

BRADSTREET'S.
A WEEKLY JOURNAL OF
Trade, Finance and Public Economy.
Sixteen Pages Every Saturday.
FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

The foremost purpose of BRADSTREET'S is to be of practical service to business men. Its special trade and industrial reports and its synopsis of recent legal decisions are exceedingly valuable. As commercial transactions, in the wider sense, are coming to be more and more conducted on a statistical basis, the information contained in BRADSTREET'S is of the first importance to all.

The general business situation throughout the United States and Canada is reported by telegraph to Bradstreet's up to the hour of publication.

Scribner's Magazine,
PUBLISHED MONTHLY,
WITH ILLUSTRATIONS
First Number Ready December 15th.

Scribner's Magazine will be in the widest sense a magazine of general literature, and each number will be fully illustrated.

Some of the most notable papers to appear during the first year are a series of Unpublished Letters of Thackeray of very great autobiographical value; ex-Minister E. B. Washburne's Reminiscences of the Sage and Comrade of Paris; Glimpses at the Diaries of Gouverneur Morris, Minister to France at the close of the last century giving descriptions of social life and characters at the time; a collection of contemporary letters describing Early New York and New England Society.

There is much excellent fiction, including a serial by Harold Frederic, stories extending through several numbers by H. C. Bunner, J. S. Dale, and others; and short stories by R. L. Stevenson, Joel Chandler Harris, T. A. Janvier, Miss Jewett, Octave Thanet, H. H. Boyesen, Miss Crosby, and a host of others.

Notable special papers to be published very early are: General T. A. Walker's on Socialism; Dr. William Hayes Ward's on Babylonian Cylinders; Mr. John C. Ropes' on the Portraits of Caesar; Captain Greene's on Coast Defence, etc., etc.

Scribner's Magazine will be published at $3.00 a year, or 25 cents a copy. Subscriptions may be sent to any newsdealer or bookseller, or to 1837. THE SUN. 1887.

A. S. ABELL & Co., Publishers,
BALTIMORE.
The Paper For The People.

On the 17th of May, 1887, the Baltimore Sun will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary. From the earliest period of its career the Sun has been a "household word" in the homes of its subscribers, and a synonym for accuracy of statement, fair dealing, promptness, energy and enterprise in the collection of news. It is noted throughout the country for the independence, conservatism and thoughtfulness of its editorial utterances. There is probably no newspaper in the United States whose opinion carries more weight or whose influence is more widely extended than the Sun's, a fact upon which it may justly pride itself as the legitimate result of painstaking care in the preparation of all matter admitted to its columns. The Sun's facilities for collecting news from all quarters of the globe are being constantly extended and improved, and new features are added without regard to expense as the occasion demands.

The Baltimore Weekly Sun has long occupied an enviable position as a daily family newspaper containing not only the news of the world and a variety of literary matter and miscellany, but also reading for the family circle. Its special features of recognized value, including an agricultural department, which supplies every week a mass of well selected information for the people.

Full commercial, market, and stock reports up to the hour of going to press.

Terms of subscription: in advance, annual $5.00; six months $3.00; three months $2.00; one month $1.00. On week days, two months $1.00.

To Europe and other postal union countries, 25 cents per month.

As an advertising medium its value is, of course, in proportion to its immense circulation.

Fairly steady.
This was the term used to describe the character of a young man, not long ago, concerning whose conduct in a certain matter grave suspicions were entertained.

Character, like a chain, needs to be carefully wrought in every part, for it is no stronger than its weakest point, and when the test comes, only its all round perfection enables the whole structure to escape overthrow.

A WARNING TO GIRLS
"Young lady, will you accept the protection of my umbrella?" This is what a young man said to a girl eighteen years of age, whom he met in the street one rainy night lately. She accepted, his escort, and when they parted an episode happened which brought them both to the Tombs Police Court the next morning. She claimed that in shaking hands in parting he took her gold ring, valued at $1,500, from her finger. He says that the ring dropped off her finger and was lost in the darkness. He was held in $1,000 bail.—Evening Telegram.

Parental Authority.
There is one thing I wish to speak of, and that is in regard to interfering between a parent's authority and the child. How often have I seen a child crying for something the mother saw best to deny it, when some one present would say, "Oh, do let the child have it," and the mother would yield rather than offend the friend. The next time company came the child was ready to try the same experiment, and soon it understood that when company was present it could do as it pleased, and the same visitors that helped break the mother's authority will say they do not like to go there, for the children behave so badly.

The foundation of domestic happiness is faith in the virtue of woman. The foundation of political happiness is faith in the integrity of man. The foundation of all happiness, temporal and eternal, is faith in the goodness, the mercy, and the love of God.

A young physician asking permission of a lass to kiss her, she replied: "No, sir; I never like a doctor's bill stuck in my face."

A defaulter, on having his frauds exposed, committed suicide, and the verdict of the coroner's jury was: "Died from exposure."
