About two o'clock yesterday morning New Berne was visited by a good shower of rain with some wind from the southwest. About the time the rain ceased the wind shifted to the north east and blew a storm from that time until sunrise.

Mrs. Judge Manly's residence on East Front street received the full force of the storm as it swept across Neuse river. A chency tree in the yard and one on the sidewalk were uprooted, and several large limbs of a willow tree were wrung off and fell across a tenanthouse on the same lot, mashing in the shingles somewhat but doing serious damage. Craven street was strewn with limbs; a large maple on

Johnson street, in front of the Baptist parsonage, was uprooted; an otshsite two and a half feet in diameter stand ing in front of Mr. Charles Slover's residence on Union street was snapped off just under the ground and thrown across the yard fence smashing it down;

East Front was literally blocksded with known. limbs and uprooted trees there being four or five of the latter; the large willow on the sidewalk at Willie's marble yard was blown over and its top branches made to kiss mother earth, but it has been partially straightened and propped with the hope of saving it, opposite this in Mr. A. H. Holton's yard a fine willow was blown down; on South Front street some ten or a dozen South Front, yesterday evening, and so trees are uprooted, completely block completely blockaded the street that ading the street in some places. the Mirshal had to take his force down The damage to trees seems to be mostly on the streets running east and west.

On Pollock the tree in front of Major Hughes' office went down, and between Middle and Hanoock streets five were torn up by the roots. On Neuse street a large oak standing in the southeast corner of the Roberts building lot gave way to the storme fury and barely missed the building. On Johnson street large othesite in Mrs. Soott's yard came, down, smashing about twenty yards of the wall, and on the same street in front of Mr. John Lane's realdence another large one was uprocted.

A fine willow in front of Mr. John. Dunn's meidence on Middle mane was ployed for a day two.

The steamer Kinston started out early for Kinston but was blown across Neuse river where she remained until the storm subsided and then proceeded. The tide was well up the streets but the
