YELLOW FEVER QUARANTINED. Although poor old New Bern has received ridicule and abuse from her sister towns, she is still prepared to say there is not nor has there been one case of yellow fever this season and with the present prevention of the physicians and city council, with the assistance of the proprietor of the Only Cash Store in North Carolina, at Humphrey & Howard's old stand in New Bern, there will not be. Hence the proprietor, Hill Humphrey, wishes to say to the people of Eastern North Carolina they need not hesitate to visit New Bern, that his quarantine against high prices is a protection for all.

It is with the people of a community what shall be the status of that community as regards its connection with the outside world. Those communities whose individual interests are more closely allied one with another are the most progressive, and exert the strongest interest for the general good. It is well for all men to act in a manner that will protect their individual interest as one individual interest may have to oppose the other in the cause of trade, but it is in my opinion that unanimity of feeling and concert of action is of the very utmost necessity for the life of any business community when it comes to a question of its dealing with the outside world. The life of a human being is very short, and the life of a corporation is the combined lives of many generations of men. We today are living in the condition that our ancestors created for us, and our descendants will reap the harvest that we will necessarily sow. There is a grave responsibility resting upon the present generation, and we as men with the destinies of our followers in a large measure in our hands should be careful as to how we act. It is not the best plan to be over cautious always, and it is not well to jump at conclusions. Take the matter as it stands. We have in our community as much brain and energy as there is in any community of its population, and to utilize it for the best interest of all is what is necessary, and what we should strive to do. A meeting of the old and young men of this community to consider questions of mutual and general interests is a move in the right direction for the simple reason that the impetuosity of youth can be restrained by caution and reason, the result of age and experience, and we thereby can accomplish by arriving at the happy medium more satisfactory and permanent results for good by our combined labors.

STATE NEWS CONDENSED.

Wilmington Review: Dr. Thomas F. Wood, of Wilmington, gives the Review some points on cutting weeds that should be generally read. He says: "Actively growing weeds do no harm. They absorb water from the soil, draining it to a certain extent and giving off oxygen, and this latter process goes on from the most unsightly and noxious weeds. Therefore it is better to leave them standing in August than to cut them down, thereby laying bare the soil, and causing malarial emanations from it. Later on just before the weeds begin to die, they should be cut and carried right away. Weeds should be prevented in February and March by thoroughly weeding as the seed come up."

The Verdict Unanimous.
W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of Rheumatism of ten years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Bellville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys or blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at R. N. Duffy's drug store.

Carteret County Items.

Farmers have had a good time to get fodder, and have about finished that expensive and laborious work.

Rev. J. G. Johnson has just closed a successful religious revival at Bethlehem church near here. Bro. Johnson is a young man but an excellent preacher, and his sermons, in his circumspect christian walk, an influence for good but little less powerful than his edifying soul-stirring sermons. There were 9 accessions to the church, while many were deeply moved and the church greatly strengthened spiritually.

Dr. J. W. Sanders has begun to house his corn ensilage. He commenced yesterday morning with 6 carts and about 15 hands, some of them boys, and gathered from the field and put in his silo 35 tons of ensilage in less than a day. He has a No. 12 Shelling cutter which cuts the stocks, ears and blades into half-inch lengths. This is put in the silo in its green state, which undergoes a vinous fermentation, but remaining bright and succulent, affording a nutritious and cheap winter feed for all kinds of stock. Dr. Sanders makes three cuttings, four or five days apart in order for the silage to heat and shrink before putting on the top pressure. By this course a small house can be made to hold one-quarter more than to fill up all at once, and there is much less liability of overheating and souring. This is his second year in the business, and thinks it is a vast improvement on the old style of saving long forage. On fair land 10 tons per acre is not a large yield without manure. The cost, all told, when well managed will not exceed one dollar per ton, including rent of land, manure, planting, cultivating, harvesting, etc. This is over rather than under the real cost per ton. The house for keeping the silage can be very cheaply constructed even when built, as Dr. Sanders is, on top of the ground out of wood.

Hon. Thos. G. Skinner, our Congressional candidate, and Col. Geo. Brown, jr., Presidential Elector, spoke here last week to a large and appreciative audience. Their speeches were well received, carrying conviction to the minds of the people that this great government was open, and much more economically administered by the Democratic party than by the Republicans, and that the Democratic party stands today the champion for low taxes, and the uncompromising enemy of trust companies and monopolists that are combining their immense wealth against the producers and laboring classes of the country. Hon. Skinner is honest and capable and will receive Carteret's undivided Democratic vote. The Democrats did well also in securing Col. Brown to represent Grover Cleveland in this district. He won for himself much praise for his excellent speech and demeanor. The county candidates will be around later, and we propose to have a big dinner, and invite Hon. F. M. Simmons and other great speakers to be present. The Democrats of North Carolina cannot be too active in their county canvass. Should we lose the Legislature, the law-making power of the State, it would be a calamity far more ruinous to us than the defeat of our National and State ticket combined. It would result on the 27 negro counties of the East incompetent and extravagant management that recall the dark days of 1868 and 1870. It will not do to remand these counties into the hands of incompetent negroes and unscrupulous and highly prejudiced scoundrels—counties that contain one-third of the white population of the State, and pay more than $800,000 of our annual tax. No good Democrat can afford to remain away from the polls next November, nor is the mountain remain indifferent to the great issue at stake. Work, work and work North Carolina from the end state that Republicanism would entail on her, and especially the 27 negro counties of the East, should they gain the Legislature.

Kinston Items

County Commissioners will be in session next week.

From most every section of our county crop reports have a cheerful tendency.

Business is thought to be on the eve of a revival. New cotton is expected in a few days.

The fall term of Kinston College begins next Monday. The prospects are bright for a full attendance.

Sheriff Sutton took up three prisoners for the penitentiary at Raleigh Monday—two colored and one white. They go for one year each.

Mr. Abe Oettinger, of Oettinger Bros. has returned from the North. He purchased an attractive stock of fall goods which are constantly arriving.

Judge Merrimon made a fine impression on our people. He is exceedingly jealous of the rights of persons and abhors the idea of depriving a man of his liberty without due course of law.

Since the Goldsboro Lumber Company has boycotted New Bern perhaps it would be well to enlarge the saw and blind factory that once flourished here by adding more machinery and doing a larger range of work.

The street force is cutting down weeds and grass from the sidewalks and making them look much better though we do not think it wise to let this green vegetation remain where it is out down and decay.

We learn that the Democratic convention in Greene county has brought forward the stock or no fence law to be voted on during the canvass. It being a two edged sword the politicians of both sides are in a strain.

The Cleveland and Fowle banner floats proudly in the breeze from its one hundred and fifty foot pole. This is the work of the Young Men's Democratic Club and it is only an earnest of what it will do during the campaign.

Mr. Paul Hodges, son of S. E. Hodges, has returned to Chapel Hill to resume his studies. It has reached our ears that Paul is quite diligent in his books which we are always glad to hear spoken of any of Lenoir's sons.

The Republican convention draweth nigh and still the slates has not been made durable and sound. This rather indicates a warm time. What's the use of making a fuss about it? The men who will be elected have already been put before the people.

Misses Lena Fields and Daisy Rayner left Monday to enter Salem Female College. Miss Mattie Stone leaves next week for Fiske Institute, Raleigh. Mr. Plato Collins also left Monday for the University at Chapel Hill. These people have all received training from the schools of our town and we know they will make a good record.

Its Delicacy of Flavor

And the efficacy of its action have rendered the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, immensely popular. It cleanses and tones up the sluggish and feverish system, and dispels Headache, Colds and Fevers.

SPECIAL NOTICE TO CONSUMERS

Having put my delivery wagon on the street, I am now in a position to furnish ALL my customers with FIRST CLASS Groceries at a rate not only a very small profit. I defy competition, warrant my goods, and only ask a trial to convince the most doubtful. Now some of my friends say that my advertising and my wagon don't pay me (with my small profits), and that I will soon break. Let me be the best judge of that. I am still paying 100 cents of the dollar, my property is in my own name, and I am determined to sell good groceries cheap.

FOWLS and Dockery have met.

Disinfectants "am ris."

"RATS!" No rats. "Cues!" No; nothing but fish and bandannas.

HARRISON intended going to the seashore. He has concluded to go to the mountains, and will try salt water later.

WHEN last heard from Walker was bathing Dockery's temples and telling him "I tried to hold Fowle's leg, but, blame it, he kicked too hard."

Don't stop to count the votes, but work ahead and make them. The election managers will count them if you will put them in.

MY stars, how they flutter! Strange that such a good single shot should be such a pot hunter. Wonder if Cleveland's is an English breech loader?

JUDGE THURMAN condenses

the issues of the campaign into two short sentences: "To stop the surplus the Democrats say out down the taxes. The Republicans say spend the surplus."

We need to say "three against one ain't fair." Republican Senators now say "one against three ain't fair," and they are right, for Cleveland cleared out the whole shebang with an Irish shillalah.

It was predicted that the election of Cleveland would produce a financial convulsion; but in the language of the New York World, "As a matter of fact, no administration of Federal affairs has been any more conservative, safe and successful for the past thirty years than that which President Cleveland has conducted."

A NEW METHOD OF TAKING a PROFILE—Early on a very cold morning, a travelling profile center called at the home of a wag, and inquired if he wanted a profile taken. "Yes," was the reply, "I want your face from down."

Personal.

Mr. Wm. Clevé of Vanceboro, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. M. Prag has returned from a trip to the mountains.

Mr. Wm. Foy was in the city yesterday. He says that crops are not quite so good in his neighborhood, owing to the drouth sometime back.

Mr. J. P. Brogden of Trenton, was in the city yesterday.

Has Been of Good Result.

We have scarcely any apprehension of the introduction of yellow fever into our midst, with the great precaution that is still kept up. still all danger is not removed until one or two good frosts. There has been no abatement in the report of new cases at Jacksonville and gradually it is developing at other places where refugees had fled.

Even if there had been no cause for the fever coming here, extra measures looking to the enforcement of sanitary laws has been of great good regarding the public health of our city. Clean premises and clean streets, which has not been the case in New Bern all the time, are a hygienic necessity at all times, but especially in the fall of the year. Any economy in public expenditure which makes sacrifice of these essentials would be worse than extravagance, and the health authorities are the ones on which the responsibilities would rest. These regulations should be strict and made to be observed.

The Editor Off.

The editor is "off" to Morehead where the Democratic clubs of the State are in session, which accounts for this improved issue of the JOURNAL. If it wasn't for his immense physique we would expose a few facts about him in retaliation for past jokes upon his assistant. It will be remembered that he had a big "write up" of his recent pleasure trip to Norfolk, but it has since leaked out that, even long as the "write up" was, he forgot to mention one or two incidents. There are many fashionable resorts adjacent to Norfolk, but he concludes that none of them are too big for a North Carolina editor.

He starts for Ocean View first with a pair that had not been drawn on too long times for a safe return home. It is about dinner time and a peep into the
