THE JOURNAL.

Variety is the Spice of Life.
The mind of man is formed to desire and to relish variety. The objects with which he is conversant are varied without end, to gratify that desire and to correspond with that relish. The glare of a perpetual sunshine, and the fervid heat of a continual summer, would speedily oppress and destroy mankind; but relieved by the tranquillity of darkness, the freshness of spring, the sedateness of autumn, and even the gloom of winter, they become no less grateful than they are beneficial.—Exchange.
