BALTIMORE. The Paper For The People.

On the 17th of May, 1887, the Baltimore Sun will celebrate its fiftieth anniversary. From the earliest period of its career the Sun has been a "household word" in the homes of its subscribers, and a synonym for accuracy of statement, fair deuling, promptness, energy and enterprise in the collection of news. It is noted throughout the country for the independence, conservatism and thoughtfulness of its editorial utterances. There is probably no newspaper in the United States whose opinion carries more weight or whose influence is more widely extended that the Sun's, a fact apon, which is may justly pride itself as the legitimate result of painstaking care in the preparation of all matter admitted to its columns. The Sun's facilities for collecting news from all quarters of the globe are being constantly extended and in-proved, and new features are added without regard to expense as the occusion demands. 1 The Baltimore Weekly Sun has long occupied an enviable position ... a model family newspaper, containing not only the news of the world and variety of literary matter and misc. lancous reading for the family circle, but special features of recognized value, including an agricultural department, which supplies every week a mass of well digressed informs. The Dead Alive.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6 .- A Times Chattaneoga, Tenn., special says; Several years ago Martin Polk robbed the State treasury of Tennessee of several hundred thousand dollars while serving as State treasurer. He fied but was subsequently arrested and returned to Nashville. In due time he was reported to have sickened and died. His body was shipped from Nashville to Bohvar, Tennessee, where it was buried. Now comes news that one Gamble, a prominent citizen of Anniston, Ala.. has just retrned home from an extended visit in the city of Mexico, and while there be met Polk on the street and talked with him. He made further investigations and found Polk in business in that city. The affair has created no little excitement in this part of the State. Gamble was well nequainted with Polk while he was treasueer of this State.
