Some Simple Remedies.

For a sore throat, cut slices of fat, boneless bacon, pepper thickly and tie around the throat with a flannel cloth.

When stung by a bee or a wasp, make a paste of common earth and water, put on the place at once and cover with a cloth.

For a cold on the chest, flannel rag rung out in boiling water and sprinkled with turpentine, laid on the chest, gives the greatest relief.

When a felon first begins to make its appearance, take a lemon, cut off one end, put the finger in, and the longer it is kept there the better.

For a cough, boil one ounce of flaxseed in a pint of water, strain and add a little honey, one ounce of rock candy, and the juice of three lemons; mix and boil well. Drink as hot as possible.

Often after cooking a meal a person will feel tired and have no appetite; for this beat a raw egg until light, stir in a little milk and sugar, and season with nutmeg. Drink half an hour before eating.

For a burn or scald, make a paste of common baking soda and water, apply at once and cover with a linen cloth. When the skin is broken, apply the white of an egg with a feather; this gives instant relief, as it keeps the air from the flesh.

At the first signs of a ring round, take a cupful of wood ashes, put in a pan with a quart of cold water, put the pan on the stove, put your finger in the pan, keep it there until the water begins to boil, or as long as it can be borne. Repeat once or twice if necessary.—L. L.

in Good Housekeeping.

Need of Hygiene.

Besides being well ventilated, our houses should be full of light and sunshine. Floors should be kept clean, and walls and ceilings frequently freshened. Sleeping rooms should be furnished with rugs instead of carpets, that they may be thoroughly cleaned each week. Chamber utensils and crockery should be kept scrupulously clean, and when possible the windows of sleeping rooms should be left open during the day and nearly or quite closed at night. In cold weather an opening of an inch at the top and bottom of a window is sufficient. Persons should never sit or sleep in a draught of air.

Every sleeping room should have outside windows, opening at top and bottom, and sunshine at some part of the day; also means of ventilation. It would be better for people to live in tents the whole year round than in some of the damp, dark places in which they are huddled in our cities, where are no possibilities of cleanliness or pure air.—Demorest's.

Mortgage Sale.

On MONDAY, DECEMBER 5th, 1887, at the Court House door in New Berne, Craven county, North Carolina, I will sell at Public Sale, for Cash, the land of P. Trenwith, consisting of about three hundred and twenty-five acres, with all the improvements thereon, situated in Craven county, a few miles below New Berne, and more fully described in a mortgage deed executed by P. Trenwith and Sarah F., his wife, and recorded in Register's Office in Craven county, N. C., Book No. 90, folios 894 and 895, to satisfy claims for which said mortgage was made.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
Craven County, }

Amanda Oglesby vs. George T. Oglesby: To George T. Oglesby: You are hereby notified that the plaintiff in the above entitled action has begun a suit against you for divorce on the ground of adultery in the Superior Court of Craven county, N. C., to be held at the court house in New Berne on the 4th Monday in November, 1887. And it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that you are a non-resident of the State of North Carolina, you are hereby notified to appear at said court and answer or demur to said complaint as you may be advised.

Witness my hand and seal this 15th day of October, 1887.

notary at law, Clerk of Sup. Ct., Craven Co.

DEAR SUSANA—

Well I do declare if it don't beat the world what a mighty sight of things Allie Baker has got in his store. I said in my last letter to you that I was going down there.

Well I have been and got back. You know I saw in my dater Merinda's paper that Allie Baker had had a tussel with a man and cut him intoo. So the first thing I did was to ax Baker about it. Well what do you think it was? Why, bless you, 'twas that Baker had cut his prices all to pieces. No more hi prices in his store. He showed me his goods and I just tell you he is show nuff selling them at half price. Why every body I met said go to Baker's; his prices are low. I got a pair of those kid top buttoned Shoes for one dollar and a half. They are beauties. He has lots more of them. The ones I got are number three's, but my old man says they are thirteen's, becuz it says inside the shoe one three, 13, cent. I read, Don't that mean one pair of three's, of course it does.

While there I looked all over his store and saw lots of new fangled things. I see a big sign that said seascucker for 10c. I giv Joe Holland the beach clerk ten cents and told him I guessed I'd look at the chap. I had often heard tell on suckers, but never seen a real live one cep't 'it was a fish. You ought to have seen Joe and then Crowder grin. Come to find out it was the name of a new kind of gingham for dresses at ten cents per yard. I come nigh loosing my parson what I bought before the war there was such a crowd a pushing and a seronging up to a counter what they were selling a fine lot of beautiful worsted for dresses at ten and twelve cents per yard. I had a fine time at that counter, kept Sam Hill, a little fellow at Baker's, one hour showing me the whole lot. I had most made up my mind to buy a half yard to kinder fix up my brown dress with and to put some on my bonnet, but I knowed my old man would say I was gittin' giddy, so I axed the dear little Sammie for a sample. He gave me one and then he sighed. I dont know what for, perhaps he did not know I was married and he had fallen in love with me; cant tell. I am going to buy one of those Treco dresses sure just as soon as I sell my dried berries.

I dont think there can be much warmth in those new striped cotton shawls they call Hummucks I see in other stores. Suppose they are stylish but that is all some wimen care for, but I don't, so I bought one of those all wool shawls very cheap at Baker's.

Well I guess I must close this letter so good buy. My gal Marinda and her new baby is coming to see me next week, and I just want to surprise them both at the array of bargains I bought at Baker's. I am just going to tell her when she wants to buy not to forget that Baker's goods war so cheap, if she dont mind she will be so surprised at the low prices she will almost swallow her teeth. That now I must go and milk the cow, so tra la, dont forget I trade at Baker's.

Your loving aunt,

POLLY ANN.

CONSTIPATION

is called the "Father of Diseases" because it often attacks the system as by the stealth of a poisonous gas, in the retention of feces, and effete matter in the stomach and bowels. It is caused by a Torpid Liver, and is generally accompanied with the following symptoms:

Loss of Appetite,
Sick Headache,
Bad Breath, etc.

The treatment of Constipation does not consist merely in unloading the bowels. The medicine must not only act as a purgative, but be tonic as well, and not produce after the use greater constiveness. To secure a regular habit of body without changing the food, or by organizing the system.

No attention after suffering from Constipation for two or three years was paid to the medicine. I tried many other remedies, but they all failed. I tried Dr. J. C. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, and after using them for some time I experienced relief. I had done the best I could, but I had not tried Simmons' Liver Regulator. I had not experienced relief until I had used it. I had not experienced relief until I had used it. I had not experienced relief until I had used it.
