Obituary. In Washington, N. C., on the 9th day of October, 1887, after a brief illness, Mary Washington Blount, daughter of William Augustus and Mary W. Blount Again has death entered our midst and claimed as its victim a bright and accomplished young lady. Only a few short months since she was on a visit to the home of her childhood, in the vigor of life and usefulness. She was a graduate of St. Mary's, and many of her old schoolmates mingle their tears with those to whom she was nearest and dearest. It was indeed in her home circle that her unselfish devotion and untiring effort to contribute to the happiness of father, mother, brothers and sisters will cause an aching void that can never be filled in their pilgrimage through the vale of tears. Art thou weary, art thou languid,

Art thou sore distressed?
"Come to me," saith One, "and coming,
Be at rest."
