THE JOURNAL.

The Office Boy Was Particular.
 Applicant for work—Do you want to employ any more help, sir?
 Proprietor—Yes. I believe we are a little short handed. Do you understand the business?
 Applicant—I ought to. I've worked at it for twenty years and I can bring you recommendations from every man I ever worked for.

Proprietor—Can't you come in again? The office boy is out just now, and the porter and the private watchman are holding a labor meeting. I'll state your case to them when they are disengaged, and if they are willing I shall be glad to hire you. But I'll tell you frankly that though I may be able to get the consent of the private watchman and the porter I'm somewhat in doubt about the office boy. He's awfully particular.
 However, it'll do no harm to call again.—Boston Transcript.

What a truly beautiful world we live in! Nature gives us grandeur of mountains, glass and oceans, and thousands of means of enjoyment. We can desire no better when in perfect health; but how often do the majority of people feel like giving it up disheartened, discouraged and worn out with disease, when there is no occasion for this feeling, as every sufferer can easily obtain satisfactory proof that Green's August Flower will make them free from disease, as when born. Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint are the direct causes of seventy-five per cent. of such maladies as Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Nervous Prostration, Dizziness of the Head, Palpitation of the Heart, and other distressing symptoms. Three doses of August Flower will prove its wonderful effect. Sample bottles 10 cents. Try it.

I got a letter from Johnny to day.
 He's a gittin' along fine, and says he's into cube root. Mrs. Haysed —Thar! I told you that thar boy would make a hog of hisself!

Bid me discourse, and I will enchant thine ear with tale of astounding cures of all sorts of suffering by Salvation Oil.
 Price only 25 cents.

An Indian boy wanted to hang himself after seven school girls had kissed him. He didn't, for he found they had given him nothing more serious than a cold, which he speedily cured with Dr.
 Ball's Cough Syrup, and then married the prettiest one.

What Divine Providence has made necessary, human providence ought to comply with cheerfully.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
 Mrs. WISLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

DR. J. D. CLARK

DENTIST.
 208 N. Front Street, New Berne, N. C.

Mr. William Crooks was walking down street the other day. He had a bull on his leg as big as a walnut. Mr. T. H. Munn who is very fond of practical joking thought he'd play a joke on Mr. Crooks so he slid noisily up behind him grabbed him by the tail and imitated the bark of a dog. Bow bow bow! Mr. William Crooks has a long foot he pointed it at Mr. Munn most a dozen times and then he gave him one for good measure. Mr.
 Munn went home looking as if he had been scalped wrong and Mr.
 Crooks went down to his office with his leg over his shoulder with his face as wry as a loaf of that kind of bread little mistakes like these are liable to occur at any time but one thing a man can do that will not be no mistake is to call at A. M. Baker and buy one of those elegant Cloaks that he has so cheap; take one home to your Wife it will be economy.

NEW WAY TO CURE A RALCY HORSE.—If your Horse is disposed to lay down on the street or to balk don't get mad and hammer the sullen brute; don't hold his nose or put a handful of gravel in his ear; so no not that; simply lean over and whisper in his ear; the old nag if he notices it at all, ought to get up in an instant and never stop until he pulls up in front of one of our dry goods stores.* All you must say to the Horse is this, tell him they are selling Ladies Cloaks at way down prices at Baker's store, if the Horse don't notice the whisper then rest assured that this remedy is no good but it is a fact that A. M. Baker has a lovely lot of fall and winter goods that he is selling cheap and that in the stock is some handsome Cloaks.

A. M. BAKER.—Dear sir—I thank you sincerely for fitting and suiting me so nicely completely and cheaply in the Cloak that my husband bought of you when he was in New Bern; he saved so much money in the purchase that he got me a Bonnet; he says the cloak fits me as a coat that he fairly PANTS to see me parade the streets of New Bern with him in this new attire which suits him entirely and fits that he is sure there is no one where that can sell better goods for so little money as you do; I intend to Collar and Cuff him if he don't buy from you regularly. For I am determined he shall invest hereafter at the cheapest and best place in the City.
 Gracefully Yours
 M. K. BLANK.

"Mariet! Mariet!" "yelled an excited farmer, the other day, as he rushed out of Baker's store where goods are sold so cheap. "Dump out those Taters and make room!"
 "What for," said she. "Why," said he, "I am going to buy a whole lot of Cloaks and put them away as an investment. I find the prettiest, handsomest and the most Stylish lot of Cloaks here that I have ever seen in this town and they are at only half price. Really I have never seen any thing to reach them." "Well, but they may go down, John," said she. "Down let them go down, the goods in them cloak's are worth the money."

"Susan, my daughter, I fear you are getting reckless. You have had two cloaks this fall already and you only had one last winter.
 What is the cause?" "Well, father, you see Baker has just received a brand new lot of the loveliest wraps of all kinds, and he is selling them at half price, so I bought both of these lovely things for what one would have cost, last year."

Have you heard the latest. Well the latest piece of really good news is that A. M. Baker has one of the loveliest stock of really nice new Stylish and handsome Cloaks ever brought to this city go and look at them whether you want to buy or not take your friends and every body go and look at those Cloaks.

This catches your eye does it well if you will call at A. M. Baker's and see that elegant stock of Cloaks he has there you will be surprised and pleased to.

The Lady who attracted the most attention on the streets today and was the best dressed and the prettiest in every way got her dressgoods and wrap from A. M.
 Baker.

What Boots it if I Shoes to buy bargains," said a delighted Customer the other day at—A. M.
 Baker's.

We blush to think how low we have become in our prices. A. M.
 Baker.
