C. E. SLOVER.

FRESH LOT OF PRUNES, CURRANTS, Dried Apples, Sausages, Canned Fish, Pickled Tongues, Pick's Feet and Pig Tongues. Also, a lot of Canned Peaches, Tomatoes and Sugar Corn, Potted Ham, Corned Beef, Sole, Sausages, etc., as cheap as the cheapest, just received at DALL'S GROCERY, 101 St. On Broad street.

MIDDLE STREET SALOON. Best Oysters on the market and prepared in every style. Open at all hours. Mrs. S. A. WOMBLE.

GO with the crowd to John Dunn's and try his fine groceries and be made happy. Every one is delighted with his goods and his low prices.

TRY that new lot of Buck what, fresh Roasted Coffee and Canned Goods at PARSONS BROS, 101 St.

Those who have been smoking Proclamation Cigars, manufactured at Factory No. 1017, and sold in this city to the wholesale and retail trade by The Grocer, E. B. Hackburn, I would say that since some "merchants" have seen so very kind as to have a cigar put up at another factory bearing the same name, brand, caution label, etc., as the cigars which I have advertised for over a year, I have had a still better cigar manufactured and the brand registered, and it is really the best for 5 in the United States. Remember the brand, Old Hickory, Factory No. 1017. Try them.

COTTON TIES and Cotton Gins at GEO. ALLEN & CO.

IMPORTED FRENCH BRANDY and HOLLAND GIN, just received and for sale by JAMES REDMOND.

Go to the polls early and work hard all day.

THE Coalition candidates are sanguine; the people are confident.

CHEERING words for Simmons again greet us; and we stand on tip toe to catch the shout of victory.

FOR the time being the Lord Sackville incident runs ahead of the tariff. Everybody applauds Cleveland to the echo.

"ALL things are for the best," is the old adage. In that case the Democratic party is sure to win, for it is certainly "the best."

AT a banquet in honor of Gen. Boulanger, he announced his intentions of standing as a Deputy for Paris. The popularity of Boulanger with the populace of France is evidently increasing.

NEW YORK papers of Sunday give graphic accounts of President Cleveland's review of the vast army of solid business men on Saturday. Parrell's mother stood by the chieftain's side and declared herself a Democrat.

ONE of the most impressive incidents of the great Democratic parade in New York last Saturday was the muffing of drums and the hush of voices as the procession passed the hotel in which Mrs. James G. Blaine was almost dying because of the cruel treatment of the Blaine family.

THE Democracy of Eastern Carolina have occasion to thank the State Executive Committee for sending to this section of the State those champions of Democracy Daniel G. Fowle, A. M. Weddell, F. M. Strudwick, W. M. Robbins and O. M. Stedman. Their coming has been a blessing to us, and they will return to their homes with a higher appreciation of our people and a warmer love for North Carolina. We will not say to which of them we are most indebted. All did well, and will live forever in the hearts of our people.

THE speech of the campaign is the reply of Postmaster General Dickinson to Mr. Blaine at Grand Rapids, Mich., last Saturday. He handles the plumed knight as he was never handled before, and leaves his miserable carcass too poor for crows to feed upon.

THE report which reached Washington last Saturday that American and Russian war vessels will support the King Corea in his efforts to secure the independence of his country from the Chinese empire is without foundation, so far as this government is concerned. The administration stands by the Monroe doctrine.

THE prompt action of the President in regard to the Sackville incident has greatly increased Mr. Cleveland's popularity and leaves little or no doubt of his triumphant election. The Secretary of State, the Hon. Thos. F. Bayard, was directed to inform the British Government that the presence of Lord Sackville West was no longer desired. The stay of his lordship in America will be limited to a very few days.

LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS
DALL—Prunes, etc.
C. E. SLOVER—Oat flakes.
THOMAS & SONS—Peremptory sale.

Maj Stedman tonight at the court house.

Master Albert Patterson is getting his span of Angoras under pretty good training.

Hotel Albert is now furnishing its guest with the best the market affords. The finest of game, fish and oysters are served daily.

There are numerous small improvements going on over the city in the way of repairing and painting. Beyond all doubt the paint brush makes a wonderful improvement for the money invested.

W. T. Walker, Prohibition candidate for Governor, spoke at Five Points last night. There was only a medium sized crowd to hear him and they were almost all colored. Walker is a good speaker and if he can bring about temperance he will have gained a most glorious cause.

Another Candidate.
News has been received here that W. P. Mabson, col., of Edgecombe, has been brought forward by the Republicans of the second district as a candidate for Congress. This is doubtless an account of the irregularity of Chatham's nomination. The only way out of this muddle is for all right-thinking Republicans to vote for Hon. F. M. Simmons, who is a representative of the people without regard to party, race or color.

A Delightful Sail.
Tuesday afternoon Mr. R. P. Williams invited the visiting statesmen, Hon. F. N. Strudwick and Hon. W. M. Robbins, and a number of friends, to sail in his elegant sloop "Bessie and Ellis." Mr. S. declined to go upon the water, but at half past three the sloop was boarded by Major Robbins, Gen. Battle, Captain Roberts and Mr. Williams and two children. The sails were given to the breeze and the "Bessie and Ellis" shot up the Neuse, a thing of life and beauty. For two miles she held her way, and then returning passed into the Trent. It was a delightful sail. Major Robbins enjoyed it very much, only regretting that Mrs. Robbins and the children were not here to participate in the pleasure.

A Pleasant Occasion.
After the speech of Judge Fowle at the court house Monday night, quite a party of gentlemen met at the residence of James A. Bryan, Esq., for social enjoyment. Our next Governor and Hon. W. M. Robbins were present, but Mr. Strudwick was confined to his room with headache. After an hour, delightfully spent in the elegant parlors, the doors of the dining-room were thrown open and all lapsed to a sumptuous feast. After oysters came the wine and toast. Wit sparkled, and noble sentiments found graceful utterance and "all went merry as a marriage bell." At 12 o'clock the banquet was over, and the party dispersed with blessings on the head of our generous host and love for all mankind.

When you can get 5 Old Virginia Cheroots for 10 cents, why do you pay 5 cents for one cigar?
F. ULRICH, Wholesale Agent.

The Speaking Last Night.

A good crowd assembled at the court house last night, and we can safely say that never was a crowd better entertained. We don't believe an audience could ever tire of hearing Mr. Robbins. His eloquence interspersed as it is with humorous illustrations of the subject in hand is simply captivating, and the more he talks the more one wants to hear him. If he has not made votes for the Democratic ticket in his brilliant canvass of the East, then talking will not make them. We want him to come again when the time rolls around.

Hon. F. N. Strudwick followed Major Robbins in a powerful speech for the Democratic ticket. Our reporter could not remain to hear him through, but heard enough to know that he held the audience while he told them of their duty. He is an able speaker, and is doing noble service for the cause.

The speakers were introduced by Major John Hughes, and the best of order prevailed. As on the previous night, many ladies were out to hear them.

More Thoroughly Understood.

The spirit of Coalition has penetrated every nook and corner of Craven county, and is better understood today than it has ever been before. Two years ago it was proclaimed and ably propounded by as fine talent as we have, but it was new to many then and looked upon as experimental and probably dangerous. Nevertheless it presented views that the people could not discard without giving it serious thought and consideration. It was too plain that in the movement there was something which presented itself as a remedy for an evil that had too long existed.

After a full explanation of the cause by a few earnest workers, the question took root and gathered renewed force and energy until its weight was made to tell as a power. In it there was no sacrifice of honor nor principle, but there was, through its success, and its success alone, an opening whereby most wholesome results could be obtained.

Another two years have rolled around to find the very name Coalition ringing louder and stronger than ever. It is going to succeed, because it is open and fair in all of its details, and it is right, and it is best.

Personal.
Lieut. Governor Stedman arrived in the city last night and is the guest of J. A. Bryan, Esq.

Mrs. D. T. Carraway and family arrived last night from their summer visit to Round Knob.

Miss Eleanor Carraway who has been on an extended visit to the mountains returned last night.

Mr. J. C. Whitty and Rev. H. W. Battle left yesterday morning for La Grange to attend the meeting of the Atlantic Association of the Baptist Church.

Mrs. W. F. Rountree and children left yesterday morning on a visit to Mrs. A. T. Kennedy of Lenoir.

Messrs. A. Gordon and H. S. Gracie were at the exchange yesterday with cotton.

Mrs. C. W. McLean has returned from a visit North.

Miss Maude Amyette and Miss Lala Roberts left for Wilson yesterday morning.

Ch. E. Foy, Esq. left for a trip North yesterday.

Judge Green and Mrs. Green returned from New York last night.

Steamer Movements.

The Regist of the E. C. D. line arrived yesterday with a cargo of general merchandise and sailed yesterday afternoon with a full cargo. The Vesper of this line will arrive tomorrow.

The Newberne of the O. D. line arrived last night with a large cargo of general merchandise and will sail today at 10 o'clock for Norfolk direct.

The Howard from up the Trent with cotton.

The Carolina from Bell's Ferry with cotton and a number of passengers.

Stonewall Items.

On the evening of the 29th inst., at about 7 p. m., Judge Fowle arrived at our wharf on a steamer from Hyde county where he had been filling his appointment. He was met by a good number of Democrats who escorted him to C. H. Fowler's residence of whom he was the welcome guest until the morning of the 30th. As the appointed hour he was promptly on hand in Bayboro, where he was greeted by the largest crowd ever assembled in Pamlico county for any purpose. The crowd was variously estimated at from 1,500 to 2,000, and every section of our county was represented, and many were on hand from Beaufort county, and to cap the climax many were the fair ladies, both maid and matron, whose presence greeted him and listened to his explanation of the views of both parties which was unparalleled. It was such an explanation some could give save D. G. Fowle. It is simply nonsense for me to undertake to give even a synopsis of it, but will truthfully say that I have not heard a single person find the least fault, and on the 6th of November Pamlico will be sure to do her whole duty, and send greeting to our sister counties that she is in line for good government. So mote it be.

Kinston Items.

A killing frost on Tuesday morning. Small change is very scarce hereabouts now.

Kinston College has one hundred and twenty-five pupils.

George Kornegay is a good judge of cigars. We've tried some of his.

The hail on Saturday evening did much damage to many parts of our county.

Mr. E. F. Cox will soon resign his position as Chairman of County Commissioners.

The "Third Party" candidates made no votes last Saturday. We take no "woman suffrage" is ours.

Tar barrels and a brass band made things bright and lively at the Gadsden meeting on Wednesday night.

Oysters plentiful, but we wait for the New river bivalves, and they don't get ripe till ice comes.

The four young men of Kinston, who went out to Montana Territory last July to seek their fortunes, are all doing well there, getting good wages and enjoying excellent health.

Some of Mr. Chauncey Gray's customers seem not to have learned that he has moved his goods to the new stand. He is now in the lower one of the King stores nearly opposite the court house.

Hon. H. A. Gadsden spoke to a large audience in the court house last night, (Wednesday). Without detracting from the other good Democrats who have at several times during this campaign, address of the people of Kinston, we really think that Mr. Gadsden's speech was the best. He is peculiarly well qualified for a campaigner. Honest, earnest, fearless, he speaks with true patriotism, zeal and fidelity. He is a real orator. He gets the sympathy of his audience in the very outset and keeps it to the close. His speech, last night, cannot and will not be forgotten soon by our people. Many ladies were present and seemed to enjoy the occasion. We shall hail his appearance with pleasure if he ever comes this way again.

DIED.
Martha E. Brooks, daughter of E. J. and Pastie Brooks, of Lenoir county, on the 24th inst., aged 4 years, 1 month and 16 days.

It is a serious error for us to think that God takes away our children by a special providence. He simply lets nature take her course, and if the dear little one "falls asleep" it is from natural cause and not by God's special decree.

Who would presume to say that God took away the spirit of Lazarus by a special design, and then stood by the grave and wept over the calamity and called the spirit back? It would be presumptuous and inconsistent.

It gives us more consolation, and makes us love God more, to feel that the child died from natural causes that could not be controlled by the remedying, and that, in the emergency, the loving Jesus caught up the precious jewel and keeps it safe for us by saying, "She is not dead but sleeping," and assures us of a happy reunion in the beautiful mansion where God shall wipe away all tears and soothe the aching brow.

We sympathize with the bereaved in the loss of their dear little one, who was nearer and dearer to them than tongue can tell, yet in their distress they should remember that to die is gained.

She is missed from the circle, yet our hearts still hold her memory which will ever be cherished though our eyes no longer behold her sunny face.

"Like beautiful flowers of morning
Uplifting their heads from the dew
Conspiring to rival in beauty,
You jewels that shine in the blue."

But plucked by the hand of an angel,
Ere bursting from bud into bloom,
Like music, she softened our sorrows,
Like sunshine, she banished our gloom.

Her love and her prattle of childhood,
Each glance from her wonderful eyes
Remains in our memories forever,
Recalling our hearts to the skies.

In realms of delight she is waiting,
Now freed from all sorrow and pain,
God's mansion in rapture exploring,
Till we are united again.

Our Martha in garments of whiteness
Now joins in the heavenly strain.

IS CONSUMPTION INCURABLE?
Read the following Mr. C. H. Morris, Newark, Ark., says: "Was down with abscess of lungs, and friends and physicians pronounced me an incurable consumptive. Began taking Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, am now on my third bottle, and able to oversee the work on my farm. It is the finest medicine ever made."

Jesse Middlewart, Decatur, Ohio, says: "Had it not been for Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption I would have died of Lung Trouble. Was given up by doctors. Am now in best of health." Try it. Sample bottles free at R. N. Duffy's drug store.

Land For Sale.

ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY EIGHT ACRES more or less situated in the west part of the town of Trenton, on the Trent road leading to the town of Trenton. A portion of this land is dark sandy loam, good for corn, and the remainder is a heavy soil, well adapted to the raising of cotton, and general crops of truck, also well adapted to strawberries. The other portion is a light sandy loam, good for both peas and general crops raised in the section. There is a fine lot on the Trent road, a small tract of land known to the farmers in the district. Also will convey with the land a well worn spring water, which will be a great benefit to the owner. The land is well fenced, and has a fine view of the Trent river and the city of Trenton. It is a fine opportunity for a farmer to purchase, and will be sold at a low price. For particulars apply to F. ULRICH, Wholesale Agent, New Berne, N. C.
