This invitation we should be especially pleased to have accepted and be among the happy people of our sister city on that occasion of rejoicing, but having reached it on the evening of the 15th we were unable to do so. Our congratulations are none the less hearty to the projectors of the road, however, as we are gratified to see and all enterprises that look to the advancement of the interest of any part of our State.

No longer on Crutches.
It is a pleasure to note that Mr. R. N. Duffy, who was so severely injured some two years ago by being run over by a carriage driver, no longer has to use crutches. He has walked around the square and is quite as active as before the accident. Being ever watchful of the needs of the sick and afflicted, he is putting up a bill of preparation for cramp from a recipe of the late Dr. Walter Duffy which was known to be a good remedy by all who used it.

Judge Fowle Cordially Received

As announced in Sunday's issue, Judge Daniel G. Fowle, the Democratic candidate for Governor, passed down for Morehead City last night. The Young Men's Democratic Club, though not yet organized, assembled in front of Hotel Albert at 7 p. m. and went in a body headed by the N. B. S. F. Band to the depot to greet their stand at the head of the State market. There was a large crowd present and when the train pulled in the band struck up music and continued until the yells for Fowle drowned its enervating notes.

The Judge stepped from the car and was conducted to the edge of the platform by Hon. S. G. Clark who introduced him to the Club in his usual pleasant and felicitous style.

The Judge gave the large and enthusiastic crowd the benefit of about ten minutes of his burning eloquence, in which he spoke of his love for the whole of North Carolina, but especially the section wherein he was born. No portion of God's green earth, said he, had been blessed with more natural advantages than this Eastern section, and if elected Governor he would lose no opportunity to aid and encourage its development in conjunction with other sections of the State. Any scheme by which this section could be developed and the people put on the road to prosperity, that would not incur a debt to the State, he would warmly support and encourage.

The Judge was frequently applauded, and when he spoke of a large red bandanna and waived it to the crowd, the applause rose to a regular Confederate yell. He closed by telling his hearers that he was not a crabbled man but he was anxious to get to Morehead City where he would tackle some of those that.

The reception was a hearty one and the Democrats of a town will give him their hearty support in November next.

Colored Teachers' Institute.

The colored teachers' institute for a town county opened yesterday with about twenty teachers in attendance. Superintendent Long was present and assisted in organizing and getting them down to work.

This institute is restricted to the colored teachers of the county and is designed to benefit them as teachers. Teachers from other counties who wish to attend will be required to pay a fee. The institution is free to those from the county. The superintendent of the county, the parents and children who patronize the schools, have a right to demand of teachers that they qualify themselves for their work, and the board of education has established this institute to aid them in such preparation.

It is the duty then of every colored teacher of the county to attend and enter earnestly into the work. Our county superintendent, who is thoroughly devoted to his work, will give them all the aid in his power.

Richard Battle, Esq.

Richard Battle, Esq., of the editorial staff of the News and Observer, arrived last night.

Mr. Battle is fresh from the National Democratic Convention where he served as a member of the Committee on Platform and Resolutions. He made a vigorous effort to have a resolution passed favoring the repeal of the entire internal revenue system. In this he had the hearty co-operation of Senators Gorman of Maryland and Baynor of Virginia who both spoke favoring it, but failed because of the opposition of Henry Westerman of the Courier-Journal who opposed it.

Others on the committee who maintained the opposition that the bill now before Congress is the greatest relief at present obtainable upon that subject.

Whereas, He was for a long while a devoted member of our Sunday School for a number of years and efficient superintendent and ever since a most paternal and faithful teacher thereof.

Resolved, That in the death of our dear father the Methodist Sunday School of New Bern has lost its most valuable and beloved member, one who through his long life had been devoted to the best interests and who by his unwearied labors, earnest prayers, inspiring songs and wise counsel, did much to increase our members and bring our school up to its present high standard of efficiency and usefulness.

Resolved, That while we bow in submission to the will of our Heavenly Father, and say "The Lord gave and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord, yet we mourn the absence of a brother and mourn his loss, and the loss we have sustained by his death.

Resolved, That as individuals we will do all in our power to glorify in his example by giving us all our hearts to God and the best interests of our school even unto death.
