BLISHERS' ASSOUNCEERSNY.

DAILY JOURNAL # bi shed dall . exc-pt Monday, at ar, $8.09 for six months Delivered coortbars at 50 cents per month WERELY JOURNAL & 36 column the published every Thursday at $2.00

ANTINING BATES (DAILY)-One as day $1 9h 50m for each subs

ion. retinements under head of "Business a," 10 centsperfor first and 5 cents for insertion.

int vertices ments will be instrued between nation a sensy price. Just of arriance or Deaths. not to exceed as vill be inserted free. All additions will be constead free. All additions will be constead free. All additions a will be constead to contain the b nucle is advance. Neguar sove a 1 will be collected promptly at the of each month. munications containing news of a disdistributes toos on training new or de . No non of das matters are solicited. No nup-dation mist be expected to be pub distributes objectionable personal withholds the spice of the author; or will make more than one column of th y person feeling aga neved at any anony mmunication can obtain the name of for by application at this office and wherein the gravance exists

| R. S. SURN. | : | Business | Edito Manage |
|----------------|---------|-----------|-----------------|
| NRW BEEN | E. N. C | DEC. | 24 1587. |
| entered at the | | te at New | | endeavoring to proscribe Mexican soldiers that took sides with the South in the war between the States. They will continue to entertain this prejudice so long as the war is designated as a rebellion.

concluded to attack the President's party responsible for the large sur-Plumb, Teller, Sherman and others conversation becomes no conversahave opened the ball on this line, and it is evident that they intend which nobody cares to hear, or to oppose every effort the demo- takes the trouble to answer. Meanorats may make to reduce taxes while, the modest and weak sit and prevent the continued accountlation of a surplus.

THAT ONE-SIDED TRADE.

How the Farmers are Stiil Dealt with by the "Yankees."

Farmers what control have you over the products of your labor? Do you price your corn or wheat, or tobacco or cotton ? Are you not compelled to take just the price feet. which others see fit to offer you ? Have you any voice in the matter.! anything that is cold. An old man named Boark lived up in the mountains. He was a great breakfast has been eaten. horse trader, and when, near the close of the war, Stoneman was making a raid through our western counties, Boark concluded he would ride out and make a reconoisance. Mounting a good fat horse he unless the skin is in active condiand the officer promptly ordered the and favor congestion or other disold fellow to dismount. Boark got eases. down, and about that time he saw n Yankee private sliding down off a terribly dilapidated animal. The Yankee's borse. Boark obeyedmounted the Yankee's horse. "Now take the road for your home," said of the throat be produced. the officer. Boark gathered his reins and turned to the officer and swappin' horses for about sixty otherwise is debilitating. years, but durn me ef this ain't the first time I ever swapped in all my life and didn't have a word to say in the trade."

exercising them on an object of less world; be true. They will sell you consideration. For example, how for money or popularity; don't many well-meaning people go on trust them. Wear but one face and drudging all their lives, toiling like let that be an honest one.-Farm. slaves, al to save so much as a few pennies a day, who, if their industry were properly directed, would make dollars instead, with comparatively to contend with other rebels than cost. During the time that they a St. Petersburg letter: have been saving their bit, others. by a little more foresight, have made a larger sum. The penny- fused to take the physic prescribed saver is, therefore, by no means for them. The attendants usisted the best manager of affairs; in one in vain. The young people were

Learn to Listen.

of a company sweet the ordinary rules of politeness are of course necessary-no radeness, no offence to each other's self-esteem; on the contrary, mutual deference is re quired. Sometimes, however, there s a very turbid kind of conversation, where there is no want of common good breeding. This most requently arises from there being too great a disposition to speak, and too small a disposition to listen. Too many are eager to get their deas expressed, or to attractattention; and the consequence is, that nothing is heard but broken suatches and fragments of discourse, in which there is neither profit nor cute talument. No man listens to what another has to say, and then makes a relative or ad ditionally illustrative remark. One may be heard for a minute, or a half a minute, but it is with manifest impatience, and the moment he is done, or stops to draw breath, the other plunges in with what he THE republicans have at last had to say, being something quite of another strain, and referring to been formed in mutual adversity, another subject. He in his turn is as iron is most strongly united by message and hold the democratic interrupted by a third, with the the fiercest flame. enuociation of some favorite ideas plus in the treasury. Senators of his, equally irrelative; and thus tion, but a contention for permission to speak a few hurried words, silent and nugratified. The want Duffy s drug store as their giving away of regulation is here manifest. It to their customers of so many free trial would be better to have a president who should allow everybody a minute in succession to speak with. from the fact that it always cures and out interruption, than thus to have never disappoints. Coughs. colds. freedom and so monstrously to asthma, bronchitis, croup, and all freedom, and so monstrously to abuse it .- Exchange.

Good Rules for Wister.

- Never go to bed with cold or damp Never lean with the back upon
- Never begin a journey until the
- Never take warm drinks and
- then immediately go out into the cold.

Never omit regular bathing, for nless the skin is in active condi-

Anarchy in the Czar's Family.

The Russian Czar has, it seem These prople, it is obvious, make or save their pennies at too dear a quotes the subjoined anecdote from sense he is a prodigal spendthrift. not to be persuaded. At last the Czar was sent for, and finding that kind words were In order to keep all the elements or no avail, he began to scold. Even that did not succeed, so, turning to the nurse, the Ozar said : "I can do no more; and yet just think that millions of subjects obey me, while these young striplings set me at defiance."

> Two of the Czar's children, who are laid up with the measles, re-

> No, you cannot hope to retain our boy from all companions, nor should you wish to. Inculcate your morals gradually and gently. Administer your teachings in the form of motherly interests, and not as prescribed tasks, and your work is almost accomplished. Teach him to love to obey. Let a boy look upon his parents as inter rests, not as instigators of deserved punishments, and he is pretty sure to make confidants of them is after years, and will be all the better and warmer-bearted man.

> Well regulated minds may be satisfied with a small portion of happiness; none can be happy with a small portion of content.

> The strongest friendships have

Those are the best Obristians who are more careful to reform themselves than to censure oth r18.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at R N bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article throat aid lung diseases quickly cured. Every bottle warranted. For sale at R N. Duffy's drug store.

For sale in Newbern by Alex. Miller.

THE

Cos, Finest ever printed. s

IYLERDESK CO

T. LOUIS

We have just received New Lots of the following Goods, sultable for the Holidays :

New Ties and Scarfs. The prettiest line of 25c. Scarfs in the city. Boys' Windsor Ties.

Collars and (uffs. Silk and Linen Handkerchiefs. Silk and Woolen Mufflers.

Shirts and Underwear. Hosiery and Gloves. The celebrated Jouvin Kid Glove at $1.25; every pair warranted

New stock of Stiff Hats.

Scarf Pins; Initial Pins; Cuff and Collar Buttons.

Gents', Garters, Pulse Warmers, Suspenders, Sleeve Supporters, Walking Sticks, Over Gaiters, etc.

Shoes and Slippers, and Porpoise Hide Strings.

Trunks, Valises, Rugs and Carpetry.

At Rock Bottom Prices, Lower than the Lowest Without Exception:

A fine line of Silk Lined and Silk Faced, in heavy and light weight, Overcoats, in the most fushionable colors, at the lowest prices imaginable. A larger and finer Line in than ever. Also a very attractive assortment of the latest Styles and patterns Gent's Neckwear. In Soft and Stiff Hats we co arry the latest and leading styles.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS.

"How many of you are playing Boark every day in your business transactions? Get out of debt, organize and take care of yourceives and your interests .- Senator Zeb. Vance in a speech.

Gained.

started, and soon met the raiders, tion, the cold will close the pores

After exercise of any kind never ride in an open carriage or near the window of a car for a moment; it officer commanded Boark to take is dangerous to health or even life. off his saddle and put it on the When hoarse speak as little as possible until the hourseness is re-"Mount !" said the officer. Boark covered from, else the voice may be permanently lost, or difficulties

Merely warm the back by the fire, and never continue keeping the said: "Will you please allow me one back exposed to heat after it has become comfortably warm. To do become comfortably warm. To do

> When going from a warm atmosphere into a cooler one keep the mouth almost closed so that the air may be warmed by its passage through the nose ere it reaches the lungs.

Never stand still in cold weather, especially after having taken a slight degree of exercise, and always avoid standing on ice or A Penny Rightly Saved is a Penny snow, or where the person is exposed to cold wind .- Sanitarian.

The proverb of "a penny saved is a penny gained" does not seem strictly correct. Would it not be better to say a penny rightly saved tected. In sleeping in a cold room is a penny gained, for by saving a establish the habit of breathing penny improperly may we not lose instead of gaining? All the proverbs which inculcate the propriety of naving appear to be founded upon the idea that there is no saving but The highest attainment for a that which consists of sparing the putlay of money. Now, this is only one small department of the saving is a grand thing to stand upright inciple. We should view that in defence of truth and principle. Finciple on a more extended scale When persecution comes, some hide

In a draw of the process of the question of the soul is the process of the soul is the process of the question of the soul is the process of the question o

At TEN Cents a Can.

1,250

At Ulrich's.

(No seconds-standard goods.) New Berne, N. C.

KASTERN NORTH CAROLINA RBLE WORKS.

Monuments Tombsand all kinds Grave and Building work in TALIAN&AMERICAN MARBLE

Orders will receive prompt attention satisfaction guaranteed

JOE E. WILLIS, Proprietor successor to George W. Claypoole Oor. BROAD A . D ORAVEN Sta. NEW BERNE, N. C.

G. E. MILLER is my authorized ages in Kinston CLERENT MANLY F. M. SIMMONS. MONS & MANLY olear.

Second Point:

This roint is upward. Would you know the cause? Then call at once and ee our Stock of Handsome Clothing,

Men's Furnishings, Dry Goods, Boots

Also Newmarkets, Walking Jackets

GT The reason will soon be made and Shoes, and the state

Shawls, Blankets, etc., etc., etc.,

David M. Jones of B.

but always-

First Point:

We also have not forgotten the Ladies, and desire to call their attention to our

Most Elegant Line of Dress Goods, which we will sell at Reduced Rates, and which will enable any one to buy a large lot of goods for a little money.

We call their special attention to the best assorted stock of New-markets, Wraps, Dolmans, Walking Jackets and Jerseys in the city.

Also, a full line of Carpets, Rugs and Blankets. it to your own interest to do so.

AND DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF Surgical Appliances, Druggists' Sundries, &c,

GUINN'S PIONEER BLOOD RENEWER-invaluable for the cure of Rheumatism. IF Largest, best selected and cheapest line of FINE OIGARS in the city-40,000 just received. The wholesale trade especially looked

IF Makes a specialty of SUPERIOR LIQUORS for medicina. IT Prescriptions compounded with care and dispatch.

ORDERS SOLICITED.) H. DUFFY.

DALEROTHERS

George Ash, Nholesale Grocers

Middle street.

Next to L. H. Outler.

HAVE REMOVED TO THEIR TWO STORES, SOUTH OF THEIR FORMER STAND. THE PARTY AND ADDRESS STREET