking precisely like a common variety of sea bean. They turn to a dull brown after having been picked and become almost black by drying.

Onslow County Items.

Crops and gardens are very nice. Major Russell shipped about 30 barrels of fine potatoes from one acre last week.

The Temperance Lodge of Swansboro will give a public demonstration on the night of the 4th of July.

Fish are rather scarce on the sound. Inch and a quarter mullets sell for twenty cents per dozen, other varieties sell for ten cents per dozen.

Rev. J. T. Kendall who is to preach in Swansboro and at Queen's creek on the first Sunday in July, will preach the funeral of John A. Ooston on the second Sunday in July at the burial grounds near Queen's Creek Church.

Jones County Items.

We have cool, wet weather but our crops are looking well.

Spring chickens are selling quickly at Trenton at 25 cents per pair.

We learn that Caddy Perry, of Trenton, who has been very sick is now improving.

Next Monday the commissioners of the county, and the tax assessors will be in session at Trenton to receive and revise the tax list.

We learn that our Pollockville friends are going to get up a lodge of the Knights of Honor at that thriving and go-ahead village.

We learn that the Knights of Honor sent $2,000 within twenty days after Mr. J. L. Cusey's death, and have paid the full amount a few days since.

The low bush whortleberries are plentiful this season which will cause many of the knotty nange infested porkers to somewhat kinder curl their caudal appendages.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrison of Trenton township had the sad misfortune to lose their little baby on Wednesday, the 20th of June. We learn that its death was caused by whooping cough.

The chairman of the educational board has called a meeting of the board on Saturday, the 2nd day of June, next. All persons who may have business with the board are requested to attend.

We learn that Mrs. Mary Russe, widow of Mr. Mitchell Russe, of Trenton township, died at the residence of her brother, Mr. John Griffin, with congestive chill, on Saturday morning last, age about 50 years.

I have been requested by one of our citizens to inquire through the JOURNAL what are the belief and articles of faith of the new sect called "Adventist" which has recently come to New Berne?

We learn that our farmers of this county, or the majority of them, have raised a fine crop of oats which they now intend to seed down the same land in field peas which is a departure in the right direction, as the peas will help them to fatten more pork and at the same time improve their lands.

We learn that a full delegation of Jones county citizens are making arrangements to attend the celebration on the 4th at New Berne. We know they will be well pleased, for New Berne people know just how to finish up in the very neatest and nicest manner everything of the kind that they undertake.

The Cummings Brothers are yet busy in Trenton applying the paint brush. E. G. McDaniel started on his house; Mr. Brogren saw such a change at McDaniel's that he set them to work on his buildings—meanwhile friend J. A. Smith was looking on and was ready to start them on his building, where they are now at work, doing some very nice and elegant inside painting. We are glad to see our friends beautifying and adorning their homes. We learn that others in Trenton have concluded that their homes must be painted and are waiting their turn. We are glad to see such a spirit of improvement pervading our county town.

Several of our farmers have shipped their potatoes and are highly pleased with the proceeds, while others who planted on the same day say that their potatoes are not yet ready to dig; that the vines are looking green and thrifty, looking like they will be good. Some say what is the cause, I planted and manured like my neighbors, yet they have shipped theirs and mine not near grown. I would suggest to our farmers that it is too much risk to purchase fertilizers and seed potatoes at a high price, not knowing whether you are planting an early or a late variety, or if early you will be apt to get a fair price. If late you only and last resort is to feed them to your hogs. Now just quit purchasing your seed potatoes from every little corner grocery. Club together in every neighborhood and order the very earliest variety from a reliable seedsman who would send you the "king of the earlies" or the early rose, or whatever you ordered. I am confident that Baist or Landreth, or any of the reliable seeds-men would never send me a bushel of Jackson whites marked early rose if I had sent them an order for the rose. Just let us try it one season, we think that all will be pleased and order from the same again.

HUMOROUS.

A man wanted a horse to ride in the park. "Do you want a spirited animal?" asked the livery man. "No, not very." "What do you want, then?" "I want a horse that looks a great deal more spirited than he really is."

Tom—"I don't see why so many people make a fuss over that Miss Jones; she isn't any better-looking or as nice as some of the other girls."

Harry—"That's true, my dear boy, but her pa is a millionaire. That's why she carries so high a head."

Tom—"O, that's it, is it! She holds up her head by a cheque reignu."

Mississippi general—"Say, Mr. Secretary, not long ago we asked for a couple of the biggest cannons in the country for the State militia to practice with at our annual camp."

Secretary of War—"That's all right. I attended to it." "But they have not arrived yet." "That's queer. Guess the Postmaster must have put them in the wrong box."

"Why do you want to run for Alderman?" was asked of a young man afflicted with the mania last night. "To humble family pride, my dear boy," was the answer. "I think I am a pretty good fellow, and so does my family. After the election is over I am going to compile all the bad things said about me, and with Poo-Bah exclaim: 'Ah, family pride, take that!'"

Every time I get to exalted opinions of myself I shall take that prescription. It will prevent my floating into the ether some time."

Pleasant Vision.

The organ of sight, which is the source of so much pleasure as well as benefit to man, is very delicate. A great many persons, not appreciating this, are using cheap spectacles.
