Kinston Items.

Miss Annie Foy of Jones county is visiting Mrs. F. E. Beaton.

Hotel Tull has lately been beautified and protected by lightning.

Miss Anna Pearce of New Bern is spending a few days with Mrs. Henry Dunn.

Richard Battle, Esq. of the News and Observer was in town Monday and Tuesday, increasing his list for the campaign.

Mr. W. G. Harper lost the other of his twin children by death Saturday, the 24th, which was buried Sunday afternoon.

Mr. J. J. Bizzell has lately learned that he is entitled to several hundred dollars by the death of one of his insurance club.

Mr. H. T. Ham and family of Mt. Olive, have been spending a few days with relatives, the families of Messrs. H. C. Bowen and L. E. Duffy.

Town ordinances for Kinston have lately appeared. Some changes have been made for the better, and if well enforced we will have a clean orderly town.

Mr. Jas. H. Taylor brought in the first cotton blossom of the season on June 21st. It had shedded off when found and must have opened as early as the 20th.

Prof. Rott of Maxwell of Henocah, Duplin county, has recently returned from Boston where he has been taking an advanced course in phrenology under Dr. Buchanan.

A small colored child in our town drank about a table spoonful of lye Tuesday afternoon and died on Wednesday morning. Mothers should be very careful to keep such out of reach.

E. L. Miller, Esq., arrived from New York Saturday. He has lately graduated in a law school, and has come to spend some time with relatives before entering upon the practice of his profession.

Mr. Abbott has been shipping drain tiles to La Grange for the town and to farmers near by. This is one of the many industries which we need to give our town permanent growth. Let others be inaugurated.

Mr. J. Thomas Midyette and Miss Selma Dunn were married at Mr. N. D. Myers on Wednesday morning, June 20th. Dr. Harper officiating. They took the morning train for Washington, D. C., where Mr. M. has been doing business.

Mrs. George Hartfield, wife of Mr. Frank Hartfield, died suddenly Tuesday night the 19th, from heart trouble. She was a most excellent lady and leaves a host of friends as well as a devoted family to mourn over her departure.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rayner's young child died on Tuesday. Its death was unexpected as the sickness had not seemed severe. The disease peculiar to the season make it important that we guard the diet of the small children, avoiding anything which is heavy, heating or inflammatory.

The Prohibition medal contest at Worth's school house Saturday night was a grand success. Every seat was filled and the three (3) classes did splendidly. The winners of the silver medals were Misses Annie Jones, Eliza Hodges and Annie H. Worth. The next contest will be Saturday, July 7, 1888, at 8 p. m.

A new mail route has been established from Kinston to Trenton tri-weekly via Cobb Mills (Cohopa P. O.) and Mr. Spencer Phillips (Bowen's P. O.). Bids for the route will be received at the Kinston office till July 3d, for service to begin July 16th and end June 30, 1889. We suggest that those desiring to carry the mail bid just as low as they can afford, and then if some man in Washington, D. C., or some other distant place gets it let him come down and carry it himself.

One of our most attractive widowers called on one of our visiting young ladies just a short while after she arrived on the morning train, staid till the dinner bell rang, returned early in the afternoon and remained till the supper bell rang but refused to eat and left only to return in a short while and remain till the later hours of the evening. This has been much the order of things for several days, and the situation is becoming distressingly lovely and must soon come to the crisis for better or for worse.

The Prohibition Association met in the court house Friday. A. J. Loftin, Esq. moved that we do not put out a third county ticket but each member vote as he sees proper. Mr. W. H. Worth offered an amendment that we endorse the Prohibition tickets of the State and U. S. and put a county ticket in the field. After a lengthy, spirited discussion the amendment was lost by a vote of 16 to 17 and the motion carried by 17 to 15. Resolutions were then passed by a vote of 19 to 12, that the members will not vote for any man who is opposed to the local option laws of this State and is not in favor of electing others when demanded by the people, unless we believe him to be sober, competent and law abiding.

An effort is being made to change the mail route from Kinston to Comfort, and let it terminate at Richlands instead of Comfort, leaving off Comfort and going through the new road, which makes the distance to Richlands only four miles further than to Comfort; tri-weekly mail any way by the Trenton-

Richlands route. This would make the route of much more value to both Kinston and Richlands. Richlands is the center of the richest township in Onslow county and should be connected with Kinston by a tri-weekly mail. We hope Mr. McClamm will unite with our Mr. Simmons in putting through this change and thus add other laurels to their present well deserved popularity.

With these items we part company with the JOURNAL and its readers. We do so with best wishes for the editors and its many readers:
