sailed for New York on last Wednesday. THE canvass of the State is pro-pressing to the satisfaction of the Democratic party.

OBLIGATIONS of patriotism can must do his duty.

EVERY Democrat should work as if the success of his party depended on his individual action.

IT is proposed to build a bridge across the English Channel, between England and France.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has returned from a short vacation, and is now. at the White House.

THE greatest danger to the Democracy both in the State and the nation is over confidence.

ACRITLIS, sulking in his tent was a greater foe to Greece than Hecter on the field with all Troy Steamer Movements.

Let us attempt great things and expect great things. Allen G. Thurman, the defender of labor and the champion of the people, opens his canvass in Michigan.

It now seems that the Bulgarian throne will be vacant for a considerable period. No prince of high family and real merit, will accept a place of such questionable honor and certain danger.

FHR pretense that factories, workshops, and mills are closing because of the passage of the Mills bill in the House is all nonsense. The money kings know very well that the bill will not pass the Senate.

THERE are those who claim that there is a decline of duty in society. We do not believe this. 'In certain places or persons you will find much to sadden and dishearten, but take the world as a whole we see that it is growing better. It will not do to make sweeping generalizations founded on limited obpervation. Homer lamented that his people were not physically the equals of men before his day when really they were apperior. Men there are now who fancy that the former days were better than ours, and that there is no real progress; hat candor, truth, self-respect and ity are declining. At a meeting of the stockholders of the Eastern Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial Fair Association it was decided to open the next Fair on the 3rd Tuesday in February 1889. This is a good time. Oysters will be fat, shad will be in their prime; the truck not be transferred. Every man farms will be green, and the farmers will have a little leisure time to show up the products of their farms the preceding year and of their forest. Eastern farmers remember to lay by a You kin talk about yer watermillion red sample of their best products and be sure to come to the Fair. Large premiums will be offered and liberal inducements in every way will be given to visitors and exhibitors.

A Chance for the Boys.

Our Wilmington friends are moving for a firemen's tournament. All the volunteer companies of the Carolinas are to be invited and test prizes are to be offered. Now put up a prize worth contesting for and John Green, Bill Ellis, Jimmie Moore and Ed. Pavie will smile. We copy a notice of the movement from the Star in this issue.

Judge George Rodman on the Tariff. Judge Rodman has announced that he will soon take the stump and insist on a scriptions have met with a generous "detective" tariff and a tax on "de fur-rin" goods. He don't care anything eight hundred dollars, and they are about the red "mandammus," but make the one thousand dollars neceswants to uphold the principles of his party. An old Jeffersonian Democrat came in contact with him down Middle street a day or two since and for a while the conflict was warm. Finally the Democrat put the question squarely, "Are you in favor of high tariff or low tariff?" "I'm for taxing de furrin' goods," replied Rodman. "Answer the question," said the Democrat, "are you in favor of a high or low tariff?"

"I'm in favor of a detective tariff." "Answer the question," said the Democrat with considerable emphasis, "ARE YOU IN FAVOR OF A HIGH OR LOW

TARIFF?" "Well, den," quickly replied Rodman, "what sort o' tariff is you in favor

"I'm a high tariff man, replied the Democrat. "Now what are You?" "Well-I'm in favor ob a tariff,

So the Judge will stump the county on a "low detective tariff on furring goods!" He didn't may a word about otesting the labor of the country.

The Entertainment Last Night.

The Steens had a good audience last night and their entertainment surpassed expectations, and was entirely successful. The powers of Miss Steen Several bales of cotton, old stock, on are indeed wonderful. The performance must be seen to be appreciated.

> A committee consisting of Maj. Hughes, Dr. Knox, Dr. Duffy, Messre. George Ash, Besil Manly and C. T. Watson, was on the stage to see that everything was conducted fairly. The audience was well pleased. Performance again tonight.

A Correction.

Maj. Barrett is out in a card in the of securing the increased mail facilities to Johnson's Mills about where the JOURNAL first fixed it. In our notice of the increase of service on this route we simply mentioned Maj. Latham in connection with it because it is in his distriot and we had good reason to believe that he had done his whole duty in the matter. If the Gazette, which took exceptions to our notice, wishes to do its representative justice it will now copy Maj. Barrett's card.

And, by the way, while we are on the subject of increasing mail facilities, township, Lenoir county, we ask Major Barrett, Senators Ransom and Vance and all the rest of the North Carolina delegation, to assist Mr. Simmons in to the new office, Repose, that was established in that township some six Suffolk-Burned. NORFOLK, Va., Aug. 1.-At half past 10 o'cleck this morning a destructive fire began in Suffolk, Va., which was not controlled until 4 o'clock this afternoon. It originated in the oil warehouse of Jas. P. Webb's drugstore in the Excelsior Block. The burnt district extends from Main to Bank street on the north to Norfolk & Western Railroad depot on the south. From Ballard & Smith's corner on Washington Square. west to the Suffolk Lumber Company railroad on the east, nearly the entire business part of the town, is destroyed. The loss is roughly estimated from $350,000 to $400,000, with insurance far below the loss. A large number of dwellings were burned and many families rendered penniless.
