THE JOURNAL.

The largest retail store in the United States has just been opened in Brooklyn. It is stocked in a curious way. A Fulton street candy man sells the candy, a Broadway (New York) Japanese concern sells the bric-a-brac, a New York shoe house sells the shoes, and so it goes. The owners of the store sell nothing but the dry goods, and the rest of the concern is made up of two score separate establishments, which pay a commission or rental to the owners.

Enjoy Life.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glens and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better than in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up, disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Constipation, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles 10 cents. Try it.

He that has energy enough in his constitution to root out a vice, should go a little further, and try to plant a virtue in its place, otherwise he will have his labor to renew; a strong soil that has produced weeds, may be made to produce wheat, with far less difficulty than it would cost to produce nothing.

One lap (the mother's) for the well baby in daytime. About 700 laps of the bedroom floor at night for the happy (?) father unless he has a bottle of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup to ease the little sufferer.

A constipated habit of the body and all of its pernicious effects are quickly removed by Laxador, the great regulator. Price only 25 cents.

Mrs. William Wright, of New Castle, Ind recently gave birth to four children, making in all a family of fourteen children, including five pairs of twins. Let's see. Who was it said he'd rather be Wright than be President? We wouldn't.

Mr. William Crooke was walking down street the other day. He had a boll on his leg as big as a walnut Mr. T. H. Muns who is very fond of practical joking thought he'd play a joke on Mr. Crooke so he slid noisily up behind him grabbed him by the boll and imitated the bark of a dog Bow bow bow! Mr. William Crooke has a long foot he pointed it at Mr. Muns most a dozen times and then he gave him one for good measure Mr. Muns went home looking as if he had been scalped wrong and Mr. Crooke went down to his office with his leg over his shoulder with his face as wry as a loaf of that kind of bread little mistakes like these are liable to occur at any time but one thing a man can do that will not be no mistake is to call at A. M. Baker and buy one of those elegant Cloaks that he has so cheap; take one home to your Wife it will be economy.

NEW WAY TO CURE A BALKY HORSE.—If your Horse is disposed to lay down on the street or to balk don't get mad and hammer the sullen brute; don't hold his nose or put a handful of gravel in his ear; no no not that; simply lean over and whisper in his ear; the old nag if he notices it at all, ought to get up in an instant and never stop until he pulls up in front of one of our dry goods stores. All you must say to the Horse is this, tell him they are selling ladies Cloaks at way down prices at Baker's store, if the Horse don't notice the whisper then rest assured that this remedy is no good but it is a fact that A. M. Baker has a lovely lot of fall and winter goods that he is selling cheap and that in the stock is some handsome Cloaks

A. M. BAKER.—Dear Sir—I thank you sincerely for fitting and suiting me so nicely completely and cheaply in the Cloak that my husband bought of you when he was in New Bern; he saved so much money in the purchase that he got me a Bonnet; he says the cloak fits me as a coat that he fairly pants to see me parade the streets of New Bern with him in this new attire which suits him entirely and fits that he is sure there is no one any where that can sell better goods for so little money as you do; I intend to Collar and Cuff him if he don't buy from you regularly. For I am determined he shall invest hereafter at the cheapest and best place in the City.

Gracefully Yours

M. K. BLANK.

"Marier! Marier!" yelled an excited farmer, the other day, as he rushed out of Baker's store where goods are sold so cheap. "Dump out those Taters and make room!" "What for," said she. "Why," said he. "I am going to buy a whole lot of Cloaks and put them away as an investment. I find the prettiest, handsomest and the most Stylish lot of Cloaks here that I have ever seen in this town and they are at only half price. Really I have never seen any thing to reach them." "Well, but they may go down, John," said she. "Down! let them go down, the goods in them cloak's are worth the money."

"Susan, my daughter, I fear you are getting reckless. You have had two cloaks this fall already and you only had one last winter. What is the cause?" Well, father, you see Baker has just received a brand new lot of the loveliest wraps of all kinds, and he is selling them at half price, so I bought both of these lovely things for what one would have cost, last year."

Have you heard the latest. Well the latest piece of really good news is that A. M. Baker has one of the loveliest stock of really nice new Stylish and handsome Cloaks ever brought to this city go and look at them whether you want to buy or not take your friends and every body go and look at those Cloaks.

This catches your Eye does it well if you will call at A. M. Baker's and see that elegant stock of Cloaks he has there you will be surprised and pleased to.

The Lady who attracted the most attention on the streets today and was the best dressed and the prettiest in every way got her dressgoods and wrap from A. M. Baker.

What Boots it if I Shoes to buy bargains," said a delighted Customer the other day at—A. M. Baker's.

We blush to think how low we have become in our prices A. M. Baker.
