Resisting Police.

Councilman Williams, the acting mayor, had before him_yesterday Wm. Coleman, col., for resisting a police officer, and being found guilty the evtreme penalty, $20 and cost, or thirty days on the streets, was imposed. If there is any offence for which the extreme penalty ought to be imposed, that of resisting an officer is the one. Such resistance is a trying tempfation to the officer to use the club, and when he forbears and appeals to the law the law ought to be executed in a manner that will protect him in the future.

JACKSON, MISS., May 25.-A well among the negroes at Tongalas college, six miles north of this place, on the Illi mencement day at the college yesterday, and a large crowd of negroes assembled there. It is said that they were drinking a good deal. When the 4 p.m. down train passed, some shooting had taken place, but no one was hurt. Later a telegram was received by the city marshal, urging him to bring, up his whole police force, as a riot was in progress. Nothing definite can be learned. No answer can be got from learned. No answer can be got from the telegraph office. It is rumored that several negroes have been killed.

A Mystery.

What is a mystery? One of Webster's definitions is "that which is beyond human comprehension until explained To some persons the Compound Ozygen is a mystery. Any one who would like to clear up this mystery and know "what Compound Oxygen is-its mode of action and results," may receive a work with that title, containing nearly two hundred pages of interesting reading free of cost on sending address to Drs. Starkey & Palen, the physicians who have so successfully used this treatment and who seek to satisfy the natural cariosity to have the "mystery explained. Their new offices are at 1529 Arch street, Philadelphia.
