THE JOURNAL.

WORK OF FIVE YEARS.—Prof. J. A. Fleming, the English electrician, shows that in 1882 an electric dynamo for 1200 lights weighed 44,820 pounds, the armature weighed 9800 pounds, the space occupied was 320 cubic feet, the horse-power required was 155, and the commercial efficiency was 87 per cent. The 1887 machine, with an armature of 1568 pounds, weighs 11,760 pounds, occupies about 180 cubic feet, requires about 112 horse power, and has a commercial efficiency of over 90 per cent. A given current costs one-fourth as much as in 1882.

The largest diamond in the world is the Braganza, being a part of the Portuguese jewels. It weighs 1,880 carats. It was found in Brazil in 1741.

Wonderful Cures.

W. B. Hoyt & Co., wholesale and retail druggists of Rome, Ga., say: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Electric Bitters and Bucklen's Arnica Salve for two years. Have never handled remedies that sell as well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced Consumption have been entirely cured by use of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Electric Bitters. We guarantee them always. Sold by R. N. Duffy.

The Union arch of the Washington Aqueduct is the largest in the world, being 220 feet; 20 feet in excess of the Chester arch across the Dee in England, 68 feet longer than that of the London Bridge, 92 feet longer than that of Neuilly on the Seine, and 100 feet longer than that of Waterloo Bridge. The height of the Washington arch is 100 feet.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boecher's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases. No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 80,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it. Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents. Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists and dealers in the United States and Canada.

BAKER'S NEW OPERA

AFTER "THE MIKADO."

The bargains that bloom in the fall,
Tra-la,

Are often but promise and show,
The people don't know what they buy,

Tra-la,
They often had better go slow.
But of that there's no need as to what we call,

Of bargains that we offer as tradesmen this fall.
Tra-la-la la, tra-la-la-la.

The bargains that bloom in the fall,
Tra-la,

Have largely to do with the case;
All people they need many a thing,

Tra-la,
Let them see what is truth and what's ring,
Tra-la,

And buy at a trustworthy place.
Come and see what we mean when we say and call,

Of bargains indeed which we offer this fall.

Tra-la-la la, tra-la-la-la.
Moral of all this—Go to Baker's to buy your Dry Goods.

A B in your bonnet, my friend!
Come and U us and G your horses right round in front of our store door. H them up, come in, get your weather I open by a look at our bargains. Don't be a J and neglect this good turn U O yourself. We R in earnest when we promise to suit U to a T. Bring along a V and we will W up half a dozen bargains. Y do we do this? Simply because our prices are all knocked open umop.

All this is foolishness, but it is a fact that A. M. BAKER—we won't say any more; come and see us.

On The List.

As some day it may happen that you need this thing or that, We have a little list, we've got a little list

Of first class goods at prices down to the lowest flat,

In which we will persist, in which we will persist,

That our nobby stock of fall goods ne'er excelled,
Befitting any lady whose name was ever appelled.

Our cloaks of rare material and workmanship to match,
Of quality superior, they never need a patch.

And then our Misses' cloaks they'll convince the veriest pessimist,
You'll find them on our list, on our unexampled list.

A. M. BAKER, the Dry Goods Man, don't forget he wants you on his list as one of his best customers.

Baker's bound to have a fit today,
He don't care if 'tis small,
The fit he wants is pro-fit, friend,
So look you one and all.

For gains. What gains? Why Bar gains, friend,
Just glance within his store,
Such bargains he will show you, friend,
As ne'er were seen before.

New ties. What ties? Why novel-ties,
In every line he sells,
Don't shun. What shun? Why re-due shun,
In prices to please you well;

Sure gures. What gures. Why low g-gures,
They're bound to make you laugh;
So call and see us out the price,
In just as pretty half.
