"THE enemies of truth never agree except in their hostility to the truth; but from the followers of the truth one system of doctrine could be gathered in all essentials the same."

COALITION has grown very much in favor since it has been understood that it means union of all good citizens for the advancement of the interest of Craven, and entire freedom in National and State politics.

THE election of Henry S. Nunn to the Senate and Richard A. Russell to the House means the representation of Craven in the Legislature by men who will be in accord with that body, and upon terms of political and personal friendship with the Governor of the State.

THE idea that a people can be enriched by a heavy and unnecessary taxation, that a man's condition can be improved by taxing him on all he wears, on all his wife and children wear, on all his tools and implements of industry, is an obvious absurdity.—Thurman.

LESS than three weeks in which to get the full Democratic vote to the polls! Less than three weeks in which to foil slanderer Dockery and slylock Morton! Less than three weeks in which to secure a continuance of the honest, efficient government we have today. Democrats, to work!—News and Observer.

"THERE is hardly such a drummer system known in the world as the Methodist Itinerary. It were vigorously and judiciously worked. What an agency it is, or might be, for the circulation of religious literature as well as for the spread of the Gospel. Fact is one means of spreading the gospel is the circulation of good books, religious papers and tracts."

THOSE who habitually come late to church ought to know that they are not only guilty of great impiety, but also of conduct which inflicts real injury on many. They not only lose a part of the services themselves, but they take from others a large share of the benefit which they would otherwise derive from the sermon, the scriptures, and the songs of the sanctuary. They disturb the devotions of the worshippers, divert the attention of the hearers, and distract the mind of the preacher.—N. Y. Christian Advocate.

The colored fair at Goldsboro opens Tuesday to continue four days.

The steamer Howard arrived from up Trent river with a load of cotton yesterday.

Six mammoth loads of hay were seen at one time on Broad street yesterday. It was home production.

Mr. Carl Duncan was at the Exchange yesterday with a boat load of cotton which was sold at good figures.

The steamer Carolina from Bell's Ferry came in yesterday afternoon full up with cotton, leaving several bales behind for want of room.

The Coalition candidates have finished a good week's work in their canvass over the county. Monday they speak at Conners, Wednesday at Havelock and Thursday at Temple.

A special train leaves this morning at 8 o'clock for Goldsboro for the accommodation of all who desire to hear Rev. Mr. Pearson in the close of the series of meetings he has been holding there.

A flat from Bachelor's creek brought in about 50 bales of cotton yesterday. Not a bale wrapped in jute. It sold for 93-8 per pound, the highest price of the day.

With nine steamers per week to Philadelphia, Baltimore, Norfolk and Elizabeth City, and eight steamboats on Neuse and Trent rivers, our docks present a lively appearance at this season.

The members of the Winter Resort Association are requested to meet at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at the office of Green, Foy & Co. A full meeting is necessary in order to transact important business.

The Coalition candidates spoke at Fort Barnwell yesterday, but up to the hour of going to press we have no intelligence as to the crowd or effect of the forensic display, but have no doubt both were good.

Passengers by a special train yesterday afternoon report a severe hail storm between here and Kinston. The shower of falling hail stones was so great that the train was slowed down on that account.

Hungry thieves entered the house of Mr. Dempsey Wood, on Pollock street, Friday night and made a raid on his pantry. Mr. Wood had just put in a supply of provisions, and the rascals fared sumptuously. Nothing but food was taken.

Persons wishing to bid for the contract to build the roadway to the National Cemetery will be furnished with forms of proposals and specifications upon application to Superintendent O'Brien at the Cemetery. It is hoped that the bidders will be numerous.

Some very fine turnips were on exhibition at the Journal office yesterday. They were of the Flat Dutch and Purple Top variety raised about eight miles from the city by Mr. J. B. Harding. He says that he finds a ready market for them. They would make a nice exhibit at our fair next February.

Office duties prevented our attendance at the Board of Trade meeting Friday night, but we have been informed that considerable business of importance was transacted. They adjourned till next Friday night at which time the principal subject of discussion will be "local railroad matters of immediate importance."

Personal.
Mr. Fred D. Thomas of Union Theological Seminary at Hampden Sidney, Va., is at home for a few days.

Steamer Movements.
The New Berne of the O. D. line arrived last night with good cargo of freight and will sail tomorrow at 12 o'clock for Norfolk direct.

Much of a Potato.
Harry Ellis has raised on the farm of Dr. Frank Duffy across Neuse river an unusually large potato. It measured 24 inches long and 9 inches around the greater portion of its length. After having been out of the ground two weeks it weighed 9 pounds and two ounces. It ought to be kept for exhibition at the fair.

Evening Entertainment.
The ladies of the Methodist Church will give an entertainment at the Mitchell residence, corner of Middle and Neuse streets, on next Tuesday night, October 23.

Admission free. The entire building will be lighted up and opened during the evening for the benefit of the visitors. Refreshments will be served. All many expect an enjoyable occasion.

Foreign Donation.

The ladies of the New Berne Memorial Association have the pleasure of acknowledging the receipt of $1 sterling, kindly donated by Mr. W. S. Linton of London, who is warmly attached to the South, and who expresses himself as glad to contribute to help the ladies in their labor of love in taking care of the graves of the Southern soldiers.

Such sympathy from a foreign land is indeed gratifying, and the ladies tender their sincere thanks to Mr. Linton for his gift.

It is Wrong, Boys.

The Trustees of the New Berne Academy are the custodians of certain property and income which they expend annually for the education of the white children of New Berne.

During the past few months the Trustees have been compelled to take from this sacred fund (which should have been used for education) over fifty dollars to replace broken windows and fences.

The windows were broken by bad boys belonging. It is thought, to the Graded School and the High School. A reward of $5.00 is offered to find out who are the guilty ones.

The mothers will be astonished to find that their good boys have perpetrated a deed which results in abstracting fifty dollars from the educational fund of the Academy. This amount would have paid an extra teacher for nearly two months.

Literary Notices.
Peterson's Magazine for November is a capital number. It is no wonder that so many ladies think they could not keep house without this old established favorite. It has recipes and directions about every matter connected with table or sick room, and invaluable articles on household management. Besides numerous wood illustrations, it contains each month what no other magazine ever gives, a handsome steel engraving. It numbers among its contributors more popular authors than in any periodical of its price. Peterson's Magazine, Philadelphia, Pa.

The story of Tolstoi's life and explanation of his religious teachings by Archdeacon Farrar, which appeared in the October Forum, will be followed by a review of Tolstoi's religion more in detail. A desire has been expressed by many readers of the Forum for Archdeacon Farrar to explain precisely wherein Tolstoi's interpretation of the teachings of Jesus fails; and in a correspondence by cable he has consented to write again and is now preparing the second article.

The eighth volume of Alden's Multifold Cyclopaedia extends from Ceylon to Club-Foot, and is fully equal to its predecessors—its handsome type, numerous illustrations, handy format, neat, substantial binding, and more than all, its skillful editing, which brings within such convenient limits such a vast amount of knowledge, so well adapted to popular needs, are a satisfaction and a delight to students. Not only in its marvellously low price, but in every other respect, this seems better than any other Cyclopaedia suited for use in the homes of the masses, and in our public libraries. A specimen volume, to be returned if not wanted, may be had in cloth binding for 50 cents, or in half Morocco for 65 cents; postage 10c. Address John B. Alden, Publisher, New York, Chicago, Atlanta, Ga., or San Francisco.

Mrs. Mary Hartwell Catherwood, whose serial story, "The Romance of Dollard," begins in the coming November Century, is an American lady residing in Hoopeston, Ill. Among her previous writings are two books for young people entitled "Rocky Fort" and "Old Caravan Days." She has been greatly interested in Canadian subjects since her visit in Canada four years ago, when she was the guest of an American consul's family and saw the inside of Canadian life. She herself has lately said: "The story of Dollard at first impressed me as incredible. I thought over it long before hunting up records, historical evidence, and contemporary life. Finally I began to make it a story." The historian, Parkman, has written a preface for Mrs. Catherwood's novel, and Mr. Sandham, lately of Canada and now of Boston, has made illustrations for it, and it will run through four numbers of The Century.

The Babes Cry For It.
And the old folks laugh when they find that the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is more easily taken and more beneficial in its action than bitter, nauseous medicine. It strengthens the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowels, while it arouses them to a healthy action.

FALL AND WINTER
Millinery Open g.

Miss Harriette Lane
Has just returned from the States with an ELEGANT STOCK of

Fine Millinery Goods which she will display at

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17.
The ladies of New Berne and surrounding counties are cordially invited to attend for these charming styles to 11 o'clock.

DEAR SIR:
Your kind letter of the 14th inst. and contents noted. Many thanks for your kind suggestions on business matters. I am myself a great believer in advertising and have often been convinced of its value. But has it ever occurred to you how difficult it is to get up a good advertisement one that should meet all its requirements what a task it is to tell in limited space and novel manner of all the bargains that a merchant has labored so hard to provide for his customers. Take my case for instance here I have spent nearly a month in the Northern markets spending both time and money in getting together an aggregation of bargains that would astonish the natives were they but to know it. How I am burning to tell them of my new stock, that are so handsome and of such excellent quality that the suit recently exhibited in the House of Representatives as the greatest bargain of the century is nothing compared to it.

How I would like to speak of my fine imported French Worsted and English hosiery, that are, notwithstanding the high tariff, so cheap and such elegant garments that no American citizen could resist the temptation to purchase and wear them. But to do this I must tell you more.

I would like to tell the ladies of my fine imported Albert Suits and stylish overcoats, and the prices at which I sell them to have them go faster than I could replace them.

How glad I am there would be to learn that I am now selling single kneepants separately from the children's suits.

And what do you think of an elegant Gent's K. B. T. Suits, worth $1.50, that I sell for 90c.

And how could I limit myself to a crowd a description of my line of Hats, that comprise the Aquinas, Dunlap and Miller styles, and are bought from first hands and sold at unheard of low prices, and how describe the novelties and beauties I am exhibiting in Neck wear and the Bargains I am giving away in underwear. If you can help me out in my dilemma you will oblige.

In regard to your inquiry I would state that The Battles 22 1/2 Shoes of which I am so diligent, sell so well because the hundreds who have bought them are daily testifying to their merits.

Mr. J. B. Baxter of Pamlico is still with me and desires to be remembered to all his friends. He expects a big trade from his county this fall.

Work for the Long Island Dyeing Establishment, of which I am the agent, is coming in daily and giving great satisfaction. We charge nothing for carrying the goods to and from New York.

Trade in consequence of the big inducements I am offering this fall is increasing daily and prospects are now really bright.

With best wishes, I remain
Yours truly,
GEORGE ASH.
