Fastidiousness has committed so many forgeries on the firm of delicacy, that this poor virtue is near-Is reduced to a state of bankruptcy. Familiarity inevitably destroys delicacy. Perhaps this is the rea-son why the society of strangers is sometimes more agreeable than that of our most intimate relatives. Delicacy respects the feelings of everybody. It not only abstains from wounding the sensibilities of a modest woman, but even from trifting with the fancies of a nervous hypochondriac. Human life is full of so many grossness, each of which gives a fresh wound to delly reduced to a state of bankruptcy. which gives a fresh wound to delunder repeated blows. At fifteen, our feelings are in their most sen sitive state; at thirty, we regard with indifference things which, in younger and purer years, would have annoyed us exceedingly; at fifty, our beauty and our delicacy are both withering together-it is but paint for the former, and affect ation for the latter; and in old age, to find those emotions of the soul would be as wonderful as to meet a smooth and rosy complexion. To a certain degree, delicacy is a virtue; let it get a step beyond, and it becomes the most childish imbecility.

A Mystery.

What is a mystery? One of Webster's EXAMINE HIS IMMENSE AGGRE definitions is "that which is beyond hu man comprehension until explained To some persons the Compound Ozygen is a mystery. Any one who would like to clear up This mystery and know "what Compound Ozygen is-its mode of action and results," may receive a work with that title, containing nearly two hundred pages of interesting read ing free of cost on sending address to LOADED DOWN Drs. Starkey & Palef, the physicians who have so successfully used this treatment and who seek to satisfy the natural curiosity to have the "mystery" explained. Their new offices are at 1529 Arch street, Philadelphis.

Friendship has a noble effect upon all states and conditions. It relieves our cares, raises our hopes, and abates our fears. A friend TO OUR MAMMOTH STOCK, who relates his success talks himself into a new pleasure; and by opening his misfortunes, leaves part of them behind him.

VeryItruly yours,

"Another wonderful discovery has - been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its several tests, but her vital orgaps were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. the bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus write W. C. Hamrich & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Get a bottle free at R N. Duffy's drug store.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for 'diar-hosa. Twenty-five cents a bottle.
