Well, the cause of it is, they are getting nicer goods for the same money than at any other Grocery Store in the city, and you know that it is what the people want. I declare I have not failed on my bread a single time since I have been getting that nice flour of his at only 3c. per lb., and that Butter is always sweet and nice and is perfectly delicious on those hot rolls.

This conversation is correct; that is just what I am doing. If you don't think so, come and try. Money refunded if goods not found as represented. To the smokers I will say that I have 25 cases more Tar Heel at 40c. per lb. in any quantity. Also the best 3 for 5c. Cigar in the world. may 23

THE A. M. E. Z. CONFERENCE.

At the close of the report of the seventeenth day, on Monday night, the conference was concerning matters in connection with the Book Concern. The following board was elected to govern the Book Concern: Bishop J. P. Thompson, President, J. H. White, Smith Claiborne, N. J. Green and the pastor of Zion church in New York.

The following resolution of thanks was introduced by Rev. B. F. Wheeler and unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The general conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion church have had so pleasant a time during our sojourn in New Berne; therefore be it

Resolved, That we thank the mail messenger for the faithful service he has rendered the members of the conference in delivering to them their mail.

Resolved, That we do hereby tender our warmest and most grateful thanks to the pastor, Rev. C. H. Smith and members of St. Peter's church, Rev. A. McIver and members of Clinton chapel, and the good people of New Berne generally, for the cordial and generous manner in which they welcomed us into their midst, and for the proverbial hospitality they have evinced in entertaining us during our sojourn among them. They have not hesitated to deprive themselves of comforts to administer to our happiness. We leave them with the prayer that the giver of every good and every perfect gift may not forget their labors of love; but that He will doubly reward them for all the inconveniences they have undergone for our sake.

Resolved, That we do hereby tender our thanks to the various secretaries of the conference for the able manner in which they have executed the work committed to their hands.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to our stenographer, General T. Morris Chester, for the full and satisfactory reports which he has made of our work in the daily journals.

Resolved, That we tender our warmest thanks to the DAILY JOURNAL, for the full and accurate account it has published of our proceedings from day to day.

Resolved, That we tender our heartfelt thanks to the churches and individuals who have contributed even the smallest amount towards defraying the expenses attending us throughout our session, and upon all who have assisted us in any way, we invoke God's blessings both in this life and that which is to come.

The committee on districts made the following assignments of bishops which was adopted amid applause:

First District, Bishop J. W. Hood.
Second District, Bishop S. T. Jones.
Third District, Bishop J. J. Moore.
Fourth District, Bishop J. P. Thompson.

Fifth District, Bishop T. H. Lomax.
Sixth District, Bishop C. C. Pettey.
Seventh District, C. R. Harris.

After acting upon the report of the committee on revision in amendment and improving the law of the church, the conference adjourned at midnight.

The eighteenth day of the session of the general conference of Zion Methodist diocese opened yesterday with a full attendance of visitors, who desired to witness the closing exercises of the session.

The hour having arrived for the consecration of the newly elected bishops, Rev. C. C. Pettey and Prof. C. R. Harris, they and those participating in the ceremonies were seated on chairs in front of the chancel.

Bishop J. P. Thompson preached the consecration sermon, after which the Bishops elect were duly consecrated.

The conference then proceeded to close its business, and the general conference of Zion Methodist adjourned to meet in 1892 in the city of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania.

La Grange Items.

The weather is very cold for May. The young men of the city propose organizing a glee club at an early date. We hope their success.

Mr. D. R. Jackson has nearly completed his beautiful residence, which is about one mile from town.

Rev. Mr. Rose preached to a large crowd of children at the M. E. Church last Sunday, that being children's day.

Hon. F. M. Simmons delivers the annual address before the Kinsey School, June 1st. A rare treat may be expected.

We are glad to welcome back our old friend Geo. W. Bizzell, who has been absent for about two months on account of sickness.

Rev. Mr. Fell of Wilson spent Sunday in town visiting his sister, Miss Lula, who has charge of the music department in the Kinsey School.

Dr. J. M. Hadley left last Thursday to attend the General Methodist Protestant Conference in Michigan. The Dr. will be absent for several days.

Jim Aldridge says another cold wave struck the town a few days ago, and that he is now prepared to furnish good drinks at low prices. Three lemonade saloons in town; keep cool is the motto.

Mr. J. J. Herring, jr., who has been travelling as a book agent for some time, returned last week. Some doubt whether Jack's pony is as black as a crow or not.

Prof. Geo. D. Bandick of the La Grange Collegiate Institute delivered the annual address at the Bethel Academy last week. We guess the Prof. got that beautiful bouquet of flowers for his good speaking.

Our opera troupe will go to Snow Hill Friday night the 26th inst., where they will present "Among the Breakers," a drama in two acts. This play was raved to La Grange some time ago and met with unparalleled success. The proceeds are for the benefit of the M. E. Church in La Grange, and it is to be hoped the people of Snow Hill and the surrounding community will give them a big house.

TO MY "BITTER-SWEET."

PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.

You kissed me! my head had dropped low on your breast,
With a feeling of shelter and infinite rest.

While the holy emotion my tongue dared not speak
Flashed up like a flame from my heart to my cheek.

Your arms held me fast! and your arms were so bold,
Heart beat against heart in that rapturous fold.

Your glances seemed drawing my soul through my eyes,
As the sun draws the mist from the sea to the skies.

And your lips clung to mine till I prayed, in my bliss,
They might never unclasp from that rapturous kiss.

You kissed me! my heart and my breath and my will
In delicious joy for the moment stood still.

Life had for me then no temptations, no charms,
No vista of pleasure outside of your arms.

And were I this instant an angel, possessed
Of the glory and peace that is given the blest.

I would throw my white robes unrepiningly down,
And tear from my forehead its beautiful crown.

To nestle once more in that haven of rest,
With your lips upon mine and my head on your breast.

"You kissed me!" my soul in a bliss so divine
Reeled and swooned, like a drunken man foolish with wine.

And I thought (twere delicious to die then if death
Would come while my mouth was yet moist with your breath.)

'Twere delicious to die if my heart might grow cold
While your arms wrapped me round in that passionate fold.

And these are the questions I ask day and night,
Must my soul taste but such exquisite delight?

Would you care if your breast was my shelter as then,
And if you were here, would you kiss me again?"

Jasper Items.

Several young ladies from the adjoining counties are visiting friends and relatives in the neighborhood. We like your bright society and pleasant company, girls, but we really fear if your visit is prolonged another week several of our young farmers will entirely lose their crops.

We had the pleasure of meeting last Thursday at the Grange picnic our old friend, Mr. H. S. Nunn of the JOURNAL. We never knew before Nunn was a talking man, but could you have heard his speech on that occasion, and his noble defence of "Eastern Carolina against the world," you would have opened your eyes with astonishment. It was a good one, and being entirely extemporaneous made it doubly attractive.

To Congressman Simmons we raise our hat in respectful obedience for his prompt recognition of our rights and his active assistance and support in the establishment of our post-office. We "honor those to whom honor is due," and verily the services of Simmons to this community will long be remembered by a grateful people. When the time comes he will recognize the truthfulness of the old adage, for "the old ninth" never forgets favors or forgives her enemies.

The recent rains have given us a fine, healthy stand of cotton. Corn also looks well and flourishing. In the truck line beans will soon be ready for shipment. Then follows potatoes but the crop is very poor, and few if any in this neighborhood will realize half a crop. More sweet potatoes are being set out than at any previous year. This means a plenty of good meat next winter, for our farmers are realizing it don't pay to buy Western bacon when they can raise it themselves here at home much cheaper.

An organizer for the Farmer's Alliance visited us last week. After some difficulty a few of the faithful were gathered together at the school house, an address delivered and a club organized. We have been unable to learn the names of any of the officers elected save that of the President, Mr. Amos Wetherington. In view of the fact that Mr. Wetherington is a strong Republican, there appears but little ground for the current rumor of its being a political organization.

An impromptu leap year hop was gotten up by the young ladies Thursday night after the picnic, and a more pleasant affair I have never witnessed. When we took our departure at a late hour, the dancing was just at its height. You should have seen those blushing boys when like "sheep to the slaughter" they were being led out by their fair partners.

As floor managers, Miss Duffy, assisted by Mr. Geo. Green, jr., and Miss Ewell, of your city, and Mr. Jno. J. Speir, did the honors in most excellent and becoming style. We congratulate the entire management on their complete success.

That Harvest of Combinations.

True delicacy of flavor with true efficacy of action has been attained in the famous California fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. Its pleasant taste and beneficial effects have rendered it immensely popular. It cures the system, cures constipation, etc. H. N. Duffy, agent, New Berne, N. C.

Portraits.

In oil or crayon from life or small pictures done by Miss Annona Small, who is teaching drawing and painting by latest methods, at her residence on Johnston street. [Jan 1st.]

Small Pox.

"A member of my family was taken down with the small-pox. I immediately commenced to use Darby's Prophylactic Fluid. It kept the atmosphere of the room pure and fresh. The patient was greatly relieved, and never for a moment delirious; and never, and was about the house again in three weeks, and no others had it."—James W. Parkinson, Ed. "The Caterer," Phila., Pa.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.

Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for "diarrhoea." Twenty-five cents a bottle. war17duthastwly
