The register at Hotel Albert for the last few days has shown an unusually large number of names.

A large party from Kinston, La Grange and Goldsbore came down on Sunday to hear Rev. Mr. Pearson.

W. D. Wallace, assignee, offers stock of goods for sale and gives notice to debtors. See "ad" in this issue.

A large alligator was brought up from Slocumb's creek on Saturday last and turned over to Mrs. Moulton to be taxidermined. We presume it will be on exhibition at the Fair.

The interest in Mr. Pearson's mee:ings increases daily. Mrs. Pearson is was held at 11 o'clock. . also holding meetings with the ladles and instructing them how to teach and apply the Scriptures.

We think some of the business houses on Middle street should occupy a little less of the sidewalks with their goods boxes and swinging clothing. Also, some of the signs hang annoyingly low to those carrying raised umbrellas.

The Committeeson Home Manufactured Goods held a meeting yesterday and are taking steps to have a full exhibit of the products of the manufacturing industries in this section. There are several manufacturing enterprises at Goldsboro, Kinston and other towns that ought to make exhibits.

Barbara Stafford, living on Isaac Forbs's plantation, was the happy mother of three fine children yesterday morning. Dr. N. H. Street was in attendance, and we learn from the doctor that the mother and the children, two boys and one girl, are getting on finely. The mother of Barbara had eight children at three births, triplets twice and twins. Quite a prolific family.

The choir organized specially for Rev. Mr. Pearson's meetings gave excellent music at the Presbyterian Church Sonday evening, They sang with the spirit and understanding, and it was the more fective because every word could be distinctly heard. We don't know how it is with other other people, but to us vocal munic without distinct enunciathe words of the hymn is not so

Rev. Mr. Pearson's Meetings.

Mr. Pearson did not preach on Sunday morning. Bervices were held at all the churches by their pastors. The doors were not opened for the reception of members, but at the M. E. Church about forty names, including those who had previously handed in their names, were given the pastor for membership. There were about one hundred conversions during the week. The trains from Joldsboro and Morehead City brought in a large number. so that each church had a large congregation at the morning services.

At night, long before the hour of beginning the services, the Presbyterian church began to be rapidly filled. By 7 o'clock every sest was taken, and many others had to go to the M. E. Church, where Rev. Mr. Crawford administered to the overflow. Rev. H. W. Battle conducted the preliminary services, but just as he had fairly begun Rev. Mr. Pearson arrived. He ex-DIRECT importation of French Brandy and Holland Gin-arrived cause he was informed that the church cause he was informed that the church was packed and some had been waiting plained that he was ahead of time bewas packed and some had been waiting for an hour, and as no more could get in he thought it just as well to come on and begin the services at once.

The subject of the sermon was the Holy Ghost, from the text to be found in the 26th verse, 14th chapter of John. Each of the persons in the God-Head had a distinct part to perform in the plan of salvation which is finished. If asked, said the preacher, how I understand the Trinity, I answer, I don't understand it; if asked, how do you interpret it, I answer, I don't interpret it; if then I am asked, what do you do with the piano. Josef is young yet. it, I answer, I believe it. He knew it was a question about which there was much ignorance, misconception, error and controversy, but he had nothing to do with controversy. He would go to the readiness for use on Memorial day, the Owing to the prevalence of a strong Bible, in answering the following ques-

> 1st. Is the Holy Ghost a personality? 2d. What is the relation of the Holy Ghost to the Bible?

33. What is the relation of the Holy Ghost to the sinner?

4th. What is the relation of the Holy Ghost to the child of God? 5th. What are the embleme of the Holy Spirit? The answers to these questions were sear and pointed and sustained by the Word of God. There was a large crowd at the aftermeeting, at which about twenty-five made a profession of faith. Monday morning an interesting Bible reading on the forgiveness of enemies

At night there was another packed house. The preliminary services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Crawford.

The preacher discoursed upon the excuses that many are making for not becoming Christians. "And they all the St. Paul Pioneer Press gives an with one consent began to make excuse." The sermon was powerful and convincing. A dozen excuses were taken up, sifted and their fallacies made clear as the noon day sun.

The after-meeting was largely at tended and much interest manifested. Bible reading this morning at 11 o'clock; subject: The Influence of Mothers.
