New Berne, Jan. 14, 1888. law8m

The Gun Club meets tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

A strong south wind prevailed yesterday, and with the exception of the dust raised it was quite pleasant.

The Methodist Church Working Society hold their regular meeting tonight at the residence of Mr. Geo. Henderson, at 8 o'clock.

The State Sunday-school convention meets in Raleigh this evening.

C. Van, D.D., State Agent of the Synod of N. C., Miss Mary Allen and Mr. Fred. Thomas, leave this morning as delegates from New Berne.

A. W. Cook, leader of the New Berne Band, has received a new cornet and it is a real beauty, though Cook says its looks does not surpass its quality. It is of the C. G. Conn manufacture, Eik-hart, Ind. A good many compliments were paid the band for its performance during the Fair.

Proceedings of the Fair.

Copies of the Weekly JOURNAL of today, which will contain very full proceedings of the Fish, Oyster and Game Fair, may be had at this office in wrappers ready for mailing at five cents each.

Steamer Movements.

The Annie of the E. C. D. line will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Vesper of this line will arrive tomorrow.

The Mantee and Newberne of the O. D. line were dispatched yesterday for Norfolk with large and various freights.

The First Pea Blooms.

Emmanuel Merrick brings in the first pea bloom this season. They are from a lot in the city. We have no record of the first blooms of last year, but take it for granted that there were blooms earlier than this date. Radishes were shipped last year on the 5th of March and squashes on the 15th, and on the 16th a cold snap was noticed which was feared had damaged the pea crop one half.

Personal.

Mr. Wm. Cleye of Vanceboro, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. Gerrit Vyne of Havelock, was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. Hensley of Raleigh, has been in the city a number of days. He is in the business of insurance.

Chas. H. D. Norton, of Washington, D. C., is in the city stopping at Hotel Albert. He is representing the National Life and Maturity Association. The Colonel commanded the Western District of North Carolina during 1866, '67 and '68.

Prizes.

In the list of premiums awarded, published yesterday, there was a significant omission of a part of the lady's name. The best premium for linen was awarded to Mrs. Margaret M. Jones and not to Mrs. Margaret M. Jones as printed in the paper. This was a clerical error and we learn that the name of the lady is in the list of premiums awarded.

The young lady who was the best beauty in the city was Miss Mary Allen.

Miss Mary Allen and Mr. Fred. Thomas, leave this morning as delegates from New Berne.

A. W. Cook, leader of the New Berne Band, has received a new cornet and it is a real beauty, though Cook says its looks does not surpass its quality. It is of the C. G. Conn manufacture, Eik-hart, Ind. A good many compliments were paid the band for its performance during the Fair.

He Puts Up.

Mr. E. S. Woolard who challenged the Craven County Gun Club—and which challenge has been accepted—to shoot ten pigeons at ten shoots, was in early yesterday morning with a ten dollar bill, which he deposited in this office. He has gone to Portsmouth, where he will be absent about two weeks. He will then return and be ready at any time to shoot. He says, however, that if the Gun Club is over anxious, they may just drop him a postal card and he will return immediately.

LATER.

Mr. William Ellis of the Craven County Gun Club, hearing that Mr. Woolard had put up his ten dollars for the shooting match, came promptly around and placed the same amount or as the expression goes "covered it." So the money is up and the obtaining of the birds will proceed and the match will soon come off conditionally that the shooting take place within ten days.

No Apologies Are In Order.

Where all have done so well and have succeeded so admirably in their several departments, as have all the committees of the Fish, Game and Oyster Fair, we deem it proper to say no apologies are in order. If anything was neglected or anybody slighted we feel that it was so apparently unintentional on the part of the managers and the committees, that it would be out of place to offer any apology for it.

But the committee of awards in the ladies department deserve, as they are receiving, the highest commendation for their zealous and skillful performance of the duties assigned them. The task was a burdensome one, and only those who know of its magnitude can properly appreciate it. It was done and well done.

North Carolina Gems.

The following letter shows that had we started earlier in our arrangements for the Fair, that even greater attractions would have been here; but this only encourages us to look forward to another exhibition in due time. Mr. Hidden, who writes to Miss Manly, is the gentleman for whom the precious stone of North Carolina is named—Eldonite.

25 ORLEANS ST., NEWARK, N. J., March 13th, 1888.

DEAR MISS MANLY—Yours of 28th ult. came to me too late to receive the expected attention. In fact I am even now considering sending my entire cabinet to the Brussels Exposition, which opens next month.

I shall be pleased to send to Mr. S. K. Easton, N. C., gems on approval. Certainly New Berne ought to possess a fair representation of N. C. gems.

I am, vpry sincerely,

W. E. HIDDEN.

Literary.

John B. Alden of 393 Pearl st., N. Y., is a pioneer in the book publishing trade, and is becoming widely known for the low prices he furnishes books and pamphlets. His works are varied, covering nearly all the popular novels and the writings of standard authors.

In the Forum Congressman Springer writes of the protectionist argument of "high wages" as follows:

The most specious and plausible arguments are used, among them this: that the protection of American industries will enable the manufacturers to pay higher wages to American workmen, and that at the same time, by stimulating production and competition, the price of manufactured articles will be reduced to the consumers of the country. If this were true, few would controvert the position. But is the argument well founded? If protection enables the manufacturer to pay higher wages to his employees, he must obtain a higher price than he otherwise would for his commodities. If he cannot obtain such higher price for his commodities, he gets no protection whatever, and his argument falls to the ground.

A silver lining to every cloud! With the short dull days of early winter come the cheery holidays and Vick's beautiful annual, and lo! spring already appears. We can almost see the green grass and the blooming flowers. In the way of Catalogue, Vick's Floral Guide is unequalled in artistic appearance, and the edition of each year that appears simply perfect, is surpassed the next. New and beautiful engravings, and three colored plates of flowers, vegetables, and grain, are features for the issue for 1888. Its lavender tinted cover, with original designs of most pleasing effects, will assure it a prominent place in the household and library. If you want to know anything about the garden, see Vick's Floral Guide, price 10 cents, including a certificate good for 10 cents worth of seeds. Published by James Vick, Seedman, Rochester, N. Y.

Salvation Oil, the greatest cure on earth for pain, has made a most brilliant debut. Price 25c.

Philosophers say that affairs should always be conducted with a view to the greatest good of the greatest number. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has been the greatest good to the greatest number. See.

CARTERET COUNTY.

MOREHEAD CITY—BEAUFORT—THE SUPERIOR COURT—POLITICS, ETC., ETC.

The people of Carteret are, perhaps, the most law abiding of any in the State. The Superior Court is now in session, but the criminal docket is very slim and the county jail has been empty for near two years. Judge Shepard is holding the courts and Solicitor Allen is representing the State.

The New Berne bar is always well represented at this county, in fact outside of the local bar which consist of C. R. Thomas, jr., Esq., and W. J. Dougherty, of Newport, the bar is made up of New Berne attorneys. At this term there are present, Clement Manly, of the firm of Simmons & Manly, who has an extensive practice and the full confidence of the people, P. H. Pelletier, Esq., who also is winding into a good practice, and H. B. Bryan, Esq., who has long been a regular attendant.

On Tuesday the case of Hancock vs. Hubbs from Craven is to come up for trial.

There is not much talk of politics in the county yet, but when the time comes the county will be solid for Jarvis, or divided between him and Judge Clark, for Governor. Two years ago this county sent a delegation to the Congressional Convention to vote against Skinner, the representative at that time. A gentleman of calm and thoughtful views, a leading Democrat in the county, says the Democrats of the county will not again be guilty of so foolish a thing as tying the hands of their delegates against any man. The contest for the nomination to Congress in this district bids fair to be a warm and close one.

Maj. Latham's friends are true as steel and know where and how to put in the work, but there are many aspirants of unquestioned ability who have their friends already at work.

Beaufort and Morehead City are making preparations for summer visitors. The burnt district of Beaufort is being rebuilt and other repairs on buildings will soon begin, while at Morehead City the work on the Atlantic hotel and the Teachers' Assembly building is being pushed with vigor. But for the blunders that North Carolina has made in the management of railroads, there would today be lying in Beaufort harbor the ships of almost every nation, and a commercial mart would now cover the sand banks at Morehead City second to none on the South Atlantic coast. But want of State pride has long been characteristic of North Carolinians; hence, they are content to have their State designated as a strip of land between two States. There is, however, an awakening in the city on this question, and it will make itself felt in the near future.

Curiosities of the Bible.

By a New York Sunday-school Superintendent, with an introduction by Rev. J. H. Vincent, D.D.

Pertaining to Scripture, Persons, Places and Things, including Prize Questions and Answers, Bible Studies and Readings, etc., etc.

This collection of treasures, new and old, is the grand summary of a large experience in devising methods and incentives to interest children and those of older growth in Bible study. It contains such questions or exercises as will excite in the mind of Bible readers and seekers after truth a curiosity to know how, when, where, and under what circumstances the facts contained in this volume occurred. To secure these, and other kindred matter, a vast range of Biblical literature has been searched, and the leisure hours and painstaking labor of many years have been devoted to the undertaking.

In one large Crown, 8vo. Square Vol. over 500 pp. Illustrated, 25c.

THE LATEST NEWS.

Cond-used from our Exchanges.

The latest from the engineer's strike is that the strike is extending widely over the country. It has extended to California and the engineers are leaving their engines.

A fire at Hillsboro Thursday destroyed about a dozen buildings, all of wood. Only one barroom was spared. The loss is roughly estimated at $10,000, with only $500 insurance. The buildings were old, and were on the court house square.

We learn from the Asheville Citizen that the residence of Rev. Dr. J. L. Carroll, pastor of Second Baptist of that city, was burned last Saturday. The damage to the house and furniture is probably $2,000, insurance $2,500. The furniture was saved. Dr. Carroll's wife was a former resident of this city.

A south-bound vestibule train smashed up near Savannah Saturday morning. Jay Gould's family were aboard. The first section of the train went through a trestle. The entire train, except the engine, was demolished. Nineteen persons are reported killed and about thirty injured.

Roscoe Conkling came near perishing in the storm in the streets of New York. He undertook to walk home from his office rather than pay $50 for a hack, the only means of conveyance to be had, got lost in the snow drifts and with the greatest difficulty finally found his way into the New York club house and so saved his life.

The News and Observer says F. H. Busbee, Esq., of this city, has been tendered and has accepted the invitation to deliver the address at Morehead City on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the Teachers' Assembly building, which takes place May 1st. This is a graceful compliment to Mr. Busbee and one which is well deserved. A more polished, ornate, graceful speaker, more genuine and magnetic orator could not have been chosen, and the Assembly has done itself honor in selecting him to grace the occasion.

A correspondent of the Raleigh News & Observer from New York gives a long and interesting account of the recent great storm. In illustrating the financial loss he says it is thought the aggregate will sum up to about $12,000,000; New York's loss, $6,000,000. Speaking of the loss of life he says "The sum total of human calamities will never be learned, because the storm extended over an area embracing many hundred thousand miles. It makes one shudder to think of how many hearts ceased to beat at once, on that dismal day, the 12th of March."

Carteret County Items.

Our Morehead City Lodge of Masons are in a thriving condition.

Miss Jenny Hardesty closed her school at New Bethlehem last week. The one at Old Bethlehem will close soon.

Dr. G. N. Ennett, W. M., we were very sorry we couldn't go to "the Fair," but several of our friends did go.

Mr. J. M. Thomas, one of our good citizens, is in the lumber business as well as farming. Lumbering pays with us now.

Our friend Billy Bell has a pair of spectacles the frames of which are made from the knee-buckles of his great grandfather's breeches. They are solid silver and look well.

So far March has been true to her name, cold and windy. The farmers can't do much farming. Ben. Taylor is planting corn cold or hot, says he, it won't do to wait.

Miss Katie Gillet from Jones county, youngest daughter of the late Thos. S. Gillet, is stopping at present with Mrs. J. A. Weeks at Cedar Point attending school near there.

Mr. Elijah Weeks has some Scuppernon wine of his own make 8 years old and it is good for we know it to be so. Mrs. Maggie Holland also has some good wine that she made not quite so old but it is not bitter.

No marriages this week. One death just across the river in Onslow of a respectful colored man named Ben. Jones a minister of the gospel, who died from the effect of being salivated from taking calomel so we learn.

Steve Holland and Alex. Onslow are hauling wood and burning it, the latter says he has some "Cleveland" sweet potatoes to match Dr. Ennett's "Democrat" ones. We told him to take care they didn't turn to Blaine potatoes before the year was out.

Another schooner, Eddie B., cleared Dudley's Island this week loaded with 125,000 feet lumber.

from Terry's mill for New York. Schooner Etta cleared Swansboro this week with 50,000 feet lumber from Harrison's mill for Philadelphia.

WORTH KNOWING.

Mr. W. H. Morgan, merchant Lake City, Fla., was taken with a severe cold attended with a distressing cough and running into consumption in its first stages. He tried many so-called popular cough remedies and steadily grew worse. Was reduced in flesh, had difficulty in breathing and was unable to sleep. Finally tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and found immediate relief, and after using about a half dozen bottles found himself well and has had no return of the disease. No other remedy can show so grand a record of cures as Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, guaranteed to do just what is claimed for it. Trial bottle free at R. N. DUFFY'S drug store.
