THE JOURNAL.

ALPHABETICAL ALLITERATION.

The below poem was taken from an old scrap book owned by a Georgia family. It is one of the most remarkable and perfect specimens of alliteration for in it is fathomed the whole alphabet, and each word in each line claims its proper initial.

An Austrian army, awfully arrayed, Boldly, by battery, besieged Belgrade Cossack commanders commanding Came,
Dealing destruction's devastating doom Every endeavor engineers essay For fame, for fortune, fighting furious fray.

Generals gained Generals' graces gracious God!
How honors Heaven, how harden infuriate—indiscriminate in all Kinemen kill kinemen—kinemen kill red kill

Labor low levels loathes—longest lines Men march and mounds, and maces and murderous mines
Now noisy numbers notice nought Of outward obstacles, opposing ought Poor patriots, partly purchased partly pressed.

Quite quaking, quaking quaking quest
Reason returns, reason's right redounds—Swarrow steps, such, serpentine sounds.

Truce to the Turk, truce to the trait!
Unwise, unjust, unmerciful wars Vanish, Van's victory, a victory van.

Why wish we warriors, wherefore welcome war?
Nerves, Nerves, Nerves, Nerves, Yield ye youths! Ye men, ye men, yield ye!

Zephyr's zephyr, Zephyr's zephyr,
And all attending, attend attend poal.

To Have Pretty Teeth.

To Paris Legato says that if you want your children believe pretty teeth you must begin with the second dentition to press down with the finger every morning the teeth which have a tendency to project forward and repeat upward those teeth backward. As a wash, boil in a tumbler of water a pinch of quassia wood with a pinch of pulverized camomile. It strengthens the gums and whitens the teeth without injuring the enamel which covers the bone. Wash the mouth after each meal with lukewarm boiled water.—New York Sun.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, druggist, Piquette, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hute, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at K. N. Day's drug store.

A lady who was visiting a penitentiary said sympathetically, as she gazed upon a hard looking felon: "He looks as if ardent spirits had a good deal to do with bringing him here." "You bet they did!" exclaimed the convict.
"The judge and jury that tried me were all drunk!"

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Bosch's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases.
No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it.
Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents.
Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists and dealers in the United States and Canada.
