Selfishness and Self-Blindness. There are people who have no law but the inclination of the moment. With them the most solemn promises are but cobwebs, to be swept away by the cunning whisper of malice, or the breath of circumstance. Principle, honor, duty, are but as reeds, to be snapped or twisted or warped to meet a present emergency. The annoyance or discomfort of today, though selfincurred, is to be avoided at cost of criminal wrong toward others.

How should it be else with those whose life has no governing principle but that of personal case? who can find reasons and excuses for everything that tends to this! obligations on which it tramples to

But alas for the day when conscience shall remove this self sealing filth from the eyes, and show that to be a lie which has been delusively hugged as truth; those self-seekers to be foes who claim the holy title of friends. Alas for the day when the grave comes between such mistaken ones and the reparation they fain would make!

COTTON MILLS OF THE SOUTH. -Cotton mill building in the south is being pushed with almost blind zeal. Within two months announcements have been made of sixty new mills. One at Athens is to double its capacity from 5,000 to 10,000 spindles. A thread factory is to be built near Barnett Shoals Ga. A Merchantville, N J., projector will put up a large amount of knitting machinery at Monbo, N C. Spartansburg, S. C, is to have a $100. 000 mill.-New Orleans Times-Demo

A MAN from the country applied lately to a respectable lawyer for legal advice. After detailing the circumstances of the case, he was "The Compound Oxygen Treatment," Dra. asked if he had stated the facts Starkey & Palen, No. 1639 Arch street, Philacircumstances of the case, he was exactly as they occurred. "Yes, sir," replied the applicant, "I have toon years, is a scientific adjustment of the elements of Oxygen and Nitrogen magneticed, and the compound is secondensed and made portable that it is sent all over the world.
