BUSINESS LOCALS.

NO TRUST BAGGING and TIES at the Only Cash Store in North Carolina, Humphrey & Howard's old store, New Bern, Hill Humphrey proprietor. No trust sugar, coffee, flour or pork. Have not been North this summer, hence belong to no trust. [sep29]w.

HORSE Feed and Cow Feed of every description at 35¢ S. W. & E. W. SMALLWOOD'S.

In order to make an entire change in our business, we are offering our stock of Dry Goods and Shoes at New York Cost. This is no fraud; we mean business. Either retail or wholesale customers will find it to their interest to call on us.

HOURS of receiving ice from the Jarman Ice Factory on Sunday 7 to 9, 11 to 3 and 5 to 7.

PARIS GREEN for destroying the cotton worm at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

A GAIN I am before the public and wish to IMPRESS upon their minds the fact that my Groceries are beyond competition when price and quality are both considered. I have not been North, and thereby incurred an expense of several hundred dollars which the consumer must pay, but have used pen and ink, found the cheapest markets and bought, saving that unnecessary expense, of which I propose to give my customers the benefit. I am now receiving, semi-weekly, Butter and Cheese from the finest Dairies in the country. Try a pound of each, and if you are not more than pleased, return them and get your money. My aim is to please and give perfect satisfaction.

THE GROCER, E. B. HACKBURN.

SPINACH, Turnip, and Siberian Kale at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

PHILA BUTTER, the best in the market, on ice at Dunn's, only 30 cents per lb.

WHITE LEAD, Mixed Paint, Varnish, Oil and Glass at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

USE PURE ICE, manufactured by the Jarman Ice Factory. [sep29]w.

In order to make an entire change in our business, we are offering our stock of Dry Goods and Shoes at New York cost. This is no fraud; we mean business. Either retail or wholesale customers will find it to their interest to call on us.

COALITION is a necessity of the times, inasmuch as the times are progressive, and no progress can be expected in Craven except through the Coalition movement.

PLEASE remember that there is no reason why a citizen of Craven should not vote for Nunn and Russell, and there are a thousand reasons why every man should vote for them.

THE Democrats are again giving odds on Cleveland in the betting in New York city. For some days the betting was even but it is not so now. We don't like betting, because we think it is wrong, but if our friends will bet, we are glad to see that they are putting their money on the winning horse.

SENATORS have again been engaged in heated personalities unbecoming gentlemen. It is very trying to men of character to listen to partisan tirades, but Democratic Senators should remember that they have the argument on their side, and the temper displayed by their opponents only shows their defeat in debate.

LET it be distinctly understood that the freedom of every citizen accords with Democratic theory and practice, and that the oft-repeated cry of Republicans "a free ballot and a fair count," is the condemnation of their own practice; and if honestly made, indicates a conversion as remarkable as that of Saul of Tarsus.

It has been asked, "Do you really think that the election of Dockery would ruin the State?" No, we do not. There is too much virtue among the people for that. There is no power on earth that can stop her triumphant march. But we want no blot on her name; no clog to her wheels. We would have her the fairest in the sisterhood of States; the brightest in the galaxy of stars.

CERTAIN partisans are waving their hats and spitting their throats because half a dozen men in New York city who voted for Cleveland in 1864, will vote for Harrison in 1888. Instead of six we expected not less than ten thousand to go.

The Trust men, and the protective tariff men, can't feel at home in the Democratic party, and they ought to go to the camp where they belong. Thirty thousand New York farmers are marching to the Democratic camping ground and we need room for them to pitch their tents.

THE Signal and its candidate, Colonel Dockery, is trying hard to show that the President has appointed colored men to office. They may rest from their extraordinary labors in this behalf. The fact is not denied. Furthermore, we challenge the opposition to show a single instance in which Cleveland, Thurman, Fowler or Simmons, was ever unjust or unkind to the colored people. It is the fixed determination of the Democracy to stand up to all the people. Our fishermen shan't be oppressed, and our colored people shan't be sent to Africa unless they want to go. Cleveland has thrown the flag around all our people, and the whole Republican party can't tear it away.

LOCAL NEWS.

An extra train leaves at 9 o'clock this morning for Goldsboro.

J. K. Willis, the marble man of Eastern Carolina, continues to beautify Cedar Grove Cemetery with his handsome work.

It was quite cool yesterday, the thermometer ranging from 62 to 65 degrees. Light overcoats and even fires were resorted to by some.

The Winter Resort Association will meet at the office of Green, Foy & Co. at four o'clock Monday afternoon. A full attendance is desired.

The Secretary of the Industrial Association (col.) of Goldsboro has been in the city a few days in the interest of their fair to be held October 28-26. He speaks encouragingly of the prospects.

A visitor who had occasion to hear Rev. H. W. Battle, pastor of Baptist Church of New Bern, in his address before the Atlantic Association yesterday pays a high tribute to the speaker in another column. In no way is it an unworthy one.

The members of the Board of Trade are reminded that a very important meeting of the Board will be held on Tuesday night at the Cotton Exchange. Matters of great importance to the welfare of New Bern are to be discussed. Every member should be in his place and help to push New Bern.

In another place in this issue we copy from the St. Louis Republican a sermon from the Rev. Dr. Joseph H. Foy, D. D. L. D. Dr. Foy having formerly resided in Eastern North Carolina, is well known to most of the JOURNAL readers as an eloquent and scholarly divine.

Jones County Nominations. The Democrats of Jones county held their convention at Trenton yesterday and nominated the following tickets: For the General Assembly, E. M. Fessenden; for Sheriff, F. H. Foy; for Register of Deeds, Jos. A. Smith. With this ticket the Democrats of Jones ought to succeed, and we are confident they will.

Isn't This Too Great a Requirement? A resolution from the Board of Trustees of the New Bern Academy appears in this issue requiring all pupils to furnish themselves with necessary text books or discontinue school. At times it is quite difficult for some pupils to purchase even one new book. We much hope no one will be deprived of the instruction they are entitled to from the effect of this resolution.

The Speaking at Vanceboro. Hon. F. M. Simmons addressed a large crowd at Vanceboro yesterday. H. S. Nunn, Craven county's candidate for the Senate, made a speech of fifteen or twenty minutes, after which Mr. Simmons held the crowd for over two hours, in which we believe he convinced every one present that he ought to be returned to Congress.

Mr. Simmons' speeches show conclusively that he has been a student since he has been in Congress. He has studied the interest of his constituents, and those who hear him are bound to concede that he is the proper man to represent the district. Vanceboro will give him a rousing vote.

Building and Loan Association. The regular monthly dues are payable Monday, Oct. 1. I will receive payment at the National Bank as usual. J. R. B. CARRAWAY, Sec'y.

ATLANTIC ASSOCIATION UNION.

SECOND DAY. SATURDAY, Sept. 29, 1888. The Union met at 10 a. m., according to adjournment, the Moderator in the chair. The devotional exercises of the morning were conducted by Rev. Mr. Nelson, of Kinston.

The minutes of yesterday were read and approved. Rev. J. S. Dill, chairman of committee on time and place of holding the next Union, reported that the next session would be held with the Baptist Church at Goldsboro, commencing on Friday morning before the fifth Sabbath in March.

The Union then proceeded to the consideration of the special order, which was the discussion of "The Influence of Literature." The first speaker was Rev. Mr. Love of Bayboro. Mr. Love started out by saying that he did not understand the purpose of the committee on programme in presenting the subject; taking it as stated, he had all literature before him, and he "would take it from top to bottom." Literature, he said, is of two kinds, the good and the bad. The Bible stands first of all good books. Next come a long line of books, and then follow periodicals and newspapers. Nothing is more hurtful than corrupt literature. It vitiate the taste, undermines the character, and brings ruin and dishonor. The Bible saves; all good books elevate; while good periodicals and newspapers broaden the intellect, expand the heart, and beautify the life.

Mr. Love was followed by Dr. R. H. Lewis, President of Kinston College. Dr. Lewis commenced by saying "Brother Love has covered the whole ground and has done it well. I have but one thought to suggest, and that is the thought that the reading of books seldom converts sinners. There are exceptions. Sometimes souls are converted, and great lights given to the world through the instrumentality of books. Preaching is the great means of conversion, but good books, and good literature generally, is a source of comfort and consolation to the Christian. That Christian who does not enjoy the comforts afforded by the reading of the Bible, the higher and better order of books, and the periodical literature of the day, is living very far below his privileges and is sadly delinquent in his duty.

Rev. Mr. Hires of Kinston followed Dr. Lewis and eloquently pleaded for Sunday-school libraries. He insisted that too few Sunday-schools had libraries, and that the libraries to be found were notable rather for the absence of the right books than because of their presence. Books with accounts of boys and girls, entirely too good for anything, were hurtful. What was needed were wise books, rocks on which to build character.

The next speaker was Rev. J. S. Dill, of Goldsboro. He spoke of the power of the press. He said the press was a mighty machine for good or for evil. It was a power for God, or for the Devil. It was never neutral in the war for the soul. There are three classes of literature; the wholly evil, that which is good or evil according as it is used, and that which is entirely good. The first class blights, withers and destroys all with which it comes in contact. Such is infidel works, science falsely so called, and philosophy run mad. Works of the second class are good or bad, as the case may be. Of this sort, are works of fiction. Nothing is more restful to the intense student that the reading of classic fiction—nothing, possibly, is more helpful to the student of history than historic novels that throw light on the subject of his study. But if fiction is read to the exclusion of science, philosophy, history or anything that concerns this active life of ours, it is ruinous. As soon expect to see a man of powerful muscle who feeds on nothing but syllabus, as an intellectual giant who reads nothing but novels. Of the other class, that which is wholly good, the Bible is first; and we had almost said it stands alone. It has powerful auxiliaries in the works of Baxter and Bunyan, and the rest, but it so far transcends them that comparison is impossible.

Rev. C. A. Woodson followed Mr. Dill and made a plea for denominational literature. Baptist literature. He spoke especially for The Biblical Recorder, the Examiner and the Youth's Companion.

The Moderator, Rev. H. W. Battle, was called on to address the Union. Mr. Battle said "The subject is a grand one. A vast ocean of thought spreads out before us. He then spoke of Southern literature, in terms most gratifying. The Union then, on motion, adjourned until 9 p. m.

AFTERNOON. The Union met at three o'clock. Devotional exercises led by Mr. Weston of Kinston. The subject for the afternoon, "The relation of the Church to the Temperance Question," was discussed by Messrs. Weston, Hires, Love, Battle, Dill and Hancock, after which the Union adjourned.

Good Coalition Argument.

In his speech at the court house on Thursday night last Mr. J. J. Martin, the Republican candidate for Presidential elector, in his appeal to Democrats who might agree with him on the tariff, told them that they could vote for him without becoming Republicans. The JOURNAL has been urging this same doctrine upon the people of Craven county for the last two or three years. We have urged and still urge that Democrats and Republicans of Craven county can unite on men and measures for the benefit of the county without changing their politics. Republicans who vote for Nunn and Russell are not made Democrats by so voting any more than Democrats are made Republicans by voting for Mr. Martin. Neither Democrats made Republicans by voting the Stimson ticket. Mr. Martin has made a good point in Craven for the Coalition ticket. Come again.

THE YELLOW FEVER.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 28.—A marked reduction in the number of new cases and deaths today seems to justify the hope of our people that the worst of the epidemic is over, and that the situation will now gradually, if not rapidly improve. Eighty-five cases were reported today, of which 26 were white and 59 colored. Deaths 5. Total cases to date, 2,433, deaths 142.

There were three new cases at McClenny today—two white and one colored—and one death—F. O. Miller, cigar manufacturer.

No new cases or suspects at Gainesville today. Major Grinnell is critically ill. No reports from Fernandina today. The telegraph operator there is sick with fever and the Nashua Board of Health refused to admit an operator from this city. Superintendent Dillon ordered the office closed, and no messages are received anywhere for Fernandina. All such messages sent here are forwarded by mail, and in the present disorganized condition of the railway mail service will not reach there under 24 hours.

An Enthusiastic Meeting. Friday night—Prof. J. I. Walton, Secretary of Eastern North Carolina Fair, addressed a large audience at Drayton Hall Friday night. The famous star band thrilled the air with matchless melodious music. All manifested interest in the coming Fair and promised to work for its success.

Death of Mrs. Wilkinson. Mrs. Fannie Carraway Wilkinson died at the residence of her husband Mr. W. T. Wilkinson, corner of Tryon and Sixth streets, at 5 o'clock yesterday. She was a daughter of Rev. P. J. Carraway and was an excellent lady. Her lot in life was a happy one.

Lemon Elixir. A PLEASANT LEMON DRINK. Cures indigestion, headache, malaria, kidney disease, fever, chills, loss of appetite, debility and nervous prostration, by regulating the Liver, Stomach, Bowels, Kidneys and Blood.

Lemon Elixir is prepared from the fresh juice of Lemons, combined with other vegetable liver tonics, cathartics, aromatic stimulants and blood purifiers. W. A. Jones, Bell Station, Ala., writes "I have suffered greatly from indigestion or dyspepsia. One bottle of Lemon Elixir done me more good than all the medicine I ever took."

An Old Citizen of Atlanta, Ga., writes "By the recommendation of Rev. C. Davis, I used Dr. Mozley's Lemon Elixir for a severe chronic case of indigestion, palpitation and irregular action of the heart with constipation and biliousness. I also suffered greatly with gravel and great pains in the back and kidneys, much of the time unable to stand alone. I was treated by many physicians and used many remedies, but got no relief. Dr. Mozley's Lemon Elixir alone has made a perfect cure of all these diseases. I am now a well man. My wife has for many years suffered greatly with constipation and sick headaches from which she could get no relief. The Lemon Elixir has permanently cured me."
