SPECIAL NOTICE TO CONSUMERS Having put my delivery wagon on the street, I am now in a position to furnish all my customers with FINEST CLASS Groceries at as low prices and a very small profit. I defy competition, warrant my goods, and only ask a trial to convince the most doubtful. Now some of my friends say that my advertising and my wagon don't pay me (with my small profits), and that I will soon break. Let me be the best judge of that. I am still paying 100 cents on the dollar, my property is in my own name, and I am determined to sell good groceries cheap.

Very respectfully,
THE GROCER, E. B. HACKBURN.

MR. HARRISON'S letter assails free trade. Where is the free trade? Certainly not in the Democratic platform, the Mills bill, or Mr. Cleveland's letter.

DURING the Cleveland administration the government has been conducted on common sense and business principles. More official work has been done for less money than at any former period in the history of the country.

If it be true, as Bolingbroke said, that "a people are judged by the character of those they elect to be their rulers," what would be thought of the refinement and moral elevation of North Carolina should Doakery be elected Governor?

CLEVELAND'S letter may be sifted a thousand times, and every time new jewels will be found. Look at this gem, taken from the casket: "True to the undeviating course of the Democratic party, we will not neglect the interests of labor and our workmen."

"Does one fault disqualify for office?" No, not necessarily. But one virtue cannot atone for a thousand faults. You say he is a farmer. That goes to his credit, but it furnishes no excuse for his slander of a pure woman—no apology for sins against his God, his country and his fellow man.

"Now, honestly, don't you think that Harrison's letter is a good one?" Yes, it is a good letter. That is, it is well written. It is for the most part grammatical, and it will answer the purpose it was intended. If it deceives the people and induces the opinion that taxes are luxuries, and the economical administration of the government a relic of the semi-civilization of our fathers.

When Cleveland shall have been re-elected, and when the obstructive veto power of a Republican Senatorial majority shall no longer exist to paralyze the energies of Democratic administration, then will the country enjoy the fulfillment of the obligations the Democratic party undertook for its nomination in 1884, and to which it again consecrated its energies in the declaration of the platform of 1888.

While every department of the government has been well managed by the present administration it is worthy of note that the Department of Agriculture has never been conducted with such efficiency as it is now. New experiments have been made which promise great results to the agriculture of the country, and the different bureaus have been elevated to such an extent that today the Department of Agriculture in the United States ranks higher than that of any other government in the world.

LOCAL NEWS.

The cotton platform is being repaired. The schooners Sarah A. Wilson and Mary S. are on Howard's ways.

Let those who wish to help Jacksonville send in their contributions TODAY. The Brotherhood of St. Andrews will meet tonight at the residence of Mr. Geo. H. Roberts.

Prof. Theo. Walters has his popular establishment, the photographic gallery, now in working order. His advertisement will appear tomorrow.

Jas. W. Waters, Esq. has fitted up a law office next door below the JOURNAL office where he will be pleased to see his friends on legal business.

We call attention to the advertisement of Mr. William H. Oliver, insurance agent, in today's paper. Mr. Oliver took much interest in getting the insurance so arranged as not to discriminate against cotton packed in light material, and was the first agent in the State, we think, who gave notice to the effect that no discrimination would be made. He also procured the samples of the heavy Dundee bagging which has given great satisfaction to our cotton farmers and which will be very largely used by them.

The Contest in the Ninth Senatorial District.

Col. John N. Whitford announces himself a candidate for a seat in the Senate of the next General Assembly as a representative of the Ninth district. Benjamin Brock, Esq. is the Democratic nominee of the district. It will be a farmer against a farmer, the difference being one is the nominee of his party and the other at the solicitation of friends. The district is Democratic by a large majority.

Marine News. The Unity R. Dyer, Roberts master, is in port from Philadelphia with a cargo of coal for Mrs. E. B. Ellis.

The Melvin, Capt. Howland, sailed yesterday for Wilmington, Delaware, with a cargo of lumber from Stimson's mill.

The Mattie Hiles, Capt. Simpson, sailed for Washington, D. C. with a cargo of lumber from Stimson's mill.

Steamer Movements. The Newberne of the O. D. line sailed yesterday with a good cargo of merchandise and a number of passengers. The Manteo arrived last night.

Three bales of local cotton were shipped North yesterday via steamer Newberne.

The Vesper of the E. C. D. line will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Eslet of this line will arrive tomorrow.

Tinkering With the Tariff.

We are reliably informed that a dealer in hides in this city in explaining why the price of green hides had dropped from four cents per pound to two, said that it was on account of the tariff having been taken off. This dealer is a Republican, but whether he is trying to make votes by making those who have green hides for sale believe that the Democrats are responsible for the low price which they are obtaining for their hides, or trying to turn an honest penny for himself, we are not informed.

The Journal of Commerce of Norfolk quotes green salted hides at four cents per pound. Now every man of ordinary intelligence knows that the tariff is no more taken off of hides in New Berne than in Norfolk, and any man who reads the papers at all knows that there has been no reduction at all in the tariff. If hides have really decreased in price in the market where they are consumed the price must necessarily be lower here, but don't try to fool a poor man who knows no better by telling him the tariff has been taken off.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?

Read the following: Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with abscess of lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

John Middiswari, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at R. N. Duffy's drug store.

Help for Jacksonville.

Our fellow-citizens at Jacksonville, Florida, as our people well know, are sorely afflicted and have asked for help. New Berne cannot turn a deaf ear to the appeal. The JOURNAL has not made any special appeal to our citizens; we have not thought it necessary. We only announced now that all contributions left at this office will be acknowledged and forwarded at once. The following has already been handed in: J. A. Meadows, $10.00; J. R. Redmond, 10.00

To Our Hyde County Friends.

Our attention has been called to a communication from Hyde county published sometime since in the Elizabeth City Economist in which the writer claims that the health officers of New Berne had attempted to send a yellow fever case to that county.

The writer of that communication was certainly misinformed as to the facts or he never would have written such a communication, unless he wanted to misrepresent the people of New Berne.

In the first place there has been no case of yellow fever here. A Mr. Caffee of Hyde county, arrived here about the time a case of fever was reported at Goldboro and was sick, not confined to his bed, but complained of feeling badly. The physicians of the city examined him and pronounced it a case of yellow jaundice. But the report that he was from Florida alarmed our people to such an extent that the city council thought it best to put him on the north side of Neuse river notwithstanding the physicians stated positively that it was not a case of yellow fever. He was sent across the river and the port physician visited him for several days and knowing that he did not have the fever told him he could go home whenever he could get an opportunity.

We doubt not Mr. Caffee will verify the above statement. So far from wanting to send yellow fever cases to Hyde county, New Berne by her rigid quarantine has stood as a safeguard against its being carried there. Any person from an infected district attempting to pass this way is promptly put in quarantine and kept there until it is safe to let him pass.

Obituary Notices. We must remind the patrons of the JOURNAL that we cannot give more than ten lines free of charge to obituary notices. We are willing to give this much space but cannot afford more. We have received enough such notices recently to fill almost an entire issue of the JOURNAL. Those who desire such notices published will please count the words and allow six words to the line and forward ten cents per line for all over ten lines. For instance, if you have two hundred and forty words you will have forty lines; ten lines from this will leave thirty lines, which at ten cents per line will amount to $3.00. It is absolutely necessary to adhere strictly to this rule, or we would often have an issue of obituaries.

Personal.

Mr. Sol. Cohen left yesterday morning for Louisville, Ky., where he will engage in the mercantile business. We are sorry to lose so bright a citizen, but wish him good luck and God speed.

Mr. Chas. Reizenstein left on the steamer Newberne yesterday for New York and will return soon with his family.

Mr. J. L. Hahn left yesterday on the steamer Newberne for a trip North.

Mr. A. M. Baker returned last night from a trip North.

Mr. W. P. Fife of Fayetteville is in the city.

To the Voters of the 9th Senatorial District of North Carolina:

At the solicitation of many of the electors in this Senatorial district, I have consented to become a candidate for a seat in the Senate branch of the next General Assembly of North Carolina to represent said Senatorial district. If I am elected, I pledge my earnest efforts to bring about such legislation as will redound to the good of the farmer and wage-earner in Eastern North Carolina. There is no class or profession in the United States that is not to some extent organized for their mutual protection save the farmer. He who feeds all and clothes all is in my opinion entitled to first consideration, and if I am elected the laboring man, woman and child of every class and race will find in me a true friend whose efforts shall be unceasing for the promotion of their general welfare.

I will publish an address to the voters of this district between now and the election, defining particularly my position on all matters of general interest. I am, your obt. servant,
JOHN N. WHITFORD.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 17.—The official report today shows 32 new cases and 7 deaths. This does not include the report of the medical bureau of visiting physicians which came in just after the official list closed, and embraces 34 new cases, many of which, however, were duplicates. Only seven deaths were reported up to six o'clock this evening, but it is certain that there have been several others during the past 24 hours. The irregularity and want of system among physicians in making reports renders correct figures tonight impossible.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 17.—It seems that the miserable weather will never end. It was a damp, rainy, depressing forenoon. Nine new cases were reported this morning; also three deaths. Several other deaths have occurred, and will be reported later.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The following telegram has been received at the Marine Hospital Bureau from the Mayor of Asheville, N. C.

"The report having reached us that a number of Florida refugees are to be sent to this place, I deem it proper to notify you that no arrangements have been made for their accommodation, and, further, that many of our hotels and boarding houses will refuse to receive them should they come, either in small or large crowds. In every other way Asheville will add to the full extent of her ability."

The Secretary of the Treasury has received several telegrams from Surgeon General Hamilton, in regard to the situation at Camp Perry, Fla. The last one, dated September 16, is as follows: "Present officers 7, guards 9, employes (including carpenters) 45, refugees arrived 31, discharged 15, remaining in camp 156, in fever camp 2. Sanitary inspector Posey was taken sick Friday night."

WASHINGTON, Sep. 17.—Surgeon General Hamilton has telegraphed Mayor Perkins, of Asheville, N. C., that no refugees will be sent to that city.

Memorial Letter.

WRITTEN BY A BEREAVED MOTHER.

My darling Fannie is gone to the world beyond. Her last words were "Please, Mamma, don't grieve for me." She threw her sweet little arms around my neck and kissed me good-bye. Fannie was nine years old in June. She went forward with her own accord and joined the Methodist Church in July, and died Oct. 24, 1888. When she was about six years old she would sit and entertain anybody. Visitors were astonished at her talk. When she was at school she would warn her playmates of doing wrong and tell them what the Bible said. She was so unlike all the children around her. She seemed to have the presence of mind to explain what she had read to any one of angry words that were spoken by anybody, or disappointment or sorrow. Oh how Fannie, my darling one, loved to read the blessed Bible. How eager she was to read and let papa pray. She delighted to read and to learn, and anxious indeed was she to do her Bible deeds of kindness. How eager Fannie was to go to Sunday-school. She had perfect lessons from December, 1887, up to October, 1888.

Oh, the agonies of her poor, bereaved mother. Through the strong arms of Jesus I sought for rest to comfort my poor throbbing heart. "The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away. Blessed be the name."

MRS. WRIGHT MOORE.

The Sage of Seguin.

ARSTIN, Tex., Aug. 8, 1885.

TO MR. A. K. HAWKES—Dear Sir: It gives me pleasure to say that I have been using your glasses for some time past with much satisfaction. For clearness, softness and for all purposes intended, they are not surpassed by any that I have ever worn. I would recommend them to all who want a superior glass. I am very respectfully yours,
JOHN IRELAND, Ex-Gov. of Texas.

DIED.

At his residence on Goose Creek, N. C., on September 12th, after an illness of five days, from inflammation produced by sand spur in the foot, Mr. Ozias Gaskins.

In the death of Mr. Gaskins the family loses a peaceable, loving and devoted husband, father and brother, the church a worthy and exemplary member, the community an honest and industrious citizen.

S. Augusta (Babe) Jackson, daughter of F. and L. E. Jackson, Vanceboro, N. C., just in the prime of youth, 21 years and a few months.

A little less than one year ago she confessed Christ and joined the Christian or Disciple church under the preaching of Bro. J. B. Reepass. She remained faithful, leaving off her worldly habits which she used to engage in. None but those who have experienced a like bereavement can know our sorrow.

Darling daughter thou has left us; And thy loss we deeply feel; 'Tis this all wise God that has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.

Dear daughter, we hope to meet you— When the day of life is fled, Where in heaven we hope to greet you, Daughters, where no farewell tear is shed.
