High tide yesterday.

' h. Prag gives, a "special notice" in our advertising columns of interest to the people.

The weather had a stormy appearance yesterday. The tide here lacked only eighteen or twenty inches being as high States. We cannot understand why as last Baturday morning.

Elsewhere in this issue will be found something of interest to those interested paragraph: in the French spoliation claims. It is rather stale news but as there are many people in this community interested in the matter we think it not too late to let them have it.

The Baker wrecking schooner arrived to the relief of the steamer Eaglet but arriving at Gum Thicket her foremast head and main topsail were carried away and she put back here for repairs. Mr. Manix, the assistant agent of the line is of the opinion that the high tide yesterday enabled the Eaglet to float and that she is on her way to Elizabeth City. The Annie and the tug Taylor are swaiting the arrival of the dredge Doat:

The South's War History.

The Goldsboro Argus gets off the following bit of good sense which meets our unqualified approval. The Jour-NAL has seen proper to enter its protest more than once against the use of school histories in our schools, both private and public, that teach our children that we were traitors and inferior, in the qualities that make up a true soldier and citizen, to the soldiers of the Federal army during the war between the such stuff as history, But to the Argus' that should desire to see the South's war tician. history correctly written and in an equitable tenor should not give circulation, either in their columns proper or by way of 'supplement,' to the 'patent stuff' that is sent out from the North replete with inaccuracies, bubvesterday from Norfolk. She started bling with bilious prejudice and biased as the narrow mands that fabricate such saderable distance, stopping the running literary (?) monetrocities. If the South of trains. is to be put right before the world and her valor, heroism and glory maintained in the eyes of the generations yet to come, it is for her educated sons to see that no pecuniary writings from northern pens are allowed to be circulated throughout our homes for our children to read while we stand silently by. This subject is too vast and too important for discussion in a local brief. We shall refer to it more fully anon.

We Are For The Extension.

If anyone wants to arouse an interest in the A. & N. C. R. in New Berne let him suggest the sale of Craven county's stock. If he approves a sale at a price way above the market value, it is immediately discovered that the stock has become very valuable, and is rapidly advancing in price. Of course the discoverer of such wonders is opposed to selling unless more can be had. The story we published a year or two ago of a man who had a blind mule for sale in anti-Home Club men, and are opposed her obligations under the Berlin treaty, plicable in such cases.

In suggesting that twenty dollars per stock we do not mean that the county a fire insurance policy of $1,000 in the ter of Arts of the University of Arts unty is carrying and the present protpects of its stock to pay a dividend it clothing was so effensive that it had merty of the University, says of him would do well to sell at these figures. been desposited at the offal dock. specially if a guarantee for the extentory building in order for a grist mill sion of the road is to be given. A sale which he purchased in the city. It is at $20.00 per share would enable the thought he will be able to start up to county to reduce its indebtedness near the county would simply prefer paying $1,800 a year for the privilege of owning stock in a railroad that does not pay it one cent, and, without an extension of the road and getting new business, there is no prospect of its ever being worth a dollar to the people who are burdened with heavy taxes to pay for it.
