ready for business. See "ad." in today's issue.

The machinery for the ice factory arrived on the steamer Newberne yesterday morning and will be put in position immediately.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. will remember that tomorrow night is the time for the election of officers for the ensuing year. All are earnestly requested to be present.

Mr. James Doyle was in the city yesterday posting bills for the State Fair.
He went down to Morehead City and Beaufort on Tuesday night, posted the towns during the night and returned here yesterday morning.

The State Fair.
We are indebted to Secretary John Nichols for tickets of admission to the Fair grounds and refreshment hall during Fair week. The Fair opens on the 18th of October and closes on the 21st.
The railroads are offering lower rates this year than ever before; one cent per mile each way is cheap enough for any one to go to the Fair.

Log Broken.
Yesterday morning while Weaver Shade, coal, a stevedore on the Old Dominion wharf, was assisting in unloading the steamer Newberne, a large iron wheel of the ice factory machinery that was being rolled on the wharf was allowed to fall and strike his left leg, which broke it just above the ankle and broke him badly in several other places. He was taken to Dr. Duffy's office for treatment and afterward sent to his home.

Personal.
Dr. W. J. Mumford, chairman of the board of commissioners of Onslow county arrived yesterday evening. He says action on ordering the election for subscription to the Wilmington and Onslow railroad was postponed in order to give the New Berne and Wilmington lines to consolidate their schemes.

Clement Manly, Esq., has returned from a trip to Hot Springs and Virginia and is much improved by the trip. He is ready to meet the fall courts with his usual vigor and strength.

O. H. Guion, Esq., with Mrs. Guion, are on a visit to Washington, N. C.

Steamer Movements.
The Defiance of the Clyde line left yesterday for Baltimore with a cargo of cotton and naval stores.
The Newberne of the O. D. line left yesterday at noon for Norfolk with a cargo of cotton.

The Kingston of the N. & T. R. line left for Jelly Old Field with general merchandise.

The Vesper of the E. C. D. Line sailed yesterday afternoon direct for Wilmington, Del. with cargo of lumber. The Kings of the line sailed yesterday afternoon with full cargo of cotton and lumber for New York City. The Eagle will arrive tomorrow morning from E. City.

Farewell Elm City.
The steamer Defiance went out yesterday with a cargo of cotton and the steamer Elm City in tow. The steamers in the docks all gave the Elm City a parting salute as she glided out, perhaps for the last time from this port.
She arrived here on the 11th of January, 1888, and has proved a very poor investment for her stockholders.
May she and her original stockholders have better luck in the future.

The Lenoir.
The following is from the Baltimore Sun of Monday.

The new light-draught composite steamer Lenoir, (known as No. 46) built by Wm. E. Woodall & Co. for the Clyde Steamship Company, made a satisfactory trial trip on Saturday. She is now at Light-street wharf receiving the furniture and outfit. The vessel is named after Lenoir county, N. C., and is intended for freight and passenger service between Newberne and Kinston, on the Neuse river. The Lenoir is 112 feet long, 26 feet beam and 5 feet depth of hold, and will have a mean draught of 18 inches. Messrs. Charles Reeder & Sons built the engine, which is 14 by 14 inches, high pressure type, and also the boiler, which is of steel and iron.

On the Right Line.

The communication from "Concord" is timely and on the right track. We can point to an enterprise that has been lost to New Berne for lack of harmony and business push, but it is no use to look back and tell what might have been. Let us look forward and seize other opportunities to advance the material interest of our city. The development of a large section of country depends a good deal upon the growth and thrift of New Berne. Our business men who are now upon the stage of action will be held responsible if this fine old town with her many natural advantages should go backward. Let us unite upon a business scheme that is most likely to advance our immediate interest and stick to it until it is accomplished.

The Onslow Railroad.

At a meeting of the Cotton and Grain Exchange, held last evening, a resolution was adopted to appoint a committee of five to meet, with other citizens of our town, representatives of the Wilmington and Onslow Railroad at Jacksonville, on the first Monday in October, to consult about the propriety of consolidating the schemes to build a railroad, or come to some understanding whereby concert of action can be had in asking Onslow to vote a subscription to the two enterprises.
The resolution was passed unanimously and the President was granted time to select the committee. The meeting was harmonious and there seemed to be a general feeling of interest in an onward movement. A strong representation, representing every interest of the city and county should go to Jacksonville next Monday. Other matters of importance were discussed by the meeting, which we hope will receive more attention in the near future.

The Oyster Fair.

We have a letter from the commissioner of immigration, J. T. Patrick, (in which he endorses the idea of holding an oyster fair at New Berne this winter.
He offers to aid us in the enterprise and will do so by securing low excursion rates from New York and Baltimore.

The State is now making an effort to develop its oyster industry, and an oyster exhibit at New Berne this winter would be the thing to give it a boom.
If properly advertised, scores of oyster growers from New York and Baltimore and other points North would be here, and we could show them oysters grown on the bottoms of Far creek, Broad creek, Core sound, of Carteret county and New river that would compare favorably with the best grown anywhere.

We have now hotel accommodations that will suit all classes. To the oyster exhibit might be added other industrial exhibits and thus make up a first class Fair. The interest now being manifested in the culture of the oyster demands a Fair of this sort and if New Berne don't inaugurate it some other town will.
We have the advantage in location, and must have the fair this winter.

A Fifty Million Mortgage.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Sept. 28.—A mortgage for fifty million dollars against the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey and in favor of the Central Trust Company of New York was filed here today in the office of the recorder of deeds for Luzerne county. It was dated July 1, 1887, and is to run one hundred years, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent. This is the largest mortgage ever recorded in this county.

The Strength of Unity—The Weakness of Dissensions.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—While it is impossible for an editor to please every one, and I am candid enough to say you have sometimes done things and omitted others that would justly subject you to unfavorable criticism, I will send you a word of encouragement for the spirit of reconciliation you evince and for the efforts you are making to bring about among the citizens of this region pleasant and profitable political relations and practical and beneficial business associations.
Not a meddler in politics I have observed its current and felt deeply interested in what has come before me in this county during the past eight or ten years, and with pain and regret the conviction is firm in my mind that faction and not party principles has given color to canvasses and influenced, for no good, political results. A Democrat from a firm belief in the great doctrine which that party has always advocated and sustained, let no one suppose that mere temporary expediency, or what might be so regarded could for a moment cause any deviation from the strictest construction and vigorous application of its fundamental principles when national issues are involved or basic law is established or executed.

But local interests, the desire to win convert to the Democratic party, because of its principles, the hearty wish for intelligent and honest administration in home affairs may well justify a latitude of action which works for general good, and the great improvement of present and past conditions.
And in this connection the firmest political associates may for a time find themselves momentarily separated upon individual honest convictions as to the wisest course, but an amicable treatment of such diversity of opinion should not disrupt either political affiliations or friendly associations. The candid must regretfully acknowledge that both species of relations between some of our citizens have been strained and are still unadjusted to that even balance which should mark the patriotic and useful citizen. Let us hope that all feeling inconsistent with manly firmness and which cannot work for harmony among us may disappear as the vapors of malaria before the bracing breezes that soon shall put physical energy into our frames.

Observant of men and things I have watched the material concerns in our midst and compared and contrasted them with those of other localities less blessed by nature and opportunity than this fair region of the Neuse and Trent and especially of this lovely old city New Berne. How do the more western places in our State so far outstripped us in material growth and prosperity? It needs no divine inspiration to point out the chief cause.
Among the citizens of such places as Durham, Winston and Asheville there has been a combination of strength.
Every individual uniting with every other when any enterprise has been suggested or started which had for its object the building up of the particular place or its neighboring interests.
Every one among them has acted upon the simple fact that combined will and effort in any direction must produce marked results. What has interested one has been felt as the interest of all, and all have united to prosper the interest of each. There is the plain lesson, learned and applied, and see what it has produced. Life, prosperity, growth, vigor and health. How is it here?
With pain and suffering have I seen a different spirit among us. If perchance some business has been proposed, some enterprise formed, discord, dissension, controversy, jealousy and malice have seemed to paralyze and destroy effort, and to decri and defame when not able to crush. Could I exorcise these demons of selfishness and drive them from the minds and hearts of our people, and replace them by the noble spirits of hope, faith and charity, of mutual assistance, encouragement and combined energy, a life of former activity, hope and peril would be gladly laid upon an altar which would bring the blessings of plenty and peace to so many of my fellow-citizens.

Be brave, Mr. Editor, to attack wrong, and have the courage to stay the torrent of passion by the calm front of dispassionate right, softened by the conservative goodness that marks the peace-maker. CONCORD.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant, Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold, attended with a distressing cough, and running into Consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it.

FOREIGN NEWS.

KAUFMANN'S UNLUCKY SHOT.

PARIS, Sept. 28.—The following details have been received concerning the shooting incident on the Franco-German frontier, near Haus-Sur-Pleine. On Saturday morning a party of five sportsmen and four beasters were following a path on French territory, seven yards from the frontier, when a person standing behind a clump of trees on the German side, 30 yards from the frontier, fired three shots at them.
The first bullet did not hit any one, but the second killed one of the beasters named Brignon, and the third severely wounded a gentleman named Wanger, a pupil at the Saumur Cavalry School.
The German officials declare that a German soldier named Kaufmann, who was detailed to assist the forest guards in preventing poaching, fired the shots.
Kaufmann affirms that he shouted three times for the party to halt before firing at them. He believed that they were German territory. The sportsmen declare that they heard nothing. The officials on both sides of the frontier are making inquiries into the shooting.

The Paris papers urge the people to regard the shooting as an act of the frontier with violence in order that the barriers the government has been erecting to prevent the free movement of goods and persons be removed.

Premier Rouvier said yesterday with the minister of foreign affairs, at the inter of justice in Paris, that the frontier incident after the receipt of the official report of the affair, and that was dated yesterday, he had been reporting the German government in the interest of the continuation of friendly relations to institute an inquiry into the affair without delay.

What True Merit Will Do.
The unappreciated side of a few years ago, Germany had a few years ago doubtless the safest and best means ever discovered for the speedy and effectual cure of Coughs, Colds, and the severest Lung troubles. It acts on an entirely different principle from the usual prescriptions given by physicians, as it does not dry up a Cough and leave the disease still in the system, but on the contrary removes the cause of the trouble, heals the parts affected and leaves them in a purely healthy condition. A bottle kept in the house for use when the disease makes their appearance, will save doctor's bills and a long spell of serious illness. A trial will convince you of these facts. It is positively sold by all druggists and general dealers in the land. BOTTLES, Large bottles

The Grand Army Meeting.

By order, Sept. 28. A national salute from Camp Washington heralded the first day of the Grand Army meeting, and aroused the army of visitors and the committee whose duties called them to the early train. A fine mist dispensed the atmosphere early this morning and gradually increased into a steady disagreeable rain. The first trains of the early morning brought more warriors, more visitors, and many children.

The West and South in their great crowds as steadily as the rain dropped, and Kansas, with its grasshopper badge, came on in force, joining Nebraska's corn-bagged fellows at the camp at Washington Park. The gray-haired warriors and sturdy farmers filed from the depots, with grips in hand and blankets thrown over their shoulders asking only for a tent, while the women and children tottered behind prepared for anything.

The Pacific slope had scarcely settled down before the nearer West, poured in with Colorado, Arkansas, New Mexico and Texas. Iowa and Missouri contingents reported many men, and announced the coming of thousands more. Several hundred have reported from Pennsylvania. Early in the morning Kentucky posts escorted by their department commander to his headquarters, and then moved out to the tented fields. Ohio, Indiana and Illinois quickly passed through the streets, seeking shelter and greeting friends and comrades. In the tents groups of men assembled, reviewing the past and drifting into war rambles. By noon the railroads had brought in ten thousand citizen soldiers.

University Address.

The Raleigh News and Observer says that Hon. Alfred M. Waddell, a graduate of the class of 1853, by invitation of the faculty will deliver an address at the University on the evening of October 8th on "America before Col-
