Not One Week Only.

EDITOR JOURNAL:- In your Sunday morning issue the notice of the weekly nen (some of them old men, yet young in the cause of Christ), was headed "A Week of Prayer." Thinking this might lead to a misunderstanding, I thought it best to correct the mistake.

In one sense of the word it is a week Conductor Wooten, on Sunday when of prayer, but then every week in a a little this side of La Grange discovered Christian's life should be a week of a colored man stealing a ride; upon prayer, but the special hours to which the notice alluded were not only for the present but for future weeks also, which we hope will last for many months to come. These weeks of prayer, which have been going on now for a number of months, have been a great source of spiritual enjoyment to all who have participated in them, and those who are teachers in Israel say they have been strengthened in their faith and encouraged in their labors by being present.

Now, Mr. Editor, these prayer meet pany. State Association of Democratic (lubs,

A number of important organizations have called conventions to meet in the State at various dates occupying the time from the 14th to the 28th of August. We note especially the assembly of the Farmer's Alliance, the Inter-State Farmer's Association and the Horticultural Society. These will engage the attention of many of our farmers who made by Dail Bros. to us as trustees, we desire to attend the Club Convention. We recognize our intelligent farming interest as the largest and most influential element of the State Democracy. Therefore it is deemed advisable to postpone the assembling of the Clubs.
