IT is just two weeks from today to the election.

REPORTS come in of bad conduct on the part of the opponents of Coalition, and retaliation is suggested; but our friends will please remember that a lion never moves a hair when a monkey misbehaves.

THE Coalition candidates have nearly finished the canvass of Craven county. Everywhere the prospect is cheering. Not a single neighborhood has been visited in which they have not found abundant encouragement.

THE political skies are very bright, but it must be remembered that all the work done, and to be done in the two weeks that remain before the day of November, is but preparatory to the work on election day. See to it that every man is properly instructed, and does his duty.

EVERY great battle has its decisive moment, and a single division, a single brigade, a single regiment, a single soldier, may precipitate that moment and bring disaster or success. Let every man see to it that he stands in his place, and he will be a Stonewall in defense of right, his country and his home.

Do you want the general government administered in the interests of all the people? Then go to work for Cleveland and Thurman. Do you want the wise administration, that has made the waste places of North Carolina blossom as the rose, to continue its beneficent influence? Then work for the State ticket. Do you want Craven county to rise from the dust, and clothe herself with strength and beauty? Then work for Coalition. There is no time for idleness. Everything is inspiring. Victory is within our grasp, and we have but to reach forth to it and it is ours.

As the day of the election draws nearer and nearer interest in the floating vote grows more and more. Indiana has so often been the battlefield of Presidential contests that her people are more or less demoralized, and hold themselves subject to the highest bidder. The State Committee of both parties estimate the floating vote at from one hundred to two hundred in each county—making from 12,000 to 16,000 in the State. It is for the capture of this vote that the battle is now raging. It seems that while both parties are confident, their leaders are apprehensive over the floating vote. From the best sources of information, we believe the greater part of this vote will go to Cleveland and Thurman. But if only one fourth of it becomes Democratic, the State is perfectly safe. There are leading Democrats who are of opinion that the electoral vote of the State will be given to Cleveland, even if Harrison captures the entire floating vote. Our confidence that Indiana is Democratic remains unshaken.

The large territory in which New Berne is centrally located ought to make it a marketing point whereby a large wholesale as well as retail trade would be obtained.

The efflored Fair at Goldsboro commences today. We have been requested to state that the fare for the round trip including entrance to the grounds is one dollar and seventy cents.

The Vesper of the E. C. D. line on her last trip brought in five hundred and twenty thousand pounds of freight, four hundred thousand of which was delivered to the A. & N. C. R. R.

A pleasant evening can be spent at the Mitchell residence this evening. The doors will be thrown open and refreshments served. No charges for admission but we will not say about getting out.

Expectations were high but they were fully met in the appearance of Januszek at the theatre Saturday night. The audience was a select one though not large, owing to the day on which people are most busy.

Steamer Movements.
The Eagle of the E. C. D. line will sail this afternoon at 4 o'clock.
The Newberne of the O. D. line sailed yesterday with a full cargo of cotton and passengers. The Mantee will arrive tonight and sail tomorrow at 12 o'clock.

Fair and Festival.
The young ladies of Christ Church propose to have an entertainment for the aid of mission work sometime during Advent season—about the second week in December. The ladies engaged in the matter are a sufficient guarantee that it will be an enjoyable affair.

Santa Claus will be on hand with lots of nice things for the children.

Southern Cotton Mills.
From the Charlotte Chronicle we get some interesting figures on the cotton mills of the South. While the East produces a great deal of the fleecy staple, yet we have very few mills. If we mistake not three new mills are now being erected in Charlotte which will be of great benefit in giving employment to laborers. The manufacturing towns are the live ones and the East must come to it. We need factories to work up the crude material that lies so abundant almost at our doors. The Chronicle speaks as follows:

1857-8.	1888-79
Virginia.....	21,802	18,831
North Carolina.....	78,890	68,978
South Carolina.....	111,208	99,970
Georgia.....	185,977	159,703
Florida.....	32,313	21,865
Alabama.....	17,107	13,974
Mississippi.....	9,602	8,454
Louisiana.....	844	1,180
Texas.....	1,474	1,115
Arkansas.....	36,487	34,088
Tennessee.....	2,938	2,900
Missouri.....	13,815	6,887
Total.....	456,190	401,433

In Georgia and the Carolinas, the consumption by the factories has outstripped the increase in the crop. The Southern Atlantic States, with a production of about 1,750,000 bales, consumed last season 548,643, or one-fifth their own production, in their own mills.

The County Canvass.
We regret that the lateness of the hour at which the report was received prevented a more extended notice of the Coalition meeting at Jasper on last Friday. Considering the fact that everybody in the neighborhood was packing oysters, the attendance was remarkably good.

The speaking was opened by Mr. H. S. Nunn, the candidate to represent Craven county in the State Senate. It may be proper to state, before proceeding further, that Mr. Nunn was first nominated by the Democratic county convention, which nomination was endorsed by a county convention of the Republican party. So also was Mr. R. A. Russell, the candidate for the Lower House. Messrs. D. Stimson, O. Habbema Patterson, Miles Shepard and Henry J. Lovick were nominated by the Republican convention for the offices of Sheriff, Register of Deeds, Treasurer, County Surveyor and Coroner, and a county Democratic convention endorsed their nomination. Thus by the independent, but concurrent action of Democrats and Republicans the Coalition ticket was formed and placed before the voters of Craven. Mr. Nunn spoke remarkably well. We wish we could reproduce his speech. He commenced with a brilliant tribute to Eastern North Carolina, and showed how munificently God had endowed her, and how she had failed to attain the full measure of her greatness because of the total absence of proper representation in the State Legislature. He then turned to Craven, spoke in high compliment of her past history, vindicated her present position, and pointed to the bright future that spreads out before her. He indulged in no fancy sketches, but based his conclusions upon the inexorable logic of facts. He especially advocated the extension of the railroad to Charlotte, or some other place in Western North Carolina. This road built and in successful operation and Craven and the adjoining counties would have an outlet for their productions, and would supply the interior and the West with corn, fruits, melons and veg tables. All were pleased with the speech, and went away satisfied that Henry S. Nunn is just the man to represent Craven in the Senate.

Mr. Nunn was followed by Mr. E. R. Dudley. He is no novice in politics. On the contrary he is a veteran campaigner, and has represented Craven in the Legislature. He too paid a deserved tribute to North Carolina, and then proceeded to a scathing review of the Hahn faction of the Republican party. He had the record with him, which he distributed, and dared a contradiction. His speech throughout was able and convincing. Mr. Dudley is not a candidate, but he is a leading Republican who believes in Coalition in Craven county and is willing to work in the good cause. He has attended all the appointments and his excellent work is fully appreciated.

Next came Daniel Stimson, the present Sheriff, and the nominee for reelection. All that is necessary for him to get votes is for him to be seen. Honesty and sincerity shine out in every feature; but if there are those who cannot see him, let them hear his neighbors talk. He made a short speech, but it was to the point. Every word told. He boldly challenged a comparison of his official record with that of his opponent. "Come to the books," said Mr. Stimson, "and if I have not done my duty turn me out. I'm a fair man myself, and all I ask is fair play."

The last speech was by Hon. O. Hubbs, Coalition candidate for Register of Deeds. It was a clincher. Mr. Hubbs is ex-Congressman and ex-Sheriff, and the present Register of Deeds, and he boldly invited the closest scrutiny of all his official acts. In his speech he was aggressive. He put the opposition in the pillory and then gave them the bastinado. At times he was very eloquent. The meeting closed with all Coalitionists perfectly satisfied with that day's work.

The meeting the next day at Barnwell was of the same order, but the attendance was larger. The speakers were the same as at Jasper with the addition of Mr. R. A. Russell, Coalition candidate for the Lower House, and Clement Manly, Esq. Mr. Russell satisfied his friends that he will make an excellent representative of good old Craven. Mr. Manly's speech was of Coalition, and a splendid appeal for the re-election of Mr. Stimson to the Congress of the United States.

The Coalition canvass has been a grand success, and it only remains for the people of Craven to do their duty and elect them. It will be done.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

Colored Papers' Coalition.
The Advocate, a paper published in this city, stands squarely for the Coalition movement. Here is a paragraph from a recent issue:
"Citizens of Craven: do you want your county to grow more prosperous, and place in position men who have an interest in the upbuilding of homes? If so, vote for the Coalition ticket."
The Golden Rule, another paper, which is published at Goldsboro, but which devotes a portion of its space to Craven county, boldly acknowledges that Coalition will be conducive to the better welfare of this section and urges its success. We copy:
"What is Coalition? It is the union of two parties, as applied to politics, or as it generally happens, portions of parties not of the same opinion, who yet agree to sink their differences and act in common. Just what the Republicans and Democrats have agreed to do for Craven county, viz to sink their political differences in regard to the county politics and in common to elect that we may have good county officials like Messrs. Stimson, Hubbs, Patterson, Lovick and worthy men to represent us in the Legislature like Messrs. Nunn and Russell. This is our ticket and we shall stand by it, and any one who says we are Democrats because we support the Coalition ticket perverts the truth and makes a lie an institution which weakens the cause which he espouses. We shall vote the ticket as Republicans, because it is the only ticket of this county which will stand by the material and industrial interests of our home and our party of principles which we can and advocate. Different parties are not worthy to be supported by the good people of Craven county. Let us vote in mass for the Coalition ticket and by doing this we will be able to build up waste places and ere long they will blossom as a rose."
What did the people of Craven county save by voting for Coalition in the campaign of 1887? From $3,000 to $4,000, in "spot cash," besides several thousands more in various ways by having good and efficient county officers, what would have been the benefit to this county had the members sent to the Legislature remained there during the whole session and not been hampered as they were? None whatever!

We have a great struggle before us therefore let no man stand but honest and true men, and put our tickets in the hands only of true Coalitionists, be at the polls early, think over your precincts and wards and see who has and who has not voted, bring out the maimed and sick, and watch the enemy be present when the polls close, see the votes counted and report any attempt to commit fraud.

Can the Hahnites hope for anything else but the rejection of the bonds, "marvel not" for it is written on high, that Mayer Hahn will never no more be Sheriff of Craven county.

Young men, let the ring master pop his lash no longer, there must hereafter be better nominations.

The Babies Cry For It.
And the old folks laugh when they find that the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, is more easily taken and more beneficial in its action than other nauseous medicines. It strengthens the Liver, Kidneys, Stomach and Bowels, while it arouses them to a healthy action.
