EVERY lover of the Constitution Il rejoice that the Supreme Court where it was sought to use the Pederal power to force the State to receive the coupons of her bonds in payment of taxes. Under Judge Bond's order, he being a circuit judge of the United States, the Attorney General of the State and two of Commonwealth's attorneywere imprisoned for contempt. The ses were appealed upon a writ of habeas corpus to the Supreme Court of the United States which holds that the Circuit Court was without jurisdiction in the cases. The doctrine of Jefferson is again waxing and that of Hamilton wap-

THE PRIDE OF A TRUE SOUTH ERNER.

The following letter was recently written by Mrs. Jefferson Davis in response to a movement set on loot at Macon, Ga., to raise by popular subscription a Jefferson Davis fund. It was addressed to Col. W. H. Ross, chairman of the committee having the matter in hand:

B. Reed of Maine. This the Republicans clapped as heartly as though they had some hope of his election. The result was an soqueed as telegraphed you. Much interest was felt in the four independents of Iowa for Carlinle, Nichols of North Carolina and Smith of Wisconsin, for Brumm, Republican, and Hopkins of Virginia did not vote. It is apparent that Mr. Nichols intends to preserve or af test an independent attitude during the session. The officers of the House selected at the Democratic cauous were elected, consisting of the old incumbents except the of the United States has overruled doorkeeper, which position was Judge Bond in the Virginia cases awarded to Mr. A. Mr. Carlisle, whom your visitors to Washington remember as a clean shaven, clerical looking gen deman, assumed the gavel with his u-ual dignity, and delivered his New Discovery, taken in connection peech of thanks in his peculiarly with Electric Bitters. We guarantee -peech of thanks in his peculiarly nappy and appropriate style. But one noticeable and eignificant part of it was his allusion to the present necessity of a revision of our interrevenue laws and reduction of taxation. His language was "it must be evident to every one who has taken even a partial survey of public affairs that the time has now come when a revision of our revenue laws and a reduction of taxation are absolutely necessary in order to prevent a large and daugerous accumulation of money in the treasury. . The financial condition of the government and the private quality and price of my goods satisfacbusiness of the people alike de mand the prompt consideration of these subjects and the speedy en-
