The county commissioners will be in session tomorrow.

The thermometer registered 90° yesterday proving that the warm weather is not exactly over with yet.

The hour's delay of the mail train Friday night was caused by the breaking of an eccentric about the engine four miles this side of Goldsboro.

Our citizens are gradually getting back from the different places they have been during the summer to once again fill their places of duty the fall and winter work demand.

Already the weather is beginning to feel somewhat fall-like. The straw hat must be put aside; the white dress folded and put away, and last, but not least, the swinging on the gate is nearing its end.

Mr. Dan Jones, of the firm of Howard & Jones, has gone North to select their stock of goods. These gentlemen deal exclusively in goods furnishing goods which they have given study and make a specialty of.

From a private letter we see that Master Shepard Bryan had no trouble in passing examination for entrance at the State University. He is one of New Berne's bright and genteel young men and will surely make a good record.

We publish today from the Raleigh News an interesting sketch of the late Judge Manly. It is one of a series of "Reminiscences of Great Lawyers," by a contributor to the columns of the News and Observer and will be read with pleasure by many people in this section and the State at large.

We are glad to know that among the large number of shade trees blown down during the storm there was none of our mistle elms numbered among them. This goes to show the hardiness of the elm and its capability of withstanding heavy blows. Not only for its enduring qualities, beauty, and grace, but in keeping with the name, "The City of Elms," this tree should not be overlooked in transplanting.

Arrivals at Hotel Albert.

F. H. Savage, Norfolk; Henry A. Tolbert and wife, Barnegat, N. J.; Wm. Sabiston, Jr., Beaufort; Wm. M. Chaney, Washington, N. C.; M. C. Hewyitt, Detroit, Mich.; T. E. Powell, wife and three children, Md.; L. J. Moore, F. W. Hughes, W. C. Hughes, Alex. Justice, city.

The Outlook.

All the incoming steamers are heavy laden with immense quantities of freight, principally goods for our merchants. From the large amount we feel sure that the business men are in anticipation of a good trade this fall which we wish may be fully realized. We were not long since informed by a merchant that he had done business in a good many different places, but goods were sold in closer figures in New Berne than anywhere he had been. A good many of our stores have been overhauled and remodeled and give an attractive and inviting appearance, and the arrangement, display and manner of beautifying the show windows and along the counters that meets the eye of the passer from the street, evinces a taste of excellence that must be conceded to most of our business houses.

No War With Each Other.

Our esteemed contemporary, the New Berne JOURNAL, in its issue of yesterday is filled with communications touching the railroad lines that do, or will in the near future, enter that city. The two interests as therein advocated, though, seem to be at war with each other. A connection with the C. F. & Y. V. seems advisable, on the ground that it will aid in making Beaufort and Morehead City important seaport towns. While the other scheme, that of building a road from Wilmington to New Berne would, if the correspondent is correct in his conclusions, aid in making Wilmington a great seaport town, and use New Berne as a feeder, a kind of collector of merchandise for the great port of Wilmington. If an interested party might be allowed to give a little friendly advice, we would say to New Berne, go your last dollar on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. extension; and if the other comes, why make the most of it—Goldsboro Argus.

Thanks for the advice, and for favorable words spoken in behalf of the connection with the C. F. & Y. V. But we see no reason why the two schemes should be at war with each other. A railroad from New Berne to Wilmington would aid perhaps as much as the C. F. & Y. V. in making New Berne the centre of the corn trade, as Col. Hall showed in his communication to the Messenger, and would aid Wilmington in securing this corn and other grain at a much lower freight than it now pays. Does the Argus know the fact that a large share of the corn shipped from Hyde and the Northeast counties finds its way to Wilmington, Raleigh and other portions of North Carolina by a circuitous route through Virginia? Let us show how it works: When Best had the A. & N. C. R. he secured a rate, by some means or other, we know not how, on corn from New Berne to Raleigh for nine cents per hundred pounds, and proportionately to other points. As long as this rate remained corn poured into New Berne so rapidly that Best could not take it off fast enough. With that rate our docks were continually crowded with corn boats; our dealers were able to handle nearly all corn from Hyde and the Northeast counties. But about the time Best had to give up the road the rate was put up to fifteen cents per hundred pounds, and the trade was driven in another direction.

We want the A. & N. C. R. and the C. F. & Y. V. brought together and put under one management, believing that it would divert the corn trade of our Eastern counties in this direction. A road to Wilmington would do the same thing. These roads would help New Berne in the coast trade, and the C. F. & Y. V. could build an export trade at Morehead City.

Cutting Affray at Kinaton.

Yesterday evening Mr. Daniel G. Taylor of Lousin Swamp, Lenoir county and a colored man named Simon Sutton from the same neighborhood were at Kinaton and had some words about an account which Sutton claimed that Mr. Taylor owed him. He used some very offensive and abusive language toward Mr. Taylor which Mr. Taylor resented with a blow when Sutton drew his knife and stabbed him in the left side, the knife going about two inches deep. Parties rushed in and separated the two. Sutton was arrested and it was found that he had a loaded pistol. He was lodged in jail to await a hearing which will be held as soon as Mr. Taylor is able to attend trial. Dr. Hyatt examined his wound and reported it not dangerous.

Personal.

Mr. W. K. Boyd left for Durham yesterday on a visit to his daughter Mrs. J. W. Webb.
Mr. S. G. Roberts, Capt. K. R. Jones, Capt. Alex. Miller and Mr. John Dunn returned from New York and Baltimore last night. The two Captains visited a Brooklyn lodge, Knights of Honor and were royally treated, doubly so when the Brooklyn boys learned that they were Captains in the Confederate Army.
Thos. Daniels, Esq., made a business trip to Goldsboro yesterday and returned last night.
W. F. Roundtree, Esq., left for High Point yesterday morning, where his family has been spending the summer.
Capt. E. W. Wahab and Mr. Spencer of Swan Quarter, Hyde county, left yesterday morning for New York to purchase goods.
Mr. A. M. Baker left for New York yesterday morning to lay in his usual attractive stock of goods.

Stonewall Items.

The majority against issuing bonds is upwards of 300, and a very light vote at that.
On the 18th ult., at the residence of the bride's father, Nat Potter, on Goose Creek Island, Miss Hannah Potter and Mr. Charley Weskett were married.
On the 31st ult. J. B. Ferebee and others in the cart had a little runaway. His mule took fright at a hat and was not long in unloading the pile. Not much damage.
Haze Gaskins had the good luck to kill a corn thief that had been robbing his field of roasting ears for some time. He put a tiled gun on watch, and next morning there the thief lay dead. It was a bear.
On last Friday Shem, the little son of O. D. Lewis, aged about twelve years, died at his home of hemorrhagic fever. Truly a bright and clever little boy passed over the river. Bob has the sympathies of all who know him.
John P. Cowell, W. H. Sawyer of Bayboro, and O. H. Fowler and S. W. Ferebee of this place, have gone north to lay in their winter stock of merchandise. S. W. Ferebee has opened a mercantile business in the F. F. Cherry stand.
On the 27th ult. we had one of the heaviest rainfalls for the time it was falling that has afflicted us this season. I had a common painted bucket sitting in the yard and it was fully half full when the rain ceased. Every bridge and every thing that could be submerged and washed up was in a dilapidated condition.
On last Sunday Sid. J. Lane, accompanied by Miss Mollie Armstrong, let his horse get the advantage of him, threw them both out of the buggy and left them to take private conveyance. After awhile they found the horse and buggy all right, so they changed their mode of travel. No damage done, only some one was frightened. When a fellow has a runaway horse he had best be a little careful who holds the strings.
Nathan Tetterton, the mail carrier, from here to Baird's creek, got mail, cart, horse and self in Orchard creek near S. B. Lane's, and if it had not been for the assistance of William and John Lane he would have lost his horse and self too, so he says. The carrier to our place did not deliver the mail at this office, still no one was hindered by the bridge being afloat. Mr. Jno. A. Lupton passed over the bridge at the highest stage of the water and carried a wagon load of lumber to Bayboro.

What True Kertt Will Do.

The unprecedented sale of Boecher's German Syrup within a few years, has astonished the world. It is without doubt the safest and best remedy ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds, and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by Physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system; but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the diseases make their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. Price, 75 cts., large bottles.

Important to Fishermen.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—While on the Delaware river in June making an examination of the sturgeon fishery, I observed that the nets, when brought in, were put to soak in lime wash. Inquiry led to the discovery that the nets were treated in this way to free them of slime. I think a trial of it here would lead to the adoption of their practice. Their nets, which are of cotton, are preserved through five seasons of fishing, when so treated, even though used in the warm months of May, June, August and September. The waters fished by them, vary from fresh to salt, just as on the Neuse here and the relative conditions being the same, the practice in these muddier waters would carry an economic value. A thin wash is poured over the wet net, piled in bulk in the stern of boat and is left to soak into the net over night. When the net is laid out for fishing next day the waters cut all lime and filth out in a few seconds. These little things make the profits of the Northern fishermen.

A Night of Anxiety in Charleston.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 1.—There is general rejoicing in Charleston today. The weather is bright and bracing, and the city seems as if a great weight had been lifted from it. The anniversary of the earthquake passed off without a single shake. Very few people in the city slept last night the repetition of the shock on the 27th, and several shocks afterwards, looked very much like there was to be a repetition of the disaster of August 31, 1886. Most of the colored people spent the night in churches or in open air religious meetings. The streets were deserted before 10 p. m., and very few white people went to bed at all, most of them sitting up the entire night. Charleston is now entirely rebuilt, over $4,500,000 having been expended in building in twelve months, and a very cheerful feeling now prevails. The prospects of the crops are splendid and everything indicates a big business boom.

Jefferson Davis to Visit Macon, Ga.

MACON, GA., Sept. 1.—Ex President Jefferson Davis has accepted the invitation to attend the State fair in Macon on October 28. On that day there will be a grand reunion of all the surviving ex-Confederate soldiers who can get here. Mr. Davis is suffering a little from the wound he received in his foot in the Mexican war. The grandest reception ever given in the entire country will be given ex-President Davis. The city will be decorated profusely and the main street intersections will be covered with arches. This will probably be the last appearance of Mr. Davis before the largest gathering of ex-Confederate soldiers, and will be made historical in the South. Many old soldiers have already written for the entrance of the names of their regiments to join in the grand reunion.

A North Carolina History—Names Suggested by the Sanford Express.

Col. Saunders or Mrs. Spencer either would write a very admirable history. There are perhaps others that could do well in this, John N. Long, Esq., of New Berne, is very eloquent, fascinating and graphic in his pictures of men and things of the past, and his memory is as full of the past fifty years as an egg shell is full of meat. Col. Alfred M. Waddell would mark halcyon days with guided glory. He is an easy and vigorous writer of facts and a devout student of history. We have said North Carolina has no well written history. The last effort is a dull, stupid affair, without charm. It is nothing but a book of dry bones, a disjointed skeleton of a great body whose flesh and blood the author never conceived and whose soul he must have doubted the existence of.

Delicate persons, and all whose systems have become debilitated, should bear in mind that Simmons' Liver Regulator is not a drastic, purgative medicine, does not weaken or deplete the system as other purgatives do, but acts gently. It will invigorate like a glass of wine, but is no intoxicating beverage to lead to intemperance; will promote digestion, dissipate headache, and generally tone up the system.

Hon. Alex. H. Stephens of Ga., says "Simmons' Liver Regulator is mild and suits me better than more active remedies."

Yellow Fever at Key West.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—A dispatch from Key West, Fla., received at the office of the marine hospital service today states that the number of cases of yellow fever reported up to September 1 was 27, and the number of deaths 68, an increase of 17 cases and 9 deaths in the past nine days. The situation is regarded as slightly favorable, since the mortality is, on the whole, comparatively low as yet. The new cases are almost confined to children.

From Austin (Tex.) Statesman.

The effect of Hawkes' Crystallized Lenses upon the organs of vision is simply wonderful, as there are several prominent gentlemen in the Land Office whose sight has been restored by their use, and hundreds of similar cases throughout the United States can be referred to.
All eyes fitted and the fit guaranteed at the drug store of F. S. Duffy, New Berne.

The Fisheries Commission.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Until officially advised of the appointment of negotiators by the British government to consider the questions in dispute between the United States and Great Britain relative to the Canadian fisheries, it is probable that no selection will be made of representatives of the United States government. It is believed that the first conference will be held some time during this fall or next winter. The place of meeting has not yet been decided upon, but the indications are that the negotiators will meet first in Washington and then proceed to Halifax.

Fell from a Balloon.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 1.—A special from Princeton, Mo., says—"At the Mercer county fair yesterday afternoon Randall Blakeslee, a half-breed Indian, made a balloon ascension hanging to a trapeze bar. In the ascent the balloon shot up suddenly, giving Blakeslee a wrench, and he was unable to pull himself up by a loop which he had drawn around his wrist. After traveling about a mile and a half, reaching the altitude of 2,000 feet, the balloon began to descend, but the poor fellow's strength gave out, and when within 500 feet of the earth his grip relaxed and he fell to the earth, lighting on his feet in a cornfield, his thighs being broken and driven into the trunk of his body."
