Quite a rainy spell.

Bills have been posted for the Wilson and Rankin minstrel troupe which appear at the theatre on Friday night.

A regular meeting of the M. E. Church Working Society will be held at the residence of Mr. L. H. Outler this evening at 8 o'clock.

A telegram from Wilmington yesterday announces that Wilmington will vote on the subscription to the Onslow railroad again in March.

The official papers commuting the sentence of Charles F. Jones to imprisonment for life have been received. He will be taken up about the first of next week.

We have information that leads to the conclusion that Messrs. Moore & Brady will be on pretty soon to begin the canning of oysters. They are later than usual this season, but let the oystermen be prepared to give them work when they come.

Painful Accident.

We learn that on last Monday Mr. L.
F. Tillery, formerly telegraph operator here, but now of Rocky Mount, who is visiting his father-in-law, Mr. Geret Vyne, of Havelock, went out with a little son of Mr. Vyne for a hunt. In some way young Vyne's gun went off unexpectedly and a great part of the load lodged in Mr. Tillery's back and shoulder. The shot, fortunately, was small and Mr. Tillery was not seriously hurt, but we learn that his wounds were quite painful. He has many friends in the city who sympathize with him.

Steel Rails for the A. & N. C. R. R.

The "Old Mallet," from appearance, is on a "boom." Yesterday afternoon there were three schooners, all with cargoes of steel rails for the A. & N. C.
R. R. in port. The schooners were, the S. Warren Hall, Hall master, from Philadelphia; the Onas, Sineason, — master, from Philadelphia; and the Belle and Maud, — master, from Philadelphia. Three schooners loaded of steel rails at one time looks like business. President Bryan is making an earnest effort to improve the condition of the road, and is succeeding admirably. "Let 'er go!"

Personal.

Mr. T. Fletcher Hargis and Mr. L.
Calvin R. ad were in the city yesterday looking well. Their many friends were glad to see them.

Mr. B. E. Bryan and Mr. Geo. W.
Bryan of Charlotte, who were called here to the death bed of their father the late Wm. G. Bryan, will leave for their homes this morning.

C. C. Gress, Esq., of Trenton is in the city.

Mr. Geret Vyne of Havelock was in the city yesterday. He is just from the country of blizzards and snow storms, but was fortunate enough not to be caught in the latest freeze out. The thermometer registered 7 below zero however while he was there.

Billions.

We have tested his virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. We tried four other remedies before Stimmans Liver Regulator, but none of them gave us more than temporary relief; the Regulator not only relieved a hot wind-— M. H. Jones, Jr., Telegraph and Telephone Office, N. C.

The Onslow Election.

On Tuesday, the 24th inst., the people of Onslow will in a great measure decide the question of their future prosperity. If they vote in favor of the subscription to the railroad from New Berne to Wilmington, the building of the road will be assured at an early day, for Wilmington and New Berne will be certain to follow with their subscriptions. To those of our Onslow readers who have any doubt about the propriety of voting "subscription," we ask them to remember—

1st. That the bonds of the county will not issue unless the road is constructed.
2d. That the railroad franchise alone will add a large amount to the taxable property of the county, to say nothing of the many plantations now growing up that will be reclaimed, and the fish, oyster and timber industry that will be developed.

3d. The people of the county will be brought in quick communication with the outside world, and they will have the advantages of telegraph wires, daily papers and market reports. With these facilities business men with capital will be drawn to their midst and will help to reduce taxes.

4th. A railroad will give employment to labor and make a demand for immense quantities of timber for cross-ties that will never find a market elsewhere.

To vote against subscription will certainly keep the county just in the condition it is now for probably the next quarter of a century. Wilmington is to vote again in March and a defeat of the measure in Onslow next Tuesday would probably defeat it there.

People of Onslow! vote for "Subscription," and you will never regret it.

Our Fair.

The Raleigh News and Observer very kindly offers to help us out in our Fair, to be held in New Berne on the 13th, 14th and 15th of March. People can generally get help in any worthy enterprise when they show a disposition to help themselves. We have no doubt but the entire press of the State will aid us in making this Fair a grand success if we go to work in earnest about it.

Now what we want is a meeting of the citizens of New Berne at an early day to organize a Fair Association and appoint committees to take charge of the various departments. We have hardly two months time to prepare for it, but if we go to work right and every man will resolve to do his part we can make an exhibit that will be a credit to the State and of lasting benefit to this section.

A great deal has been written, and much more can be written, about the undeveloped resources of Eastern Carolina, but a good exhibit of these, and bringing people face to face with the facts that have been so often put on paper will be a long stride towards bringing about the much desired development.

New Berne has never had an exhibit like this intended to be. Many other towns and sections in North Carolina and in the South have held such exhibitions and they always bore fruit.

It is time for us to take a step forward. Let us make a strong effort during the year 1888 to push to the front and we will succeed.

Experimental Farming.

Mr. W. B. Pearce of Lenoir county, who promised us a year ago that he intended experimenting on an acre of cotton during the year 1887, called in Tuesday and stated that he had not reported because he gave his acre an overdose of cotton seed and could not get a stand, consequently he only made twelve hundred pounds of seed cotton.

Now this is all wrong. He says he did not get more than a third of a stand and had to replant several times to get that. If he would publish a statement of his manner of preparing his land, the quantity and kind of manure, how he applied it, the nature of the soil and how he cultivated it, his brother farmers, many of whom read the JOURNAL, would avoid falling into the same errors that caused his failure. It is just as important to report failures, and more so, in experimenting on the farm as it is to report a success. It is the failures that farmers want to avoid, and the benefits of a neighbor's experience is often a blessing.

But Mr. Pearce is a member of the Grange in his neighborhood and says the question to be discussed at the next meeting is, "How to use cotton seed for manure." He will then give his experiences with his seed.

While writing the above Mr. J. E.
Scott, one of the live, energetic farmers of Jones county came in to renew his subscription. We stated the subject under discussion, and he gave us his opinion of the condition of the country, how to farm and how to live. He says it will not do to wait now to make them land rich too fast; it must be brought up gradually. He made a better crop last year than he had made for sometime. The trouble with the country, he says, is humbuggery and laziness and the greatest of these is laziness. He deplores the fact that the country people are more susceptible to humbuggery now than ever before, and that there are so many isms and schisms in the land. He is not a member of the Grange but is a member of the Primitive Baptist church and quotes freely from the scriptures to illustrate his points.

A Model Farm Home.

In the northeastern portion of Onslow county is a plantation and farm house worthy of the old English lords. The house with all its compartments and grounds surrounding, its shady lawn and beautiful flower gardens indicates at once that it was once the abode of wealth, comfort and artistic taste. The broad fields stretching in every direction from the mansion, and dotted here and there with tenant houses seem to form a little government within themselves, and though based upon agricultural pursuits is really typical of the larger and more extended political governments of the world over.

This palatial residence with its broad acres was purchased several years ago by Mr. D. S. Aman for the sum of twenty thousand dollars, or upwards of that, and the last cent of the purchase money has been made on the land. Mr.
Aman having fought the fight that is necessary for success is now beautifying the grounds with flowers and adding conveniences that will soon eclipse the days of the old plantation's former glory. He is studying diversification and rotation of crops, stock raising and how to make the farm self-sustaining and a happy abode for man.
A drove of young colts frolicking in the fields and a bunch of fat hogs in the pens show that he is succeeding finely in this line. Mrs. Aman has shared with him the toils and cares that in the end brought success, and if anybody feels that "farming don't pay" let him go and learn better.

With a railroad through Onslow Mr.
Aman would have no trouble in filling this fine old mansion with sportsmen from the wealthy regions of the North during the winter season. They would be near enough the coast to get the full benefit of the duck shooting and far enough in the interior to reach the game in the forest of Onslow.

A Wedding.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—I was one among the lucky ones that received an invitation to the marriage of Mr. L. C. Fulcher to Miss Emma Sadler at the residence of Mr. A. S. Oglesby on Thursday, the 13th inst. Promptly at 4 o'clock the groom led the blushing young bride, who was beautifully and tastefully dressed, to the altar to receive the solemn ceremony which was performed by Mr. W. C.
Murdock, a justice of the peace, that united their joys and pleasures for life.
After the ceremony we all repaired to the residence of the groom where a sumptuous supper awaited us and, Mr.
Editor, if you could have been of our number I dare say you would have enjoyed it. The bride and groom looked as if they were

"Two souls with but a single thought, Two hearts that beat as one."

At eight o'clock the music commenced and we tripped the light fantastic toe until nearly midnight. After expressing the wish to the happy couple "that no dark sorrow might ever throw its shadow around their path, but everything lovely and fair might be theirs in life and death," we returned to our homes with the peaceful recollection that we had spent an evening of pleasure.

Col. Faison's Residence Burned.

A correspondent, writing to the Star from Warsaw, says that Wood Lawn, the elegant country residence of Col.
A. M. Faison, three miles from Warsaw, was destroyed by fire about 4 a. m. yesterday. The origin of the fire is not known, but it was supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. Most of the furniture was saved, but Col.
Faison lost his pocket-book containing a small amount of money and notes valued at between two and three thousand dollars. The entire loss is estimated at $10,000. There is no insurance upon the property destroyed.—Wilmington Wonderful Cures.

W. D. Hoyt & Co., Wholesale and Retail Druggists of Rome, Ga., says: We have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery Electric Balm and Bucken's Arnica Salve for four years. Have never handled remedies that sell so well, or give such universal satisfaction. There have been some wonderful cures effected by these medicines in this city. Several cases of pronounced consumption have been entirely cured by one of a few bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery, taken in connection with Bucken's Arnica Salve. We guarantee these cures. Adm. wholesale and retail, at

MY FRIEND.

There is a wave 'mid memory's surging That is ceaselessly sounding for thee.
The spray on its bosom is singing A song of thy virtues to me.

And I would that this song of thy virtues
On the billows of memory could be As stainless and pure in the future As milk-white shells by the sea.

For the beautiful semblance of honor On thy brow like a nimbus was set.
But that, which would exalt thee for ever

And guard thee, is lacking yet.
And I pray that this treasure enduring Light of the Infinite Love, May arise like the star of the evening And draw thee to look above.

THE WAR CLOUD.

BERLIN, Jan. 14.—A semi-official statement is issued from St. Petersburg tonight, with reference to the failure of the Czar to make a speech at his New Year's reception. The assertion is made that the Czar has not been in the habit of making a political statement on that occasion. This is only partly true, both the late and the present Czar have been wont to make a short address of semiconversational character.

Yesterday evening the Czar pointedly refrained from conversing with Gen.
Von Schevelin, German Ambassador, and Count Von Walckenstein-Frostberg, Austrian representative. At one period of the reception Russian Generals and Ministers grouped themselves around the Czar, expecting an important utterance. After whispering a few minutes with M. De Giers, he turned to the others and formally offered the congratulations of the season, then he singled out three of his Ministers for a private talk. The incident is considered an intimation that the war party triumphs. Among the list of honors conferred the Pan-Slavists alone were favored. The list of decorations leaves the impression in Berlin and Vienna official circles that the Czar is hopelessly under command of the ag-gressives.

The Moscow Gazette tonight says that on the nineteenth day after the Epiphany (Russian style) the Czar will preside at a grand military fete, when he will declare his policy. The Czar's action in choosing a military fete as the occasion on which to make this declaration has increased the feeling of disquiet. In the meantime frontier movements continue to be accelerated. Division after division of cavalry pours westward into Volhynia; trains loaded with artillery and munitions occupy the railroads, and ordinary traffic is suspended. At Kieff, Odessa and elsewhere, authorities are buying up provisions and forage and along the line of the Vistula between Dublin and Dobruva, hosts of laborers are engaged in constructing redoubts.

The Warsaw police have issued orders that all Austrians who have not permits to reside in Poland must quit Russian territory today. All Polish officers are being removed from the frontier regiments and sent to take commands in the interior.

On the German and Austrian sides the movements are kept a profound secret, but it is impossible to conceal the fact that there is an active passage of troops from Posen to the Silesian frontier. The first clear expositions of the situation of affairs is hoped for from Herr Tilly, Hungarian Prime Minister, in his reply to the interpellation of Herr Helfy.
The temper of the majority of members of the Hungarian Parliament is ardently warlike. Unless Premier Tisza's explanation shows that the forces on the frontier of Galicia are ample to repel any invasion Deputy Prezel threatens to move a vote of censure.

The young man who swallowed by mistake the whole contents of a package of Laxado is out again. He says he feels rather "pale," but otherwise is all right. He will however follow the directions next time.

Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup is recommended by all druggists as being a purely vegetable, reliable and safe preparation for babies. Price only 25c.

Astonishing Success.

It is the duty of every person who has used Boschee's German Syrup to let its wonderful qualities be known to their friends in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Croup, Asthma, Pneumonia, and in fact all throat and lung diseases.
No person can use it without immediate relief. Three doses will relieve any case, and we consider it the duty of all druggists to recommend it to the poor, dying consumptive, at least to try one bottle, as 50,000 dozen bottles were sold last year, and no one case where it failed was reported. Such a medicine as the German Syrup cannot be too widely known. Ask your druggist about it.
Sample bottles to try, sold at 10 cents.
Regular size, 75 cents. Sold by all druggists and dealers in the United States and Canada.

An Explanation.

When I advertised for Christmas Gifts and New Year's Presents, it was only a reminder to those who owed me little amounts to pay up. After due time I think I must have been dreaming, for they don't pay worth a cent.

A few good friends have paid—some good friends have not paid.

Well, they will, won't they?
I don't know, time will tell. I think it will be after we get the Railroad built from New Berne, through Jones county, to Onslow, and on to the sea. We will see.
