The State Guard Encampment.

The Wilmington Star states that Adjutant General Johnstone Jones, Dr. Hilliard, Surgeon, and Col. J. T. Anthony commanding the Fourth Regiment, were in the city on Monday considering the advisability of holding the annual encampment of the State Guard in that vicinity.

Since then General Jones has visited Morehead City and is bound to be more favorably impressed with that point, and the Governor will doubtless order the encampment to be held there.

Selling Timber.

We notice many deeds are being recorded in the office of the Register of Deeda of this county for timber. Our farmers and land owners doubtless know their business, but perhaps they are not aware of the fact that many of the land owners in the mountains were badly taken in on the sale of their walnut timber several years ago. Sharpers went abead of the railroads and bought up this timber at a nominal price, tak-ing deeds for a number of years, and when it was too late many found that they had virtually given away their himber.

imber. The scarcity of money is a great temp-sation to many to sell their timber, but is well to look ahead a little. In a few years many of those who are sell-ing their timber for a small amount of monoy will find their lands deguded the scarcity of money. Is a great temp-station to many to sell their timber, but the scarcity of money is a great temp-station to many to sell their timber. The weather has been so unfavorable that farmers have done but little-not been able to sow their oats. Bradford Gatlin, one of our success ful farmers, is getting ready to ship one hundred barrels of corn.

On the second inst. at the residence of D. N. Spruill, the father of the bride. Cliff M. Caroon and Miss Virginia M. Spruill were matried, J. O. Baxter, Esq., officiating.

A very sad accident occurred today. A young man by the name of Gilbert C. Jones, who was subject to fits, was on board of the schooner Mary Bryan. Capt. Scott master, and captala Gibbs said he heard a noise and looked toward the steerage or rudder, and saw him fall overboard, lowered his small boat but was unable to render any assistance, as he, Jones, did not rise any more, and up to now his body has not been recovered.
