Railroad Agitation.

Onarlotte is agitating the question of building a railroad to Sandford. This is one of the points to which our people want the A. & N. C. R extended and other effort will be made in the near future to get it, but nothing is accompliebed in these days of corruption and monopoly without a long continued struggle. A line from Goldsboro to Coartoste turough the counties of Johnston Harnett, Moore, Montgomery and Scanly would shorten the present rail-& N C. R. with a little aid from each The fortilizers are being cartes out of these counties and Wayne and Meckleaburg furnishes a sufficient basis to build the connection The representataves of these counties in the next General Assembly and these along the A. The Hardship of the Farmer.

The difficulty with the Farmer. The difficulty with the which the farmer has to contend is that the price of of his goods is regulated by the price at which ha calls his surplus in the mar-kets of the world white he has to pay for all he buys pricet artificially ele-vated by the enormous war taviff. He has to competition with all the world while he is colligied to make the orld while he is obliged to make the pur-while he is obliged to make the pur-charge of what he heeds for the house-hold and for work on the farm from the manufacturers of the northern section of the Uniced States. He gets the mallest price possible for his applus product. He has to pay two or three prices of the same basis for he has to buy. He pays toll on every plow he uses, every wool hat he wears, every spool of thread the good wife gets to a-ther work and shrinks and the sweller and ehrinker stays down in a cellar and works the machine. They trade in stock." s-tisfy the extortionate greed of the manufacturing monopolist, the pet of he R-publican bigh tariff. Is it any wonder that he finds it difficult to make both ends meet; that be finds it impossible to get ahead in the world ? He is the hewer of wood and drawer of water, in deed and in truth, for the Northern tariff baron. The latter is the favorite of the Republican system. He has his marble palaces, his steam yachts, his fast horses; and he it is who is able to visit Europe with the rest of the gay world and squander there thousands upon thousands of dollars every year. The farmer must toil and acive to support this magnificence. If he could put up the price of his products as the Repub licans have put up the tariff on manufactured articles he would have no reason to complain. He would have an offeet at hand for the rapacity of the protected manufacturer of the North But he hasn't the power to do this. He is at the mercy of the Republican high tariff. Yet he is largely in the majority in this county. He is the great body of the population. He is entitled to equal rights and privileges under the government with all other cutizens Hence we demand that the tariff be revised and reduced some what in his interest, since it has been steadily framed away from that interest for a quarter of a century. as well as in the interest of other; that its inequalities be smoothed away as far as possible, its enormities lopped off, so that the burden of taxation necessary to the support of the Government may be as equally distributed as possible among all classes of citizens.-News and Ob server.

The Republican members of the com-mittre openly charges the Democrats with a sectan to throttle comment upon the tariff bill, which the majority is to las before the committee and with a scheme to go around the regular pro-c-wdure. They say the majority intend to produce the bill for the revision of the tariff in the committee first, instead of introducing it in the House and har-
