It was really gratifying to see such a large number of our best citizens at the meeting on Friday night to consider the question of organizing a permanent Fair Association. A considerable number of shares of stock has already been taken and it is now well settled that an lina will be invited to take stock in the dent; and while not an orator, yet a Association and make it an Eastern Exhibit. Rev. Dr. Roushaler of Salem deliv ered a sensible and effective address on the question, "How can parents assist the Sunday School?"

It was indispensable to raise the "sinews of war" to carry out plans for organizing the State work. Volunteer contributions were called for by coun ties. Several $100 subscriptions were made. Durham led the list with $250, guaranted by Capt. Parrish, the Presi dent. Mr. Reynolds said he would put Craven county down for $25, and look to Mr. Geo. Allen to raise it. Is that the Illinois way? This call is expected to reach $1,000. Certainly not list we are very sorry indeed to say that there are many names on this active list that are not active at all. They neither say or de anything for its benefit, and some or Durham, read an admirable paper on them never attend the meetings. Now can they be active members when they do not even attend the meetings! They should look at this in a different light and become active and not silent at ways. The President, who has always not do everything and we need not expect it from him lie is doing all that he can possibly do now. But there are several officers that might believe if they would. A few of them are seent and never downsthing for you benefit. This should not be, and we have they will take more interest in the great work. We must all take more interest association to work for it whenever they can. If we do not go to work people will lose all interest in it and never think that there is any such association in this city. Some are thinking so now for their faces are never seen in the de vational room of late. Men both young and old that used to always be in their seats are never seen there at all now Where is the fault? Probably some of them have drifted away and have fallen into bad habits. We hope this is not so. Let every one go to work and bring them out. We are having good meetinge now, meetings that should not be missed by either young or old. They are very instructive to both ages. If we could get this stay away class back once or twice they would continue to come in. We must look them up and bring them out. Let all feel it their duty to do this, and this part of our work will be accomplished.

But, dear friends, we have greater work than this to look after and the most important work of all. We appeal to every member of this association to take this matter in hand and look after take this matter in hand and look after ROBERTS BROS., it with great interest. This work is before us every day and must have our attention. We must look after these young men that are intemperate love to loaf around saloons. Now is it not the duty of every mem ber of the Y. M. C. A. to look after these men and see if they cannot get them to attend our meetings? Why it must be, if we ever intend to do any good for it. We must also look after these young men that stay around corners Sunday evenings. them will eventually fall into bad company, and after awhile you will see them standing there on the same corner watching to see if the way is clear and when it is, you will see an object dart like an arrow in a side door that is already prepared for them. What a sad picture this is! Hold it in front of you and see how it looks !

Not longer than a week as we were going home from our work late Satur day night, we heard some one call from behind us stepping and looking behind we saw a man that it was impossible for the sidewalk to hold. We knew the cause well enough but asked the gentleman what was the trouble. He replied in a broken voice that he was lost and did not know where he was. wanted to go home but could not find the way. He also said that he felt like going on overboard and drown himself. Now to those that drink and get drunk we ask you to look at this picture. This man wanted to drown himself, when he had a kind wife that was waiting patiently for him at that late bour, wondering what the trouble was, whether some aboident had not befallen him, and ready to forgive even if he did come home drunk. You should not treat your dear wives this way. They are lways kind to you.

But we will all have a home to look for after awhile, and do we expect to find it if we do not accemplish any thing? We do not think it possible that we will. We would like to have more to say about this matter, but space will not permit. Let every mem-ber see if they cannot bring one or two outsiders with them this evening. We can if we try, and let all try with
