Figuring Out The Result.
A correspondent at Smith's store figures out the profits to be made on one horse farm in corn. His figures show a very small profit but still they should not be discouraging. The poorest farmer in the country can, perhaps, come up to the minimum calculation made here which would enable him to live. And if the poor farmer with his poor methods and slipshod way of doing things can make a living what doth hinder the man of pluck, energy, business methods, substantial habits and with a will to work six days in the week from doing well? He will not only make a living but will improve the value of his farm and stock, year after year, educate his children and make farm life worth living.

If all farmers would keep accounts as is suggested by this correspondent there would not be so many poor farmers, nor so many slaves to merchant.

Trip For The Mountains.
A party is being made up for a trip to Asheville, to leave New Bern on Thursday the 1st of July. Tickets will be on sale on the 20th. If the party can be increased to thirty or more the price for round trip tickets will be $11.55. The party must leave on the same train, but can return on any train within fifteen days. Parties wishing to go had better give their names to W. F. Rountree.

The Lena, Capt. Caffee, from Fairfield with a cargo of oats and corn consigned to W. P. Burrus & Co.

The Sarah Midyette, Capt. Spencer, from Fairfield with a cargo of oats and corn consigned to W. P. Burrus & Co.

The Potter, Capt. Adams, from Middletown with oats consigned to W. P. Burrus & Co.

Resolutions of Respect.
At a regular meeting of New Bern Lodge No. 443, Knights of Honor the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

To the officers and members of New Bern Lodge No. 443, Knights of Honor:

Whereas, It hath pleased the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ to remove from our midst, and the toll and cares of this life to Himself and eternal peace and rest, Knights E. G. Outhbert. Therefore be it

Resolved, That we bow with humble submission to the will and wisdom of the Divine Ruler of the Universe.

Resolved, That in the death of brother Outhbert our Lodge has sustained a loss that we deeply deplore, not alone as a useful member of our brotherhood, but as a true friend, good neighbor and useful citizen, and herein we express to the members of the order and to the community at large our exalted appreciation of his high character and many private virtues.

Resolved, That we extend to the family of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy in this the hour of their deep and profound sorrow and commend them to Him who doeth all things well and upon whom the husband and father leaned in life, and who sustained him through his long and painful illness, and at last carried him safely "through the valley of the shadow of death."

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of our deceased brother, and that a copy be furnished the press for publication, also that they be placed upon the minutes of our Lodge.

The Reasoke Patron.
The official organ of the Grangers of North Carolina, speaking of the Grange Encampment and Farmers Fair to be held at Mount Holly, Gaston county, August 10th to 15th says:

"The Grange Encampment and Farmers' Institute at Mount Holly, Gaston county, N. C., meet our hearty approval, and welcome as many patrons and farmers as can do so, will attend. It will afford farmers a fine opportunity of spending a few days very pleasantly, away from the toil and cares of the farm. Mount Holly is a few miles west of Charlotte, easily reached by railroad, and reduced rates will doubtless be obtained on all the roads leading thence. We hope the Grange will be well represented, and good may be done in strengthening the Order in the State."

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

How Children Should be Treated in Cities During Summer Months.

The present hot spell of weather not only produces a depraved condition of the atmosphere, but causes relaxation of the system, and in consequence children naturally feeble physically, suffer much more than adults. It is a vulgar error that dentition, or cutting teeth, is a cause of cholera infantum, though it may add to the irritability of the patient and thus increase the trouble. Children cut their teeth during the autumn and winter months without any apparent constitutional disturbance. Children, whose system are thus rendered more liable to disease by the excessive heat and impure air, are particularly susceptible to disease.

Judicious and well timed measures can be employed, not only to prevent, but to ameliorate the trouble. Children should be kept as much as possible in the open air, without shoes and stockings, and in the lightest possible attire. They should be bathed night and morning in tepid water. If a tub of water is allowed to stand in the sun during the day and the child bathed in it at night at bedtime, it will give a soothing and refreshing rest.

The head should be frequently bathed during the day with cold water or with spirits and water, and the head should always be bathed before giving the bath.

The late Dr. Hintz was very successful in the treatment of the disease of children without the administration of drugs. In addition to the means just suggested he employed one or two other agencies, which he deemed of the highest importance. His little patients were never allowed to sleep on hair or feather pillows or mattresses. He invariably directed for their use pallets made of burl or straw. These could be renewed or kept clean without much trouble or expense. He also prescribed small portions of pounded ice or cold water to be given internally every hour. He argued that babies require water as much as puppies, calves or other animals. Mothers are ignorant of this fact, and consequently few nursing children get water though they must suffer torture from thirst during the summer months.

Drugs must be avoided in the treatment of the summer diseases of children. A little lime water, chalk mixture or blamuth may be given to control the diarrhea. These are harmless, and can be administered by any one. The diet should consist of milk and light food exclusively, meat and vegetables being totally unfit.

Of course pure country air is the best of all remedies. Cholera infantum does not prevail in rural districts; it is a disease almost entirely confined to cities. Frequent trips down the bay are very serviceable. If the poor of the city can avail themselves of the Wilson Sanitarium it will tend greatly to the benefit of their children and hasten their recovery. Children who are dangerously sick can remain for days in the cottages on the grounds, and thus secure a stock of strength which may bridge over their summer's attack. The advantages of this institution are not yet sufficiently known to those whom it is intended to benefit.—Baltimore Sun.

DIED.
At Hellair, Craven county, N. C., on the 26th of June, 1887, of congestive chill, William P. Richardson, aged 31 years.

Ever since 1869 he had been a faithful student and laborer in the Beach Grove Sunday School, contributing no small part to its interest and success. He served as scholar, secretary, librarian and teacher, giving his mind and heart to the work.

In the summer of 1880 he joined the M. E. Church, South, and lived an acceptable member till death severed the militant link, and permitted the triumphal joining in the "summer land of bliss."

Bro. Richardson had a very active mind, and was foremost in anything that tended to improve intellectually the interests of the neighborhood.

On the first of March, 1887, he was happily married to Miss Dora Ascherfeld, of Maryland. With enlarged prospects of usefulness and happiness; thus starting anew, as it were, to meet life's varied duties, he and his young bride were hopeful and happy, but alas! how soon those hopes are dispelled, and in less than four months, the hymeneal joys are draped with the mantle of dissolution.

Surely "in the midst of life we are in death."

As we commit to mother earth the remains of our brother, we would point his bereaved loved ones to the great source of temporal and eternal life.

RENOVATE YOUR FEATHERS!!

Old or New Feathers Thoroughly Dusted, Steamed, Dried, and Rendered Perfectly Odorless.

SPECIAL NOTICE.
It is a well known fact that all feathers in constant use by many causes become matted and hard, dusty and soiled, impure and unhealthy. All feathers in use five or more years ought to be cleaned or renovated, or no well informed person will use a feather that has not been purified and made odorless, which can only be done by a liberal use of Live Steam. We now call your attention to this fact, and state that we are now prepared at short notice to renovate your feathers by the Steam Process Patent Feather Renovator, which will continue in operation for a few weeks longer at New Bern, N. C. This machine has been used extensively for years past in all the Eastern and Western States and Canada, with the best results and most general satisfaction. Thousands of testimonials could be obtained if necessary, but few from those best known in our own State will be more acceptable.

TESTIMONIALS.
GOLDENRO, N. C., 20th April 1887.
Mr. George Bucher—Dear Sir:—It gives me pleasure to bear testimony to the excellence of the steam process for cleaning and renovating feathers. It renders beds, which are unpleasant and unwholesome, in every respect as good as new. We are now using beds which were subjected to this process about seven years ago and they still retain their softness and odorless condition.

J. M. HILLMAN,
Rector St. Stephen's Church.

GOLDENRO, N. C., April 25, 1887.
We have had work done by Messrs. Bucher & Crow, and we are satisfied that their renovated by their process is all they claim for it, and we willingly recommend their work to the favorable consideration of every one.

T. W. SWANN,
GOLDENRO, N. C., April 26, 1887.

Messrs. Bucher & Crow—Gentle:—The work done by you in renovating feather beds is perfectly satisfactory.

Respectfully,
L. D. GIBBS.

GOLDENRO, N. C., July 4, 1887.
Mr. Joe Harvey, New Bern, N. C., Dear Sir: The feathers that you cleaned and renovated for me gave entire satisfaction, making them as good as new.

Yours truly,
T. B. HYMAN.

It is not necessary to continue further. Our work is our reference, and we are bound to please and give satisfaction. This is the first machine of the kind ever introduced in this State, and this will probably be the only opportunity offered in many years. Our prices are so low that every one can avail themselves of the chance to have their work done.

Work called for and delivered free of charge. On feathers that are sent by rail or steamer freight only will be added extra. No charge for drying or handling.
